A Seattle, Wash., boat builder has the bright idea of converting surplus Navy seaplanes into pleasure cruisers and is now busy remodeling two war-weary PBY's, one of which is pictured above. The tail assembly will be replaced by a conventional transom stern, a keel added for stability and interior bulkheads removed to give cabin space and headroom. Marine engines will be installed.

BIG FOUR'S PRIME HEADACHE

blasted the Big Four peace treaty meeting in May, still smoulders Yugoslavia demands, as seen on ethnographical map above, that her border be moved west to incorporate all of Venezia Giulia and the Istrian peninsula into the Yugoslavia Republic; that Trieste be made a free city, with status of a federal unit of the republic; and that the port of Trieste be internationalized, although under Yugoslav sovereignty. Russia stubbornly supports these demands. The U. S., one and the extreme western line sought by Yugoslavia. They agree, proximately, on this down to Portole, where their ideas diverge as shown by flags. This would leave Trieste and all the Adriatic coast in Italian hands.

Navy men turned animal herders as they loaded the U. S. S. Burleson with goats and pigs which will be aboard target ships when the atomic bomb is dropped on Bikini Atoll next July. All the test animals must be healthy and free of vermin, so, at left, above, sailors run goats through a vat of sheep-dip at Hunters Point Navy Yard, Calif., before embarking them on the Burleson. At right, a seaman gives some of the pigs their first meal aboard the ship.

THEIR MAJESTIES AT VICTORY PARADE

Arriving in the state landau at the reviewing stand in The Mall, London, as representatives from the four corners of the world parade to celebrate victory, King George and Queen Elizabeth were greeted with cheers. All along the route of the parade, which was headed by the King and Queen until they reached the reviewing stand, thousands roared and tossed their hats into the air. On reaching the stand their Majesties took their places and the parade passed in review before them.
