

MEN FOR HOME BUILDING MUST BE SECURED

Home building is highly essential to overcome pressing housing shortages, and to provide dwellings for the Forces as discharged.

Shortages of workers for building homes and for producing the building materials are threatening to impede Canada's program for the construction of 50,000 homes as soon as possible.

All men experienced in home building or in producing building materials, who are not now working in either of these industries, are urged to apply to the nearest office of the National Employment Service immediately.

Men experienced at home building or producing supplies, if now in other essential work, will be given permits to work at jobs which will assist the home building program.

All men, now at home building or producing supplies, who can fill a job in this program, are urged to answer this call.

Apply at once at the nearest office of the National Employment Service.

This Week At Queen's Park

— By Frank Hinds —
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Toronto, August 1. (CP) — Canada's first major labor dispute since the conclusion of the war in Europe appeared near settlement when Canada Packers agreed to a union proposal that a three-man commission be asked to arbitrate differences over a union agreement.

An estimated 5,300 members of the United Packaginghouse Workers of America (C.I.O.) were out on strike in Toronto, Peterborough, St. Catharines, Hamilton and Vancouver and an estimated 1,200 employees in one Saskatoon and six Winnipeg plants owned by other companies voted to strike Thursday in sympathy with their co-workers.

Mr. Justice S. E. Richards, chairman of a commission which drew up an agreement between the union and the three major meat packing companies—Canada Packers, Swift Canadian, and Pat Burns was asked to preside over the new commission agreed on by company and union to arbitrate the dispute.

The original strike started in five Toronto plants of Canada Packers Ltd., when 1,800 workers left their jobs July 24 after a disagreement which started July 17 when the union asked the company to transfer a worker from the beef-killing floor of the Toronto meat packing plant. The request was refused. General strike action followed.

Daily pay loss to the workers is estimated at $42,000 and Canada Packers officials estimate that weekly loss in production should be about $100,000. The company's strike last seven days, would be 9,420,000 pounds of meat.

Toronto chain store officials expressed fear that the city might suffer a meat shortage within a few days if the dispute were not settled.

The Ontario Department of Planning and Development is laying the basis for what it hopes will be an unprecedented expansion of business between Britain and the province. Dr. George Langford, department director, said in a statement following his return from a visit to the United Kingdom. Dr. Langford said Ontario will share considerably in the expected branching out of many British manufacturers.

Results of his department's services would be seen when conditions permit active steps being taken by overseas firms.

Indicative of British industrialists' interest in Ontario and Dominion enterprises was the recent purchase by British interests of the Canadian government-owned Victory Aircraft plant at Malton, Ont. Many aviation experts believe the Dominion will become the aircraft production centre of the Empire within the next decade.

Factors supporting this contention are the proximity of Canadian industry to sources of raw materials and Canada's position on the aerial map which makes ready delivery of the completed plane to any part of the world feasible.

Premier George Drew and eight of his cabinet ministers will head a thirty-five man delegation to the Dominion-provincial conference scheduled to open August 6th in Ottawa. Each province, together with a Dominion government representative, will be represented by four committees to be created to handle the business of the conference. Each minister will be accompanied by officials of his department including his deputy minister. The conference is expected to last a week to ten days.

News Of Men Returning Home

— By H. L. Jones —
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Ottawa, Aug. 1. (CP) — Ottawa was momentarily shaken out of its between-session political doldrums this week by the news that Prime Minister Mackenzie King was to be opposed by an unknown member of the opposition in a by-election where he had been considered a sure thing for an acclamation.

The politically-minded were intrigued by the dark-horse opponent, Dr. Richard Monahan, 64, self-described as an "old boy," who suddenly appeared on the scene. He came into Alexandria, centre of the by-election, on a day last week, announced his intention to run for King because he believed the by-election was "too cut and dried." He left the town as suddenly as he had appeared, but filed his nomination papers making polling necessary August 6.

The prime minister, defeated in Prince Albert, Sask. in the recent federal election, accepted the liberal nomination in Glengarry. The Liberal member-elect stepped out to make way for him. With the Progressive Conservative and C.C.F. parties decided not to oppose Mr. King.

No one suggests the possibility of the prime minister being defeated. But despite the fact the campaign would be an estimated $10,000, Dr. Monahan plans to go through with it. He urges a complete Federal medical insurance act and a Wagner act for labor.

