On Tuesday evening, May 7th, the Young People of Wesley met in the church with thirty-one present. The service led by Eva Gowen, our "Chinatown" convener who also gave the topic. The topic was "Let's Get Together." A very interesting discussion took place on the differences and improvements which could be made in rural and urban communities. Plans were made for the social next week, then the meeting was closed with a sing-song and the Mizpah Benediction.

Y.P.U. SOCIAL!

Next Tuesday evening, May 14th, the Young Peoples' Union of Wesley is holding a social. Something entirely different is going to take place at this social and a delightful surprise is in store for all who attend. The social begins at 8:30 sharp. Of course the meeting would not be complete without games and refreshments so come out and join in these activities. Bring a friend with you.
