WEDDING

EDWARDS-BIGGAR

The wedding took place in Mount Hope United Church, on August 17th when Grace Lorene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilbert Biggar, was united in marriage to Mr. Wilson LeRoy Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Edwards. Rev. Howard L. Roberts, officiant of the bride, of Brantford, assisted by the Rev. R. D. Trask. Miss Donna Smith played the wedding music, and accompanied Miss Frances Alexander. Given away by her father, the bride wore a white satin princess gown, her long veil caught to a sweet heart pearl-trimmed headpiece. She carried Bertha Times roses. Mrs. G. R. Kestit was her sister's attendant, gowned in powder blue net, with a sweetheart headpiece, and she had pink roses in her hair. Stanley Johnson, ushering, led through the cabinet. That bill died on the Commons order paper after the Senate sent it back amending the name to the "National Holiday of Canada."

Under the ... Floodlights

It must be the atmosphere around those parts. With three teams in the play-off series, none were able to advance before they scored the winning run in the last half of the first game. The first game of the Floodlight team entry. The second game was just as dramatic. The team to beat and that Dave Banks would stand last year's champions on the bench when it came to the final pinch.

Tomato growers in the Eastern part of the county are advised to watch the quality of the product they are sending to the factory very closely. A visit to a number of growing plants last week revealed that every case too many tomatoes had been picked too green. This means one of two things - either a lowered quality of finished product or a holding of the load back until they were ripe.
