Ninth Victory Loan

Truly A War Loan There exists no magic wand on can use to waft military force from the scenes of battle to thei ormal home surroundings ov night. Unfortunately, long after the nemy cries surrender, the cost of war goes on. The Canadian people must mee the cost of bringing the troop home, the maintenance of our force f occupation in Germany. Pay of the men who are waiting demobi zation goes on. Cheques to depend ents keep going out until the sold-ier has his discharge paper. There are heavy domestic expenditures, made heavier by the unpre-cedented demands of this period of re-construction in the country, which are included in the total of the Ninth Victory Loan objective. But of this we can be sure. The major portion of the money which Canadians will provide for the pur-chase of bonds in October and November is needed to cover the cost
