A Merry Christmas To you - -

It hardly seems possible that before another week sses Christmas will be here. The happy reunion of nilies will have taken place and joy and gladness will nave filled the homes of this happy community. George W. Walker was installed Worshipful Master of King Solomon Lodge, A.F.&A.M., Jarvis, at an impressive ceremony on Friday evening last. The installation ceremony was conducted by Rt. Wor. Bro. MacGaw Macdonald of Port Dover, assisted by Past Masters of King Solomon Lodge Jarvis and Erie Lodge, Port Dover. Rt. Wor. Bro. Macdonald also invested the following officers for the ensuing year: I.P.M. Wor. Bro. E. B. Hoover; S.W., Bro. R. J. More; J.W., Bro. Hugh Montgomery; S.D., Bro. Almost without exception Christmas will be celebrat-I throughout this area without thought of the bleak prospect of a happy Christmas in many other parts of the world. We will eat choice roast turkey, plum pudding and aimost every other delicacy we might desire. We will exchange gifts with our closest friends—gifts, in many cases, that could not be regarded as necessities, but rather luxuries. After dinner we will engage in talk relating to our own fancied problems; we will criticise our overnments; some of our war leaders; the rumored engagement of Princess Elizabeth; and maybe the civic elecions. We won't be worrying too much on Christmas Day whether Millions of Europeans, Chinese, Russians, and other people in the Far East are enjoying an equally leasant Christmas. Unselfishness is the very essence of

Christmas and thoughtfulness for others exemplifies that Christmas Day should be merry and gay-but it should e world wide-and as we enjoy the blessings of Christmas here we should at least consider our attitude toward universai Christmas that will provide like joy for all eoples throughout the world. The editor and staff of The Record wish to extend incere greetings to all readers, advertisers and friends, with the hope that through our united efforts we may contribute to the extension of the true Christmas spirit in the days ahead.
