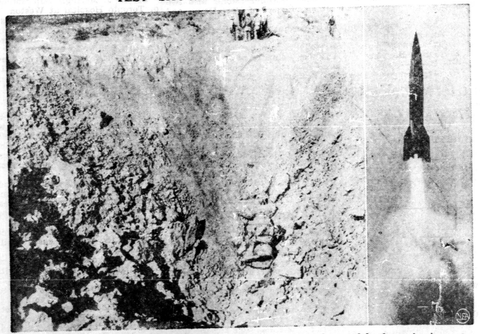
RESUMES NEGOTIATIONS

As the nation's soft coal miners prepared to return to the pits for two weeks, John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers head, resuming negotiations with mine operators in the Labor Department building in Washington, is questioned by reporters. Miners agreed to a two weeks' truce in their strike pending further discussions on a new contract.

BIG FOUR ACCENTUATE THE NEGATIVE

More "didn'ts" than "dids" came out of the Big Four foreign ministers Paris parley to draft peace treaties for the Axis satellites as shown on the map above. In addition to disagreements indicated, the conferees failed to decide on Italian reparations; disposition of former Italian colonies; fate of the Italian fleet; and continued occupation of Italy.

TEST SHOWS FORCE OF V-2 BOMB



Force of energy behind a B-2 rocket is dramatically indicated in photo at left, above, showing crater left by rocket's exploding fuel tanks. Note comparative size of men at crater's rim. Photo at right shows rocket in flight. Photos were taken during test firing preliminary to the May 10th demonstration of a fully-fueled V-2 at Army proving grounds, White Sands, N. M.

Highlights of the News

U.S. $3,750,000,000 Loan

The $3,750,000,000 loan to Britain bill, accorded Senate approval after lengthy debate and defeat of numerous crippling amendments, will be considered almost immediately by a House of Representatives committee and then referred, to that chamber for open debate.

The loan agreement, reached last December after long negotiations led for the British by the late Lord Keynes, provides for a $3,750,000,000 loan repayable in 50 years with interest at two per cent.

In any year that Britain suffers circumstances which make interest payment difficult or impossible the interest may be waived and cancelled.

A King In Exile

Victor Emmanuel settled down to a life of exile in Egypt last week after a reign of nearly 46 years as king of Italy, thus joining the growing ranks of Europe's homeless royalty.

The weary little man and his wife, the former Queen Elena, were greeted by Egypt's King Farouk when they debarked at Alexandria from an Italian cruiser.

The Italian cabinet approved the assumption of the throne by Crown Prince Humbert, but specified his powers would extend only until June 2. On that day the Italian people will decide whether to continue the monarchy.

Setback at Simla

The British Cabinet mission's forthcoming statement on its conferences with Moslem and Hindu representatives at Simla will contain a declaration on Indian independence, probably indicating the approximate date by which India will become completely independent.

The British cabinet mission, admitting failure of an eight-day conference with Moslem and Hindu leaders on independence for India, made it plain it still has hopes of solving the problem.

The conference ended in complete breakdown, dealing a severe blow to the hopes of those who had expected a quick transition from British control to Indian self-government.

No reason for collapse of the negotiations was given.

The three British Cabinet ministers had hoped to help India draft a constitution.

Canada's Loan to U.K.

At Ottawa the Canadian Senate approved a bill providing for a $1,250,000,000 loan to the United Kingdom. The bill now awaits royal assent.

Canadian Strike Threat

The threat of nation-wide strike action next month against every major Canadian industry unless union wage and hour demands are granted, emerged as the keynote of the National Wage Board Co-ordinating Committee of the Canadian Congress of Labor, held in Toronto.

The committee endorsed the decision of the International Woodworkers of America, B.C., to take strike action on May 15, and the decision of the United Rubber Workers of America, CIO-CCL, who have set May 27 as the deadline for strike action unless they receive an "adequate wage and hour settlement by that time."

Loan to Belgium

Belgian delegates and representatives of the Canadian government have signed in Ottawa an agreement under which the Canadian government will grant a loan of $75,000,000 to Belgium.

This loan brings the total of the credits granted by Canada to Belgium since the liberation to $300,000,000 the agency added.

ASSAULT WINS PREAKNESS

Assault, with Jockey Warren Mehrtens up, makes it two in a row as he streaks across the finish line to win the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico track, Baltimore, Md. Hard on his heels is Lord Boswell, ridden by Jockey Dogo Dodson. On June 1, Assault will try to add the Belmont Stakes to his Kentucky Derby and Preakness crowns to make a Grand Slam in the Sport of Kings.

SPOTS OF SPORTS

By FRANK MANN HARRIS
("A Six Bit Critic")

There are certain matters in connection with sports—and more especially regarding sports pages—which never cease to puzzle us more than a little. And the fact that we, personally have occasionally been faintly suspected of being a sports writer doesn't make the puzzle any easier.

