HALDIMAND WILL FINISH THE JOB

LAST WEEK we published on our front page a cut which included the pictures of seven Haldimand men who constitute the County Executive of the National War Finance Committee. With one or two exceptions, each of these men have been the guiding spirit in each Victory Loan conducted in this County.

In other words they enlisted at the outbreak and like good soldiers, are staying in there until the finish. These men through their close association with the loans have long since recognized the importance of the success of the loans to the welfare of Canada and the individual. They are men who in every case are considered sound in their respective communities, and consequently their leadership has a decided influence on public thinking.

In the Ninth Victory Loan campaign which opens on Monday, this executive forces a big job ahead. It is the final hurdle, and once again they are planning for the huge task. County Chairman Jim Allen has been the inspirational force behind the organization since its inception and again this year he has brought forth a slogan, which he feels himself and which he is sure will appeal to every citizen of Haldimand. His slogan is: "HALDIMAND WILL FINISH THE JOB". That slogan will strike a responsive chord. Haldimand enjoys an enviable position with respect to support in previous loans and the County Chairman is undoubtedly right in assuming that Haldimand will finish the job. We all recognize the fact that our soldiers from Haldimand finished their job overseas and we are certainly not going to let them down in this final battle on the home front.

SESSIONAL INDEMNITIES

PARLIAMENT is considering allowing M. P.'s an additional $2,000. per year to their present $4,000. salary, with the additional amount not subject to Income Tax, but rather considered as a payment to cover an M.P.'s essential expenses.

If significant for no other reason it is undoubtedly one measure that will receive unanimous support among the members of Parliament. Our thought on the subject is that in leaving sessional indemnities at the $4,000. figure this long, parliament has been exhibiting a lack of courage evident in many other questions of public importance. It is apparent to any student of political affairs that $4,000. per year is not going to attract the average man toward a political career. Unfortunately the $4,000. figure is confusing. A good many people would be happy to be able to earn $4,000. per year. But in these days when "Take Home Pay" is being talked about so much, it should be remembered that when the average M.P. deducts essential expenses he has far less left to put aside for old age than the average citizen.

If we are going to have "Government by the people" we certainly have to provide our elected representatives with a sufficient remunerative salary to provide for them and their families. In taking this view we can't be accused of being too conservative in our thinking, because the increased indemnities would be more helpful to those who are fighting capitalistic interests than any other group.

COME AND GET 'EM

AN ADVERTISEMENT appearing in one of the papers this week over the name of War Assets Corporation, provides an amusing side to the tremendous job of disposing of surplus wartime equipment.

War Assets is notifying the public that "Universal Carriers" are being offered for sale and that the public are privileged to buy them if they wish, lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted. The advertisement points out that the vehicles are equipped with steel lugs and consequently cannot be operated on highways. Also because of steering peculiarities, they are unsafe for use on public roads. Further they are not recommended for agricultural work, and as a last general recommendation of the sterling qualities of these vehicles, it is pointed out that no replacement parts are available.

One observer of the advertisement commented that the "Universal Carriers" are so entirely useless that he expects his mother-in-law will buy one and give it to him as a Christmas present.

The humorous side of the whole thing is that War Assets Corporation is not going to be put behind the eight ball because of unwarranted public criticism to the effect that public property is being wantonly destroyed. Here is a great opportunity for those people who cry out about the wasteful destruction of surplus war equipment to pick something up cheap. They will eventually end up in the junk pile, but to satisfy the public some newspapers will at least get some paid advertising.

DURING peak operations of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, there were 73 flying schools and 24 RAF transferred schools in Canada. The plan's trained staff grew from 4,538 in 1940 to more than 140,000 by December, 1943.

HE'D LIKE TO KNOW YOU Personally

The service you receive from your bank is rendered so quietly and efficiently that the human values behind it may not have occurred to you.

