GUIDANCE FOR YOUTH
 Vocational guidance now is receiving more attention in many high schools throughout the province. It seems to be a desirable trend. Certainly much boredom, heart-burning and inefficiency in school work can be avoided if a student's aptitudes and special help are given to him. That doesn't mean something for us has happened now. Perhaps the new has supported it or not. I hoped us it is worth supporting.

Unfortunately, 100 may be still going in the grade. There being 435 in the grade June. The other 250 seem to be about as low as possible to get them.

THE Week in Ottawa
 Specially Written for the Record
 By H. Deat Hodgson
 Canadian Press Staff Writer

Ottawa, July 21. (CP) — Encouraging news or two of Canada's main industries — producers of wheat and gold — which came from the Commons last week has eased much of the tension and uncertainty surrounding both questions.

Encouragingly, a recent advertisement by farmers was the wheat agreement with Britain, finally agreeing to a long term $1,000,000,000 contract covering a four-year period and involving at least 600,000,000 bushels of wheat.

The gold announcement was a development on which considerable pressure had been placed, but the government's three-point plan to assist the industry in overcoming financial handicaps arising from recent adjustments of the Canadian dollar to parity with the United States dollar was a step many had feared might not be forthcoming this season.

The wheat agreement, which followed more than a month of negotiation, becomes effective August 1st. It guarantees a price of $1.50 a bushel for No. 1 Northern wheat for the first two years of the agreement with a minimum price of $1.25 and $1.00 a bushel respectively for the third and fourth years.

While the promised prices were not high, the Canadian farmer, a victim of price fluctuations during the First World War, at least has the assurance of this minimum, and the agreement also read that in determining the price or crop (1948-49 and 1949-50), the British government "will have regard to any difference" between the price of wheat in Britain and the world prices for wheat in those years.

The $1,000,000,000 includes 160,000,000 bushels in each of 1946-47 and 1947-48 and 140,000,000 bushels in each of the following two years. Any additional quantities of wheat which may be needed and which Canada may have to offer will be sold subject to the agreement.

Trade Minister MacKinnon, explaining the agreement, said it ensures a market for Canadian wheat more cheaply than it would be elsewhere on a free market at the present time. In return, Canada was assured a guaranteed market at the stated minimum prices at least. Canadian farmers thus were "protected from crippling losses should there be a world slump in wheat prices."

Opposition members were expected to argue that the agreement was "inadequate" in that it failed to give Canadian farmers sufficient security. On the other hand, H. H. Hamman, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, which he said represented more than 200,000 organized farmers, termed the agreement "in line with the thinking of wheat farmers across the Dominion."

Popular Jarvis Young People Take Marriage Vows

KRAUSKOPF-FLEMING
BURDITT-ASPDEN

In Knox Presbyterian Church, Jarvis, at 3 o'clock on July 26th, the wedding was solemnized of Alma Mrs. J. W. Fleming and Pte. Joseph Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Krauskopf of Dublin, Ont.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white sheer with lace insets and her hair held by a braided nosegay of red roses. She carried a Morris, her only attendant, was carried out in pink net over satin, and the bridesmaids wore pink crepe. The charge arose following a fracas at the local ball park at the conclusion of a game between Port Dover and Jarvis, marking the second venue of the Inter-County League. The bride was a player on the team. It was said that the Port Dover team had a complimentary nature and that the bride was a player on the team. The bride was a player on the team. The bride was a player on the team.

Still Vacancy on School Staff

The local school board still have one vacancy to fill on the Divisional School staff before school opens next month. Miss Dorothy M. Gordon, of the Department of Education, accepted the position, but notified the board last week she would be unable to fulfill her contract due to circumstances beyond her control.

Miss Vera Barnby of London, Ontario will replace George Armstrong as Principal of the Continuation School. Miss Barnby has had twenty years experience in Ontario and London schools and will come to Jarvis highly recommended.

The Public School staff remains unchanged for the coming year. Mr. Wray Hagerman will continue as Principal and his assistants will be Mrs. Franks and Mrs. Bert Smith.

In the meantime the Board has authorized for a Continuation school assistant teacher and are hopeful of having this position filled in the near future.

BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

Dover Juveniles Win Championship
 Take Two Straight Games

Port Dover juveniles outplayed their Jarvis opponents in every department to win the championship of the Inter-County juvenile league in two straight games. The first game was played when the prospect of the fishermen took away an easy win by a score of seventeen to two on Tuesday night. The second game was played at Port Dover and the final count was twenty-five to three.

In both the play-off games the local team failed to show leadership. The players seemed laggy and failed to put punch into the game. Wood, the Dover pitcher, did a steady job all the way through. The team's success was largely due to a steady good support. Ervora predominated in the play in both games and a spectator stand point removed interest in the play.

Athletic Association Form Floodlight Committee

Meeting at the Record Office last Friday night the Jarvis Athletic Association formed a floodlight committee to act as a committee of management for the operation of the floodlights at the local ball park.

E. B. Hoover, president of the Association, presided at the meeting. The committee will function under the chairmanship of Dave Banks, and composed of four other members: Gordon Johnson, Walter Hagerman, Meehan, Garnet, Roy Hazlett and Ervora. Under the chairmanship of the committee all arrangements for the use of the lights will be made, such as the amount of electricity to be used for the use of the lights. It will also be their responsibility to maintain the playing field in proper condition for all games.

Discussion for the opening of the fall season also came under consideration and it was decided to hold a dance on September 19th, the day set aside for the office of the home of all men and women from Jarvis and Walpole who served in the Great War II. The meeting also reported that further plans for the improvement of the Arena property are under consideration with the next four weeks.

Fort Erie Paper Marks Fifty Years of Progress

Nearly every day there is a newspaper in Canada marking one of the anniversaries of its founding. But when the "Times-Review" of Fort Erie marks its Fiftieth Anniversary, the event is worthy of special mention. The reason why the event is worthy of special mention is because the "Times-Review" is the best printed paper in Canada. In fact it could not be claimed a biased opinion to suggest it is the best printed paper in North America. In any event we have yet to see one better.

The fact that only fifty years ago the "Times-Review" plant was no better than a printing office at an average half century of medical practice behind him in Fort Erie. He has been a constant booster of Fort Erie and has served on the council, has been Mayor of the town.

Anyone in this locality concerned with the history of the Niagara Frontier would find the Anniversary supplement of the Times-Review interesting reading. They are available from the fact that around the turn of the century, just before the
