WARDENS BANQUET

 Bar: proposed by A. L. Miller, Jarvis, response, Her Honour Judge Helen Kinnear, and A. H. Arrell. The toast to the Ex-Wardens was responded to by Thos. Camelford, of Dunville, Thomas J. Jenson and Fay Head of Hagersville. The Guests, proposed by Earl Calderwood, Warden, response Douglas Murray, of Onondaga, T. H. Simpson, Hamilton. The Toast to the Warden was proposed by Roy Hewitt, Reeve of Hagersville who paid tribute to the leadership of the Warden in Council work during the past year. He also told of the lengthy term of Municipal service Mr. Bird has to his credit and expressed the wish he may enjoy good health for many years to come in order that he may continue to give his home municipality and the County the benefit of his wise counsel.

Mrs. Bird, due to illness, was unable to be present. On her behalf a beautiful bouquet of flowers was presented to her daughter by Mr. Joseph Martindale of Seneca.

The speaker of the evening, Mr. W. J. McCullough, was introduced by Reeve Jas. N. Allen of Dunville. The speaker gave a very forceful address in which he stressed the necessity of a progressive outlook to ensure the full development of the Country.

The Warden, who was presented with a gold wrist watch by his colleagues in the council, expressed his appreciation for the gift and the fine spirit of co-operation he had received throughout the year. He said that his term of office as Chief Magistrate of the County had been an experience he would cherish for the remaining days of his life. "Auld Lang Syne" sung with gusto and sincerity, marked the end of the 1946 Warden's Banquet, described by many old timers, as the best yet.

DEMOCRACY AND MARRIAGE

When we talk about democracy to the other nations we are talking about the ability of our people to stick and work together by voluntary agreement. And there is no use talking about that when marriage—our most frequent form of voluntary agreement—is breaking up at the rate of one divorce in every three starts. —Gananoque (Ont.) Reporter