Think, for instance, of the confidence you rest in your branch bank manager, perhaps without even knowing him well personally. You ought to know him better. By depositing your money in his branch, you made him and his staff the custodians of your account and the transactions relating to it. You hold him in high trust, knowing that your private affairs will be kept private.

You will find your bank manager a trained man who has come up through the ranks, and who will be glad to discuss your financial needs with you and to inform you as to the appropriate service his bank can render.

Should you desire a personal loan to meet some unexpected expense, talk it over with him. You can depend on receiving courteous, understanding and friendly consideration. Small loans are just one of the services your bank provides. You may be surprised to learn of many other services available for your use.

Pen, Scissors and Pastepot

The proofreader of a small daily was a woman of great precision and propriety. One day a reporter succeeded in getting into type an item about "Willie Brown", the boy who was burned in the west end of a live wire. On the following day the reporter found on his desk a frigid note asking "which is the west end of a boy?" It took only an instant to reply: "The end the son sets on, of course."

We hope she liked it—Age Dispatch.

The Manager of the American Dairy Association has announced that butter rationing can safely be discontinued in the United States by December 1st. We hope Canadian Wartime Prices and Trade Board officials are giving consideration to such possibilities in this country.

Some people's idea of being generous to a good cause was typified by the woman who put ten cents in a boy scout's tin on apple day and picked out five choice apples from his basket. That's cheaper than you can get them at the stores these days.

Pierre Laval swallowed poison after being sentenced to death. The Doctors had a tough time reviving him so they could stand him up against the wall to face the firing squad. We suppose it would have been a disappointment to the firing squad.

A wedding of much interest took place on Saturday, October 6th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Swing, R.R. 4, Jarvis, when their only daughter, Margaret Laura, became the bride of Mr. Ralph C. Slaght, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Slaght, Simcoe.

The house was beautifully decorated with roses. The Rev. Fuller, pastor of Chalmers Stone Church, officiating minister, and Miss Alva Walker, organist of the church, played the wedding music. The solemn, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Slaght, cousin of the bride, sang "For the Prayer" before the ceremony and a gown of white sheer with basque and a high collar. The full skirt ending in a train. Her long veil was held in place by a crown of white rose buds and baby's breath. She wore a silver and blue muir. The bride entered the bride's room in a silver and blue muir. The bride entered the bride's room in a silver and blue muir. The bride entered the bride's room in a silver and blue muir.

A reception for about eighty guests followed the ceremony. Mrs. Swing received, wearing a brown and cream frock of crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of bronze roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Slaght wearing a two-piece green crepe frock and black accessories. Her corsage was bronze mums. The bride's table covered with a crocheted lace cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by pillar candles in silver holders. The cups used by the bride and groom were bought by her grandfather and grandfather while on their honeymoon as gifts for the bride's mother and father. On the wedding cake was served in a silver cake basket, belonging to her grandmother which was more than fifty years old.

Misses Laura McBride, Helen Ince, Marie Mulkins, Florence Somers, Alva Walker and Mrs. Sanford Fleming, served.

For travelling the bride donned a smart crease crepe dress and hat, blue top coat and navy accessories. Her corsage was gardenia and steph anotis.

Guests were present from Hamilton, Simcoe and neighboring points. On their return from a trip to Manitoulin Island, Sudbury and North Bay, they will make their home near Onondaga.

On Wednesday afternoon, October 6th, Mrs. Amos Swing, R.R. 4 Jarvis entertained for her daughter at a trousseau tea.

The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and gladioli. The guests were received by Mrs. Swing, showed her trousseau and Miss Gann the gifts. About thirty neighbors dining room Mrs. L. Slaght poured the tea and Miss G. Slaght and Miss M. Swing served the guests.

Sgt. Major S. R. Leatherdale, spent the week end at his home here.

Mr. George Thompson, recently returned from overseas and his wife, spent a few days last week with the former's sister, Mrs. Roy MacGregor and family.
