Highly Esteemed Citizen Passes

In the passing of the Rev. M. E. Siple at the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Duxbury, in the Township of Walpole last Thursday, an exemplary citizen passed to his reward. He was in his eighty-sixth year.

The late Mr. Siple, a native of Norwich, was a minister of the Baptist Church and held charge of North London, Alveston, Whitevale, Hillsburg, Carleton Place and Selkirk. When forced to give up a permanent charge due to ill-health, he still continued to do supply work when he was able. Rev. and Mrs. Siple lived in Simcoe for some time before moving to Jarvis where they remained until a few years ago since which time they have made their home with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Duxbury. On September 28th Mr. and Mrs. Siple marked their sixty-fourth wedding anniversary.

Besides his wife, he leaves one daughter and two sons. Mrs. James Duxbury of Walpole Township, Claude Siple of Buffalo and Harry Siple, of Selkirk.

The funeral was held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Duxbury at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. Newcombe, former pastor of First Baptist Church, Simcoe, was in charge of the service, assisted by Rev. H. Wright of Hagersville Baptist Church and Rev. C. E. Windus of Simcoe. A joint service was held in the Wesley United Church, Jarvis, with Miss Mearns presiding and Mrs. Mearns officiating. The service was also sung at the home of the late Mr. Siple.

EMERGENCIES arise in any family

Banks are continually making small loans to meet these emergencies which can upset the best-planned budgets.

Three out of every five bank loans are for less than $500. Many of these are used to take care of such expenses as doctor or hospital bills, temporary embarrassment at tax-time, a sudden journey, the winter's coal bill.

Again, educational needs of the family often are financed by small bank loans.

These small loans enable individuals to consolidate debts, and to pay back from income.

Small loans furnish just one more example of the service available to you at your bank.
