THIS ARMY

"I'd strongly advise you to move yer fire to another spot!"

THE SPORTING THING

HOLD EVERYTHING

"I did ever get along before you got big enough to tell us what we ought to do?"

POP—Good Title

REG'AR FELLERS—Triumph for Art

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

ANSWER: A fat-bottom rowboat used by fishermen.

MUTT AND JEFF

FUNNY BUSINESS

"If he passes the cactus test he's really out!"

MUTT AND JEFF

CROSTOWN

"Wrap it as a gift and sprinkle some salt water on it—I don't want her to think I just remembered her birthday at the last moment."

BOMB-BEARING JAP PAPER BALLOON

Officials examine bomb-bearing paper balloon with Jap inscription. According to recent announcement by U. S. War and Navy Departments, Japan has been sporadically attacking western United States, with no damage. Here Maj. J. P. Belding, Army Air Corps balloon expert, holds release valve; Capt. W. B. Standard of Army Intelligence holds shock absorber; FBI agent W. G. Ban-ger holds flash bomb device, and Ensign P. M. Jackson, Navy Intelligence, holds roll of fuse attached to bomb.

LOOKS WRONG, BUT IT'S O. K.

That's a British soldier at left, standing in mock expectancy while an armed German spongy checks his papers before letting him pass. It goes on every day in Crete where the big German garrison has been allowed to retain its arms, for fear of attack by the vengeful natives. Germans live in Suda Bay area and Allied personnel must have special permits to enter.

BRIDGE ON TANK—TANK ON BRIDGE

The photos above are the first released of the British Army's "Sissors" tank, which carries its own bridge with it. From a normal position on the top of the tank, the bridge portion is lifted by a hydraulic arm, as shown in top photo and deposited across narrow streams. The bottom picture made in Holland where narrow streams and canals abound, shows the bridge in use.

RE-ELECTED

Returning to Lyons after release from Nazi bondage, M. Herriot is shown receiving cheers from citizens of Lyons. The former Premier of France was re-elected Mayor of Lyons upon return.

DEFEND PETAIN

In a book published in Montreal, French professor Louis Rougier, above, says that aged Field Marshal Henry Philippe Petain, instead of being a traitor as now charged, kept France and the French fleet from going over to the Axis while he headed the Vichy government.

MAYOR OF NAHA

A pistol-packing "city father" is Maj. Anthony Walker, above, of Fairfax, Va. He's the new mayor of Naha, capital of Okinawa, "elected" to the job by his division commander.

MONTY DELIGHTS DUTCH LAD

Great delight is registered on the face of this young Dutch boy, as Field Marshal Montgomery took a moment off to autograph the lad's notebook during a recent visit to the First Canadian Army Headquarters.

COMMAND PERFORMANCE—TO LEARN THE TRUTH

SYRIAN ROW SPOTLIGHTS ALLIES' MEDITERRANEAN HEADACHES

The Big Five—U. S., Britain, Russia, France and China—meeting to deal with the Syrian-Lebanon dispute, "could undoubtedly find themselves ensnared in major problems involving North Africa and the whole Middle East. Particularly delicate, in view of possible general settlement in North Africa, is the great powers' attitude toward the Arab League, the independence of whose seven member countries has been recognized. What will Britain's position be in Egypt, Trans-Jordan, Palestine and Iraq? What will Britain's position be in Syria, Lebanon and Yemen? Map above locates some of the painful questions for which Big Five will have to find answers.
