

JUST IN FUN

All the Answers

There was the usual charge of struggling humanity when the bus pulled up. But the conductor was behind time, and didn't want to lose any more.

Why Brag

He was one of those fathers who believed in trying to answer any question put by his son.

It's Not New

At the circus a girl demonstrated trick-riding, by circum-navigating the ring first on the horse's neck, then practically on its tail, and wound up underneath the horse, clinging to the girth.

THE SPORTING THING

"This used to be one of my old haunts!"

The Works

Bill kept hens. One night he had two stolen. The next night he stayed up in the hen shed with his friend Joe to wait for the thieves.

Dangerous Craft

Dr. Telyi Hsieh, Chinese scholar and resident of Boston, was one day conversing with a native of Aberdeen on the subject of his favorite diversion—boating.

A Report

Jack, the sailor, had broken with his girl. After ignoring several letters requesting the return of her photograph, he received one threatening to complain to the captain.

His Reason

After a long talk on the value of peace, good will and disarmament, a Riverside teacher asked the class if they objected to war.

Much More

The bride of a struggling young writer was the big success of the evening, and all the men at the party glommed each other so close with her.

He'll Find Them

Gerard was Aunt Matilda's favorite nephew and she was planning to send him a birthday gift.

VOICE OF THE PRESS

Eat the Crusts

What happens in one hotel happens in ten of thousands. What happens in one home happens in millions.

Can't Hide It

Some women stop telling their age just about the time age starts telling on them.

Goring's Alibi

At Nuremberg it's the Nazis' day in court. And in our mind's eye we see Fat Goring rising to his full width and explaining it to two other fellows.

Atomic

A scientific study of human life in Nagasaki examined for a screen that showed existing damage effects.

FIREARMS SEIZED IN MAILS

Ed-Geck, H. E. Chater, O.B.E., Assistant Director of Ordnance Stores (Warlike) looks over the latest accumulation of lethal hardware seized in the mails by the Post Office authorities in the United Kingdom.

SPACE FOR RENT - NO CEILING

An enterprising property owner hopefully displays a "for rent" sign on what is left of a Manila store building, reduced by bombings to only a shell.

OCEAN LINER, JET-PROPELLED

Miss Flora Tomadelli, daughter of New York designer J. Tomadelli, is pictured above holding a scale model of the "New Era" jet-propelled ocean liner conceived by her father.

ENEMY OF FRANCE?

Gen. Maxime Weygand, above, 78-year-old former commander-in-chief of the French army, is on trial in Paris.

FILES FOR SENATE

Douglas (Wrong Way) Corrigan, who electrified the world in July 1928, when he made a forbidden flight—"by mistake"—from New York to Dublin, Eire, in a dilapidated and obsolete plane, has filed his name for the U. S. Senate.

Highlights of the News

Will Take Oath

Field Marshal Viscount Alexander and children are expected to arrive in Halifax on the Aquitania on April 10.

To Visit Occupation Forces

Viscount Masey, retiring Canadian High Commissioner in Britain, now on a farewell holiday of Europe before he retires, will visit Maj.-Gen. Christopher Vokes, Commander-in-Chief Canadian occupation forces in Germany, and tour the Canadian zone.

Home Fleet at Lisbon

The British Home Fleet, making its first "spring cruise" in seven years, arrived last week at Gibraltar under the command of Admiral Sir Edward Neville-Sydney.

Maple Syrup Ration Stays

Maple syrup will remain on the ration list, R. W. Mayhew, parliamentary assistant to the minister of finance, told the Commons.

Trusts UNO Will Succeed

Soviet Russia's spies ordered their Canadian agents to get information on atomic research, on radar applications for a battleship destined to serve in the Pacific, on a new explosive in which the United States was interested, and on Canadian military strength at Valcartier, it was revealed in court in Montreal last week.

Rental Cuts Remain

A report from Ottawa states that while price-controls will be lifted from a wide range of articles, in addition to those from which they have already been removed within the next couple of months, the ceiling will be retained for a longer period on clothing, rents, most food products and certain other essentials.

Hungry Germans Looting Stores

Looting of food stores by hungry Germans has increased in Hamburg and a British medical

Cropping of Fallow Land an Emergency

Canada has at last achieved a reasonable balance between crop land and fallow land and it cannot be lightly distributed in the interests of agriculture, says the Winnipeg Free Press.

Officer Declares

The police ordered food dealers to board up their shop windows as an emergency measure against lands of men, women and children who have stormed nearly 60 bread stores recently.

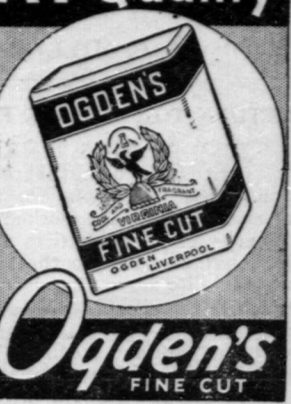

U.S. Rationing If Needed

President Truman said he would not object to a return to wartime food rationing if it became absolutely necessary.

Tortured By SINUS PAIN

You can get quick relief from painful sinusitis with a few drops of VICKS Vapo-Rol.

A1 Quality

KIDNEY ACIDS Rob your Rest...

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. It may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood.

WE'RE SPEAKING OF Your Tomorrow, Too...

Thousands of Canadian boys—sons, brothers, husbands—are returning from the wars—returning to what promises to be a happy tomorrow... a tomorrow that many gave their lives to bring about.

A tomorrow that may be held back if immoderate or unessential spending brings about inflation... if our desires are not confined to temperate limits... if the many strange ideas and philosophies that are with us today are not carefully considered and moderated to suit our needs and way of living.

The real enjoyments and full pleasures of gracious living are possible only to the man who practices moderation—in everything he does.

The House of Seagram suggests that we think of tomorrow—and be moderate in all we do.

THE HOUSE OF SEAGRAM

Men who Think of Tomorrow... Practice Moderation Today!