* * *

For example; down in the State of Maryland last Saturday a thoroughbred named ASSAULT ran a mile and three-sixteenths in comparatively slow time—almost six seconds behind the record. Yet pages of wordage and pictures regarding his feat were published in papers all over the map of the United States and Canada. But when, just one day later, a trotting-mare tagged KAOL Ivelipped three full seconds off the world's mile-and-a-quarter—possibly one of the greatest sports performances in fifty years—how much publicity did the lady get? About as much as would be given to a corner grocery stickup with loot amounting to a dollar and a quarter.

* * *

Asked the reason for such a vast discrepancy in coverage, any sports editor would promptly inform you that it's simply because ten times more people are interested in thoroughbred racing than in the harness-horse variety. But if you asked him to tell you, honestly, just why there should be such a difference of interest in the two sports, what then would the answer be? Boiled down to essentials, we think it would be something like this—merely because, over a stretch of years, sports editors have devoted ten times more space, ten times better writing talent, to the one than to the other. In other words the running horses have been blessed with more and better official and unofficial press-agents an' they—rather than the merits os the sports themselves—created the greater interest.

* * *

As an illustration of what pure ballyhoo will do, take the case of the PREAKNESS STAKE, already alluded to. Reading and listening to some of the junk put out regarding this event, one could easily get the idea that it's a real 'classic'—one to be compared with the English Derby, the Grand National, or even our own King's Plate. Just how much of a 'classic' it actually is can best be judged from this; since it was first run in 1873 it has been at five different distances—mile-and-a-half — mile-and-a-quarter — mile—mile-and-an eighth—and now at mile-and-three-sixteenths; and also, for a stretch of 10 years it wasn't run at all. Classic me eye!

* * *

Continuing along the same line, take the sport of lacrosse. For our money lacrosse, well played is just about the best and most exciting game there is. Yet a comparatively mild and tedious pastime called baseball has all but wiped it clean off the map. Why? Well, for several reasons. But principally because there isn't a day in the year when you can't read something—and generally something interesting—about baseball; while about the only time lacrosse manages to make most sports pages is when they carry a small story, tucked down in an obscure corner, regarding the annual meeting and election of officers.

* * *

Of course lacrosse has long carried the curse of being run by a bunch of men imbued with the sporting spirit of the small tad who cries, "If you won't play my way I'll pick up my marbles and go home"; by men who are far more interested in seeing their own names in print, and hanging on to office year after year, than they are in the good of the game. In Ontario lacrosse is practically controlled by men living within ten miles of the Toronto City Hall. And yet, if a lacrosse-loving citizen of that metropolis wanted to have a look at his favourite sport some Saturday afternoon, where—ah where—would he have to wend his way? Don't ask us. We just happen to live there, and wouldn't be likely to know. But we could tell you, right off the reel, what's going on at the baseball park.

* * *

And so, to Mr. Hugh Templin of Fergus, and to others intent on the revival of the best game on earth, our very best wishes—and a small word of advice. If you want to get anywhere, call for a brain-new deck and start a fresh deal. Toss the old deck into the discard—and get going with a bunch of men who are more interested in seeing lacrosse played than they are in how it is run behind the scenes, or who does the running.

Unusual Features In Fiberglas Car

A passenger automobile with body constructed of fiberglas plastic and incorporating probably a dozen other unorthodox features was announced at Detroit by William B. Stout, noted automotive and aviation engineer.

Except for the doors, the entire body, including floor, roof, sides and ends, is one piece of fiberglas. It takes a smooth finish indistinguishable from enamel on steel.

Other unorthodox features include: Engine in the rear, no chassis or axels, wheels individually sprung on air cushions, wheels at the end of car without conventional overhang of standard automobiles, 137-inch wheelbase, no standard front and rear seats, interior space six feet wide with the floor measuring 11 feet; driver's seat is fixed to the floor and adjustable; interior can accomodate two or more movable reclining chairs; at rear end of interior is a six-foot couch that can be made up into a double bed.

A bumper runs all around the car, the doors are opened with electric pushbuttons and a curved windshield provides wide unobstructed driver vision.

The body material has ten times the impact strength of steel and cannot be dented with a hammer.

British Soccer Internationals To Visit Canada

A million dollars' worth of soccer talent is about to hit Canada. It's the visit of the professional team from Liverpool, England, the second blitzed city in all of Britain during the war.

Undoubtedly the coming of Liverpool, in their red shirts and white pants and a half century of tradition behind them, will be the great feature of the current season in Eastern Canada. The Liverpudlians play in Toronto, at Maple Leaf stadium. They'll meet probably the finest team in all of Canada, Ulster United, a club with a 30-year background that has won the highest honors the game can bestow in this country.

For this special game Maple Leaf stadium will be reserved practically in its entirety, and fans will come from as far south as Windsor, as far north as Fort William and Port Arthur, and as far east as Montreal. Toronto is the only place in Canada where Liverpool will play and the other cities in which they will appear include New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Baltimore and St. Louis.
