TO MONTREAL

R. S. (Bob) Bryden, who started his CBC career as junior news editor in Toronto two years ago last September, has been transferred to Montreal to take over the position of senior English news editor.

BUYS OLD LANDMARK

Arthur J. Lallmand of Montreal has purchased the old Dewitt residence and landmark, constructed more than 100 years ago. This famous stone residence is the oldest in the county (Huntington) and was the gathering place of many of the old-time political leaders and other important celebrities of the county.

CHANGING BUSINESS

It will be interesting to learn in the post-war period what effect new regulations now coming into effect will have on business. By that we mean whether there will be a continued trend toward bigger business getting bigger or more small establishments owner-operated.

Bringing to 41 the awards for heroism which Canadian Pacific sailing personnel has won in this war these officers have been honored by the King "for good service" in vessels from among the 20 Canadian Pacific ships taken over by the Admiralty since 1939.

They are from among the 4,488 company men now on Admiralty service, with an additional 1,010 on "Mont" ships being used as armed cruisers and 101 in shore posts. Of the 18 ocean liners and fast-freighters and the two British Columbia Coast Service vessels in which they went to war nine have been awarded as lost — two from the peacetime Pacific fleet, four from Atlantic runs and one from the coast service.

TO CANADA

Thank you for the three hundred cigarettes I received in Toronto. I had been relying on the kindness of my pals for smokes for some time. I hadn't received a letter from you for some time. I hope you are all well. I am going very well over here. I hope it is all over soon. I hope you are all in the land of health.
