Meyer Sentence Causes Wide Controversy

The most controversial topic of the week was the commutation of the death sentence on Nam S.S. Commander Maj-Gen. Kurt Meyer. Gen. Meyer was convicted last month by a Canadian military court on three of five charges of responsibility for the murder of eighteen Canadian prisoners of war by his troops.

Minister Views With Regret Denouncement Of Politics

The State is a divine institution and as such should receive the respect and enlightened support of every Christian, said Mayor East of Wesley Church on Sunday last, attacking those who considered politics corrupt for the participation of the Christian.

Hope To Revive Board Of Trade Activity In 1946

Marking time for the past three years due to the war, the annual meeting of the Jarvis Board of Trade last Thursday night, indicated a revival of activity. There was a good attendance at the meeting and it was very apparent that the view is widely held that there is considerable work waiting that could be undertaken by a good live Board of Trade.

Local Red Cross Will Carry On Another Year

At the annual meeting of the local Branch of the Red Cross last week it was decided to carry on the work in 1946. The Treasurer's report revealed a good balance on hand and the Secretary's report of work done last year was received with great satisfaction.

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE VISITS YOUTH CENTRE

The Three Months' School in Agriculture and Home Economics was honoured on Friday, January 12th, by a visit from Hon. J. G. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario. Col. Kennedy expressed his great interest in the work being carried on at the Centre, and was especially glad to see the boys and girls classes in session.

Annual Meeting United Church

Rev. S. B. East presided at the annual meeting of Wesley United Church on Friday night, when reports from the various church organizations were received and adopted. The reports indicated the Church to be in a sound position financially.

Church Notes

UNFOLD CHURCH NOTES
