Rural life, in an educational manner, should be as full of meaning and possibilities as life elsewhere, and the government's project for the improvement of rural standards of education will be watched with interest by all — Woodstock (N.B.) Sentinel-Press

Pen, Scissors and Pastepot

Premier King put an effective punch behind the car of George Drew on Saturday when he announced the appointment of Ray Lawson, O.B.E., Lieutenant-Governor Albert Matthews of Ontario. Premier Drew got as much out of London as the successor of the Ontario Premier. A passing remark about the treatment he deserves. It has always been the constitutional procedure to consult the Provincial Government before matters of this kind are definitely decided.

Wine and women have been responsible for bringing the Bench and Bar before the "Bak" in Ontario Courts recently. The wine was Judge Germain's downfall and the defendant's conviction and the defendant's conviction was the result of the wine. Likewise Lawyer Cohen—the famous J. L. last is—has demonstrated the dangers of too free associations with certain members of the opposite sex. But they both have appealed their convictions and their grounds for so doing are numerous. If they win there will be a lot of people who will feel the law is not so tough after all—but then there may be some thing in knowing just how to deal with it.

A man told us this the other day: "When a doctor, called to a house to attend a confinement, had been upstairs a few minutes he came down, said to the husband: 'Have you a corkcraw?' He was given one and went upstairs. A few minutes elapsed. He came down again and said: 'Got a screwdriver?' He was given one and went upstairs. A few minutes elapsed and he came down for a third time, asked for a chisel and replied the doctor, 'can't get my medicine case open.'"

Watch out for the glamor girls now. The last restriction has been taken off women's clothing. They can have long, balloon sleeves wide fancy belts, mile-wide skirts, boleros, capes, evening gowns, shrifted blouses, ruffled pinnies, pleated skirts and all the frills and jobs they can think of. Yes and they can buy pants—long pants that is—like the men used to wear—and jackets like men used to wear as coats. And still we can't buy a pair of pants.

We know of a great place for any one with a bit of loose change to invest. It is the Hospital for Sick Children, 87 College Street, Toronto, Ontario. No child ever knocks in at our hospital and the lives of thousands of Ontario children have been made worth living through the facilities of this great institution. A dollar or two would help a lot but if you can make it five or ten it would help just that much more.

FRIENDS MEETING

The Friends group gathered in the Sunday School room on Thursday night, December 12th, for their Christmas meeting. The beautiful and eye-catching decorations put up by the committee members showed a great deal of work on their part. Group singing of Christmas carols opened our worship service. Eva Goswami read the Scripture lesson from Luke 2-16 a Christmas story and challenge with "The Sound of Joy"—a history of carols dating back to 1224 was remarkably voiced. A passage from the heart let them be joyful, nothing can kill them when they come from the heart. This sacred service and ed with an appropriate verse "Gode Bountiful."

Norma Stire sang the very lovely solo "A King Was Born". Suggestions on table decorations was very well given by Thea Robinson. Myra Hetchford's piano solo "White Christmas" was enjoyed by all. The roll call was answered by a Christmas decoration and the minutes were read and adopted. The Treasurer's report was given and the business discussed.

Our January meeting will be held in the Sunday School room on January 12th with Wanda Cameron, Ethel Stalwood, Evelyn Doughty and Dorothy Bright on the program. We are interested to know that our annual play was discussed and plans were made to cast another well known production.

A report was given by the nominating committee with the officers for 1947 as follows: President, Laura Brand; Vice President, Ellen Durand; Secretary, Wanda Cameron; Treasurer, Gift Committee, Mary Krouse and Dorothy Ministry; Press Agent, Mary Henderson; Pianist, Mary East Junior Congregation Conventor, Jean Butts.

The President, Mrs. O. B. Hill, thanked all the girls for their co-operation during the year and Bethal Walker thanked the committee and those who took part in the December meeting. The calendars are ready for you to sell. Please call for them.

The year 1946 is almost over, please girls, carry on next year by getting your press notes to the reporter as early as possible so she can make our press notes as accurate as they should be. Thanks again for your co-operation and Merry Christmas to everybody.

Ray Lawson, O.B.E., London Ont., Treasurer of the Ontario Legislative Council, was appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario to replace the Hon. Albert Matthews who retired after nine years in office.

The 60-year-old newly-appointed lieutenant-governor was born in London and his wife is the former Helen Newton of Sarria. Mr. Lawson has five children, all married, and two grand-children. His three sons and two sons-in-law saw service in Canadian forces and one was killed in action.
