Under the ... Floodlights

The Farmer and The Food Situation

The present dilemma in regard to the food situation for the production of labor farms this year, started a decade ago.

If we recall some fifty years back in the good old horse and buggy days, we remember an age of contentment and a great program of home building. Nearly all the fine farm improvements came into being. Then came the first world war and our soldiers travelled abroad and after the war was over came the great years of modernization and people looked on life from a different angle. They were to be there to be made use of as required.

Church Notes

UNITED CHURCH NOTES

HISTORIC SERVICE

Seldom do laymen of the Christian Church feel that they can dispense with the services of an ordained minister even for one service. This is the case, however, at Wesley United Church on Sunday morning, in a history making service, next when laymen will be the sole contributors to the fund. A young man of the Board of Stewards, has undertaken to preach. His subject will be "Spiritual Foundations and the Christian Church." Other laymen will assist with the service and a male voice choir will occupy the choir loft.

THANKS

During the announcements, Dr. E. B. Hare, representing the Laymen's Association of the Presbytery, will speak briefly.

WHAT IS MAN?

On Sunday evening, Rev. Stewart East will occupy the pulpit and will preach on the "Nature of Man." It is Man, a Superior Animal, or a God? In which category do most men's lives fall? These and other questions will be discussed at the evening service.

RESERVEISTS TO RECEIVE PINS MONDAY NIGHT

The 1946 Nursing Reserve Class, who have completed their training, will receive their graduation pins at a ceremony at the Red Cross Rooms in the Public School next Monday night.

Officials of the Red Cross Nursing Branch headquarters in Toronto took part in the impressive ceremony.

ON STANVIT TIME

Mr. A. B. Blight, President, gave an outstanding report to the local Board of Trade at their regular dinner meeting last Friday night on the regional convention of Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce held in Brantford recently.

Mr. Blight's remarks were not only interesting but will prove helpful to the individual members and the Board as an organization in planning future activities. The Rebekah Lodge catered for the dinner.

Two new members joined the Board last Friday night to bring the membership to twenty-one.

REDECORATING ARENA INTEREST

Jim Paterson is giving his new paint spraying equipment its first work out by applying a new coat of paint to the interior of the upper floor of the arena. The new work of the building is getting a coat of bright new atmosphere by the work is to be finished in a harmonizing colour. When the job is completed, the arena will be ready to welcome the thousands of dancers that patronize the Athletic Association dances in the Arena each spring and fall.

OFFEN ELECTRIC WELDING SHOP

Ernest Craddock and Don Phibbs, both veterans of the war have purchased the former Guy Willes building on Talbot street west from Miss Mabel Whitwell, and have opened an electric and acetylene welding shop. It is understood they plan to make extensive alterations to the property in the time near by. They have started to work and report business as good. The business is established in a building which both men have had extensive experience in this line of work.

STOLEN CAR SOON ABANDONED

Last night two men, said to be in Army dress, made an unsuccessful attempt to steal a car, which was parked on Main street. The car belonging to John Banks of Vareney was parked in the business section. A witness was said to have seen the two start toward the north end of town in the car, but they got no farther than a couple of blocks before they abandoned it and proceeded as usual in their own car. They were apparently unable to get the car to start properly and nearby residents were aroused by the sounds of backing (firing). The theft occurred around 11 P.M. and Constable Banks recovered the vehicle.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Lundy, Larry and Louise returned on Monday after spending several days with friends in Detroit.

Miss Freda Welt of Hamilton was a week end visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Welt last week.

Mr. R. G. White of Hamilton, was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. C. S. McCarran.

Mrs. Russell Miller of Vareney, was among the delegates at the O. E. A. association, meeting at Toronto last week.

The air minister's letter to Col. Whitaker reads in part:

"I have your letter of April 22 concerning the attendance of His Excellency the Governor General for the opening of the celebration on the 1st of July. I have spoken to Major-General Leason, private secretary to the Governor General, and he assures me that His Excellency is planning to be in Hamilton on opening day."

Mr. Gibson says the governor general will likely spend the entire day in Hamilton where he will be the guest of several civic organizations. During the night private car will be moved to Toronto and travel from there to Owen Sound the next morning.

Aside from the actual marks received by the various musicians and singers taking part in music festivals there is something deeper to be developed and this is placed on more intimate level and as interest grows, all performances, whether on the stage or on the air, become personal comparisons.
