

Latest development in scientific aviation research is this 12-foot low turbulence pressure wind tunnel, dedicated recently at Moffett Field, Calif. The tunnel is used for studying problems of flight at speeds of 750 m.p.h. or more. It was built by the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

Steel was still being manufactured, according to the above picture, some time after the strike in the basic steel industry was called with both sides apparently settling down to wait another shot at the Steel Company of Canada at Hamilton. The picture shows workmen remaining at the Steel Company plant to carry on production being supplied with work clothes by the company.

Civil police of the Allied Military Government arrest a demonstrator for participating in street fighting during recent Italian-Yugoslav riot. Several were killed in blasts from land mines which cut Trieste-Udine railway.

An official dressing-down, and maybe a ticket, is the fate of Nelson Carman, right above, 22-year-old former Seabee who hit a power line pole near Baldwin, L. I., with his converted 'recon' car, broke it off and carried it 150 feet before he could stop. No one was injured in the incident.

Last of U.S. POW'S

1,420 German prisoners of war were to sail for Europe last week. After their departure only 200 German prisoners of the 376,734 who were once within the borders of the United States, will remain in that country. The few scattered in hospitals and disciplinary barracks throughout the country, are too sick to travel, or have been convicted for murder of fellow prisoners, robbery, destruction of American property and other crimes. They will be sent to Europe as they recover or complete their prison sentences.

Black Markets Lose

A nation-wide survey in the United States indicated that consumers were showing increased resistance to price rises in many cities. Operators of black markets in meat products were estimated to have lost $10,000,000 since July, because they tried to compete with the legitimate packing plants for the control of the meat industry in free trading.