There was speculation on whether the forcing of a by-election necessitating at least one trip to the riding by the prime minister would delay the cabinet reorganization he is known to be planning. It meant simply that Mr. King could not be sure of a Conservative seat until and unless he wins the election August 6 compared with an unopposed acclamation victory July 30.

No comment came from the veteran prime minister.

Mary O'Donnell, prior to leaving for Windsor. Sub. Lt. O'Donnell expects to receive his discharge within the next month and return again to civilian life. He plans to take up with his wife and family where he was left off and will reside in Windsor.

Many Schools Of Nursing Still Have Fall Vacancies

— Although the response of our young women to the call for more student nurses has been wonderful there are still many Canadian hospital schools of nursing with vacancies in their fall classes. Miss Jean Maaten, President of the Registered Nurses Association of Ontario, in an interview today.

"There is still, in spite of the cessation of hostilities in Europe, a need for more nurses in Canada," Miss Maaten continued. "Thousands of returning war veterans need nursing care. A greater percentage of our civilian population are seeking professional nursing care when they are ill. There is a need for many more nurses in our expanding public health program. There will continue to be plenty of good positions for good nurses, and girls entering schools of nursing now will be preparing themselves for interesting careers, while at the same time helping to relieve the present nursing shortage."

There are at present about thirty Canadian hospital schools of nursing with vacancies in their September classes. Miss Maaten advised. Most of these are smaller schools to which it does not occur to girls to apply. Many of these smaller schools, however, have excellent training facilities and even offer certain advantages over the larger schools. The names and locations of these schools, together with other data concerning them, can be obtained from the Canadian Nurses' Association, whose executive offices are located at 1411 Crescent Street, Montreal, or from any of the nine provincial Nurses' Associations. In most schools classes commence September 1st or 15th, although there are some in which classes commence later in the month.

The little girl was playing in a field adjacent to the house at the time. Her mother and grandmother were only a short distance away but did not see the accident happen. It was not determined actually whether she was kicked in the face or knocked down and her face struck the ground.

Lateral x-ray examinations showed a fractured cheek bone as well as a fracture of the nose. Although there were no injuries to the teeth or jaw. She was operated on and the fracture set last Friday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital in Hamilton and is now making good recovery.

SOFTBALL NOTES...

Most exciting results of the week was the win by Selkirk over Garnet. Although there seems to be some difference of opinion as to why Garnet lost the game on Monday night, it is reported officially that Selkirk won the game and that what counts Garnet, it seems, never did get their last but in seems also they don't get to the game until the first moonbeams peeked over the horizon and that calls for a penalty—whether or to the extent of denying them their last bat, is not for us to say.

With two games to play with Garnet, Jarvis is once more getting hopeful for that play-off place. Varenny turned them back last week—then Selkirk—so why not Jarvis. It's rumored one of the games will be played on Friday night and there is no question Jarvis will be out to win. Manager Charlie Potts says he is going to pour all his talent into this game and if he can't win a pennant he wants at least to beat Garnet once. Of course Bruce Meacham has other ideas.

Nanticoke fans drove home in a happy mood last Wednesday night when they tucked their second wins of the season under their belts. Of course Jarvis was once again the loser. And although no one has been so unkind as to say so openly the loss of the game was due to the erratic play of a certain third baseman, who later attempted to do a bit of mound work with the same unsatisfactory results.

With about eight more games to go in the league the teams in the play-off positions are pretty well ascertained. It wouldn't do to name them—just yet.

The postponed game between Varenny and Lamb's Corners will be played on the Jarvis diamond this evening.

"... There She Goes!"

YES, there goes the whistle that means jobs! But remember! Factory whistles will keep blowing... smoke will keep pouring from the factory chimneys, only if you and all of us do our part to keep Canada's dollar sound. And unless we keep the Canadian dollar worth a dollar, we're headed for inflation, and its inevitable result—depression!

Canada's active fight against inflation is a vital part of all our post-war planning. We Canadians must now—more than ever—fight to keep Canada's dollar worth a full dollar!

Why now especially? Because now civilian goods are scarce, and yet money is plentiful. This is a dangerous condition.

Make this Pledge Today!

I pledge myself to do my part in fighting inflation:

By observing rationing and avoiding black markets in any shape or form.

By respecting price controls and other anti-inflation measures, and refraining from careless and unnecessary buying. I will not buy two when one will do, nor will I buy a "new" where an "old" will do.

By buying Victory Bonds, supporting taxation and aiding by all such measures which will lower the cost of living and help keep prices at a normal level.

Published by THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO) to reveal the dangers of inflation.
