

HOLD EVERYTHING

"He takes his bath willingly since I started calling it amphibious training!"

Unscientific Report

The great scientist scanned the heavens through the huge telescope. He studied his tables and maps, then he remarked to a colleague, "It's going to rain."

"What makes you think so?"

"My course chart!"

No Doubt About It

A man was giving some advice to his son. At the end of a rather stern lecture, he said: "Now, my boy, you understand perfectly what I mean?"

"Yes," replied the boy, "what it boils down to is this: If I do well it's because of heredity, and if I fail it's my own fault!"

Naughty

The young husband had just arrived home from the office. "What's the matter, darling?" he asked. "You look flustered."

"Oh, I've had a dreadful day," his wife answered. "First baby cut his first tooth, then he took his first step, and then he fell and knocked out his tooth."

"Well, and then what happened?" asked her husband.

"Oh, darling, the anaesthetist in a shocked voice, he said his first word!"

Plenty of Space

Two Canadian soldiers stopped a Civil Servant in London. They pointed to an impressive building and asked what it was. He told them it was the Ministry of Information.

"I thought the Ministry must be about that size," said one, "it's more up all the information they never give away."

THE SPORTING THING

"Oh, Boy — OOF!"

Hardly Dumb

A Red Indian of considerable culture was engaged to play a part in a Hollywood film.

One day, while he was in the studio awaiting instructions, a film star approached him with the idea of showing a little consideration to "the poor savage."

"Well," he said kindly, "how do you like our city?"

"Very well, thank you," replied the Red Indian, "how do you like our country?"

Keep It Dark

She was notorious as the village gossip. There was little she did not see or hear, and she knew the inner history of every resident. One morning she met the local builder in the grocer's shop. The builder remarked to her: "I saw the nave in the church this morning."

The gossip nodded her head gravely, and said: "No need to mention names — I know who you mean!"

Answered

A doctor who was superintendent of the Sunday School asked one of the boys this question: "Willie, will you tell me what we must do in order to get to heaven?"

"We must die," said Willie.

"Very true," replied the doctor, "but tell me what we must do before we die."

"We must get sick," said Willie, "and send for you."

Not At All

One man was buying some meat from the butcher. Then, turning to the other customer, "I hope you don't mind my cutting in."

"Not at all," said the other, "but if you're that hungry, I'll give you some more."

"Not if you're that hungry," said the first man, "I'll give you some more."

"Not if you're that hungry," said the first man, "I'll give you some more."

Two Careful

The editor impressed the young reporter with the dire consequences of making ill-considered statements. "You can't be too careful," he said, then sent him to report a club on a case of...

The sub-editor later on was handed this bit of copy:

"The barman was apparently opened by a Mrs. Johnson, alleged to be the wife of Councillor Johnson, commonly supposed to be a more or less highly esteemed tradesman of this town. She was dressed in what some might describe as fashionable attire, and wore a hat of redemptive appearance. She was supported on the platform by a clergyman alleged to be the vicar of the parish, and by other reputed ladies and gentlemen said to belong to the church."

Quite Clear

Having received from his tailor a bill and a note reading, "Please remit by return — Sit note, Stoney broke replied: "Dear Sir, I do not remember ordering a suit such as you mention. If I did order it you certainly never made it for me. If you did make it I never got it. Furthermore, if I got it I must have paid for it. And if I didn't, I can't."

VOICE OF THE PRESS

BRITAIN'S ONLY COURSE

From a New York editorial: "With his back to the wall, Britain's lot is a hard one, on the one hand she is opposed by Russian communism, and on the other by American capitalism." Which just about leaves her the same old way to travel, namely, forward.
