INCREASE IN LOANS REFLECTS WAR-TO-PEACE TRANSITION

Montreal, Dec. 3.—One of the "immediate and urgent tasks" confronting Canadians is to put a sound foundation of production under the present high level of purchasing power, George W. Spinney, C.M.G., president of the Bank of Montreal, said at the recent 129th annual meeting of the bank.

At the same meeting, the bank's general manager, B. C. Gardner, reviewed the progress of the bank during the year and revealed that demand for banking services had reached unprecedented levels. Deposit accounts had increased by 100,000 during the year to reach 1,500,000 or 40 per cent more than demand for banking services had reached unprecedented levels. Deposit accounts had increased by 100,000 during the year to reach 1,500,000 or 40 per cent more than in 1939.

Mr. Spinney expressed guarded confidence in the ability of Canada to meet economic conditions of the future, but added that he noted a number of popular beliefs about such conditions which now were "an absolute hindrance to a clear-sighted appreciation of the fundamentals of progress and welfare." He gave as one such belief "the still prevalent idea that purchasing power rather than production is the main spring of employment, income and material well-being.

"Money is, after all, a claim on the productive resources of the community. We cannot, as a people, become wealthier simply by obtaining more money for producing the same or less. . no device of formula can produce wealth and well-being without work, enterprise and the assurance of reward.

Discussing the fact that millions of man-days of production had been lost during the past year, Mr. Spinney said that "no one sector of this complex unity called Canada can suffer without all other elements feeling the pinch. We have a vested interest in each other's well-being."

Questiors. High Taxation
Speaking of taxes, Mr. Spinney said "I suggest that the concept of high taxation as an anti-inflationary measure in peacetime may be far from valid . . . Wartime taxation was an important weapon in the fight against inflation. Bu. have we not already more than a little evidence that high taxation in peacetime is likely to have an entirely opposite effect?"

Of social security measures Mr. Spinney said he believed that a certain amount of social security planning had a place in the Canadian economy, but that if it is to supplant the personal integrity that goes hand in hand with providing the safe are reviewed and increased fully as well as those in comparable positions in industry and commerce. ## CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM more butter on the market now. But definitely! You see, we at Ginger Farm have gone out of the milk business and into the cream. That is something I have been wanting Partner to do for some time but—well, shipping milk when one is short of help looks the easier, also the financial returns appear to be better. say "appear" because that really is a debatable question. In hard cash the weekly cream cheque at present prices cannot compare then there are so many angles to consider. Personally I find a little quite an asset. So often I have wanted to make things in the past and didn't because they took too much milk. Of course I could have used whole milk but-many of you will know how it is-a milk-shipping farmer's wife doesn't use any more milk than she has to, especif the cans are down a bit. Most shippers are on a quota basis and those cans must be filled no other good thing about separating-it is just grand to have a le cream for special occasions. ast week when Second Niece was here we had fruit and whipped cream for dessert. And was that ever a treat! Now please, dear s, don't write and tell me we should be ashamed to be so extragant; that there are people starving in Europe and that the eam we used should properly have gone into butter. That is probably all very true, but you now, we don't intend to live on

And surely it is hardly an exravagance to make use of the fruits-in this case the cream-of one's own toil? That is, if it can e used to advantage.

And of course we are not the only ones to benefit in this change over from milk to cream. The pullets are daily increasing their output of eggs as a result, and the cockerels, shut up to fatten, show evidence of fleshing up more rapidly because of having their mash mixed with milk instead of
