FLOODLIGHTS

TO US WAS AGREEABLY surprising to see so many people at the local park on Saturday night for the opening of the Floodlights which will enable softball teams to play their games in the dark hours of the evening. Floodlighting for softball is not new although until the present only the larger centres have been able to finance the installation of the systems. It is therefore, in view of the costs involved, creditable to the Jarvis Athletic Association to have taken this progressive step in the interests of sport in this small village.

We hope that the large crowd that turned out on Saturday night were not there merely for the sake of curiosity and having once satisfied themselves as to what a floodlight ball game is like will stay away in the future. Possibly that will depend upon the class of ball the teams give to the spectators.

BEAUTIFUL PEACE

TWO BIG ABLE-BODIED MEN called at a home in the Village the other morning and the one with a voice shaken with emotion enquired if they might have something to eat. They were without work they said because of the strike situation and were in this area looking for work in the tobacco fields. That could be true and assuming that it is, all we can say is—"Isn't peace wonderful?"

There are many people out of work today that really want to be employed and many of them are war veterans. They are out of work simply because they fought for are on strike and have allowed down the whole process of postwar reconversion, reconstruction and recovery.

There is work for hundreds and thousands on Ontario farms, but unemployed men will ignore the call of the land until the flue-cured tobacco harvest starts with its inflationary wages. And so, we have to retain the services of German War prisoners, rush contingents of farmers here from Western Canada, and bring in thousands of Polish soldiers from Italy to do the work that Ontario men should be eager and willing to do.

The war also gave a lot of Canadians inflated ideas about their worth. Teen aged boys disdain anything less than 65 or 70 cents per hour no matter how green or inexperienced they may be. The idea of doing a job to accomplish something other than monetary reward seems to be a thing of the past. But the lesson will be learned at some future date and to many the price will be high.

AN IMPORTANT DATE

The afternoon of September 10th is an important date for the municipalities of Walpole and Jarvis. That is the date that has been decided upon to officially welcome home and make presentations to the servicemen and women who served in the War.

A committee has been working on the plans for the past month, but the real success of the day will depend entirely on the citizens generally. It will be declared a Public Holiday in the Schools and it is to be hoped that every family will regard this day as outstanding in the history of the municipalities concerned.

The event is to be held in the Jarvis Ball Park and in case of rain the Arena will be made use of. Seating accommodation will be provided, and patriotic colours will predominate the scene. The School Children will march to the grounds headed by a band. The service people will also arrive in a body and be presented with gifts.

Following the presentation ceremony and speeches an All-Star ball game will be held. In addition to it being an official welcome home to the boys it will be a grand reunion of the forces who served on both fronts, home and abroad.

CANADA'S GOLDEN AGE

By Lewis Milligan
CANADA is one of the largest countries in the world, and yet it is one of the smallest nations in the world. With a territory stretching over two thousand miles from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and an average breadth of about 500 miles of lived-on land from the United States border northward, this Dominion has a population of only eleven and a half million people.

Belgium is one of the smallest countries in the world, it could be tucked away in one corner of Ontario, and yet it has a population equal to that of the whole of Canada. Great Britain, with a population of about forty-five

Pen, Scissors and Paste Pot

Accidents reported this week include a fire in the back seat of O. H. Hays car causing minor damage. A home run hit by Roy Hazlett at the official floodlight game causing some surprise.

An amusing incident of bygone days which we often recall to mind ever when our old friend Jack Kinison was celebrating a birthday present from his wife and publicist. John Emerson was invited to give the eulogy. He was so nervous that he forgot to say anything but "I wish you were here."

At that time there were about seven million people in Canada, and it must be said to the credit of those oratorical politicians and preachers that they had a vision of those wide prairies being populated by millions of eager and industrious immigrants from the Old World. There were no little Canadians in those days.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was a man of vision, and power in 1896 he was appointed Clifford Sifton as Minister of the Interior. Sifton at once went to work to organize the first great immigration movement in Canada. He established immigration offices all over Great Britain and the Scandinavian area and started a vigorous campaign which resulted in an increase of 1,800,000 in population during the decade 1900-10 from immigration alone. This figure was the main factor in the gain of 34.7 per cent, which to total population of Canada registered in those ten years, and which was relatively larger than the growth of any modern country during that period.

The next decade started out with an intensification of this immigration movement, but a recession set in with the outbreak of the First World War. The figures for immigration arrivals were actually reduced from 1,166,000 in the ten-year period 1921-31 to an all-time low of 140,361 in the ten years of 1931-41.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared that the "twentieth century belonged to Canada," and he ushered in a period of expansion and prosperity which is remembered as "Canada's Golden Age." He did not anticipate the two great international conflicts which have intervened. But those conflicts are now behind us and Canada can yet fulfill the prophecy of that great statesman. We need such men of vision, of faith and courageous enterprise today.

The vast empty spaces of this Dominion are yearning for human inhabitants, and even in the settled regions there is ample room for many times the present population. We are ever being reminded that Canada needs foreign markets for her surplus products, and that is very true, but it is true largely because our home market - population - is too small. By means of an immigration movement, we can enlarge our home market and save the cost of transportation. More people will mean more consumers for the products of our farms and factories, more business for our stores and commercial institutions, and more freight and passengers for our great and underworked railway systems.

Canada has the room and the resources for the maintenance of a great population, and it is sheer selfishness and short-sightedness to shut our gates against the immigration of energetic people who have no room or opportunity for enterprise in the overcrowded countries of the Old World. The heritage which Canadians now enjoy was created and passed on to them by their immigrant ancestors, chiefly from the British Isles. They were an adventurous and hard-working people and they suffered all kinds of hardships cheerfully. Canada needs to be refreshed by the same pioneer spirit today if we are to become a nation worthy of our great heritage.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR
Mr. A. L. Miller, The Record, Jarvis, Ont.
Dear Mr. Miller: I have been instructed by the Honorable Russell T. Kelley, Provincial Chairman of the National Clothing Collection to express to you our sincere appreciation of the part you are outstandingly successful.

Your service and that of your fellow citizens have indeed contributed substantially to the success by publicizing the need. May I personally express my appreciation of your future date we may again have the privilege of working together.

Yours sincerely, Christie A. McDonald, Executive Director, Ontario

BUDD KNAPP
Both drama producers and radio Knapp think that the name Budd Knapp is synonymous with the best in professional radio acting. Since 1941, the Ottawa born Knapp has starred in every family show on the CBC Dominion network and "The Johnny Home Show" and "Stage 48" and it is in his "kewer characterizations" that of "Shorty" in the Monday Mode" on the CBC Dominion network at 10.30 P.M.

FOREST FIRE DANGER
The number of fires started through natural causes are high enough, and should not be increased through carelessness on the part of holiday seekers or travellers. Many operators lumbering and mining throughout this area are co-operating with the Department of Lands and Forests in providing fire fighting equipment, and in taking extra precautions against fires. Many citizens, as honorary fire wardens, are participating in a vast program designed to hold fire losses down to the absolute minimum.

Thomas Richard Henry has a righteous mad this week. He is mad because he believes that the Government is advertising tailored shirts for women to wear with attacks for $2.00. He can't buy a shirt for that price, says T.R.H., "and here is one of the best known shirt manufacturers offering shirts to women to wear with attacks." "We hope," he continues, "a lot of big fat women order $2.00 shirts so the Company won't make a profit."

"No Eggcrack Sporting" is the title of an editorial in a Manitoba weekly which, believe it or not, is referring to the egg throwing incident between the Jarvis and Port Dover juvenile ball teams. "Since we in the West" says the editorial, "are less cultured than dwellers in the East, we are not to be surprised that they expect the idea of sport for sport's sake would be even further advanced down that way."

News of the Countryside spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Challand. Several from this vicinity attended the official opening of the Jarvis Ball Park on Saturday night. Mr. Reg. Hiffe is able to return to his home after being confined to the Hamilton Hospital for the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Stone (nee Myrtle Meury) were given a shower at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Stone near Simcoe, on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Welt spent the week end with Mrs. Welt's parents in Woodstock. Mrs. Rex Beard and two children, Reg. and Bobbie, are spending this week with relatives in Buffalo. Miss Barbara Stallwood returned the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stallwood.

Mr. E. R. Hoover and O. C. Dell attended the Grand Lodge Session, A.F. & M. held in Toronto on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Mr. Irvin Butts is building an addition to his residence which he recently purchased from Mr. John Faulkner.

Rev. E. B. East was the guest speaker at the annual junior farmers' division service held at the Cayuga United Church last Sunday night. Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Cameron and sons Fred and John, left on Tuesday for Muskoka where they plan to spend their holidays at their summer cottage.

Miss Diane Miller in company with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Saunders, is spending her holidays at Muskoka.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ineson wish to take this opportunity of extending their thanks to the Fire Department and all others who assisted them in extinguishing the fire in their hay field on Wednesday last.

Present indications are that there will be a short supply of both timothy and bluegrass seed again this year. It is anticipated with this in mind that prices will be high. Farmers with fields of either one of these crops should be advised to make an effort to rogue the fields for weeds and so have the seed as clean as possible before threshing. High quality seed will always rightfully demand a premium. Now is the time to take steps to insure that high grade on your seed crop.

Progressive Conservative members criticized the government on all three counts. J. J. Macdonnell, Progressive Conservative financial critic, rapped the budget's "unrealistic" — unreal in its deferred tax relief, in the facing of deficits and in failure to account for production and make an all-out attack on the "cultural extravagance."

The C.C.F. party criticized the government for failure to increase income tax exemptions sufficiently and urged greater relief, particularly for low-income brackets. It also criticized failure to provide social security measures in its offers to the provinces, and to recognize co-operatives as non-profit-making organizations.

The C.C.F. view was summed up by Angus MacInnis, member for Van couver East, who characterized the budget as "looking backward to yesterday, not forward to tomorrow."

Prime Minister Mackenzie King will go to the peace conference in Paris this month, and take with him Health Minister Claxton, two members of the diplomatic corps and a member of the external affairs department.

Sending of an all-party delegation was decided against because "the Paris conference is not to be contacted with a peace conference to determine the final settlement with respect to Germany," said Mr. King. The preliminary discussions would concern such matters as territories and boundaries in which Canada could only try to help countries principally concerned to work out factory solutions. He intimated a conference directly concerned with peace problems would be attended by an all-party delegation.

Mr. King also announced that Prime Minister Fisher will represent the Dominion at the U.N.R.R.A. conference at Geneva, beginning August 5th.
