Blended for Quality

TREASURE OF THE SEA

By George E. Walsh

CHAPTER: XIV: The schooner cides out the storm. They make plans to rig up a small sall, or that failing, to build a raft and escape before Tucu can return and capture

CHAPTER XV

When morning dawned they crept on deck, wan, pale and exhausted, but happy. A quick glance around the horizon revealed the presence of no ship. The lugger disappeared.

storm," murmured Rose, smiling "No such luck, I'm afraid. Trust old Tucu to save his skin. But if he doesn't return I won't kick." "He will," replied Rose with conviction. "He'll come back to seize the schooner." "Then we must get away. How long"-glancing at the top of the forward mast-"would it take to rig up a sail?" She smiled and shook her head. "We couldn't do it in a month just

She surveyed the wreckage aloft up a iib," she mused, "just enough canvas to steer by, we might la our course for land, if we knew which way it was." Rose was quiet, staring across the heaving surface of the ocean. "What is it?" he inquired, advancing to her side."What do you "I don't know," she replied slowly. "It looks like a cloud on the horizon or-or-" "-land?" he interrupted eagerly. "It might be. I don't know. Things are so deceptive at sea."

They continued to gaze in the direction of the object faintly out lined above the horizon. "We'll believe it's land," he said finally, "and when we get a sail rigged up we'll steer for it." If Father was only in his right mind," she murmured, "he could tell whether it was land or-" "How is he now?" asked Dick,

"He slept peacefully all night. I sl ouldn't wonder if he recovered, and was better than ever. It may be that blow on his head will-her train of thought, "but we'd better not put too much trust in cles. If he recovers his se it will be a miracle, won't it? Per-twinkling, "he can tell us where he hid that treasure." She turned slowly toward him "You don't believe there was any treasure?" she asked seriously. He laughed pleasantly, "Do

"Yes," she admitted after a long pause. "It's real, and it's aboard the Betty."

. . . Dick was too surprised to speak for a time, and stared with incredulous eyes at her. He drew a deep breath finally, and said: "Then your father's babbling wasn't all moonshine? He knew where it was hidden, but was sane enough not to show Tucu?" "No," slowly, "he didn't know where it was I hid it when he lost his mind. I thought it would be Dick stared in dumb admiration "And you bluffed Tucu Made him believe no one knew where it was except your father?? I never dreamed you knew. You deceived

"I never said I didn't know where it was," she added, "neither to you nor to Tucu." "No, that's a fact, you didn't."

They stood by the port rail, watching the sunlight dancing on the waves. Dick glanced down at the head so close to his, and felt once more the passion of love surging up within him. He turned away abruptly; but she put out a

"Don't you want to know where it is, and what it is?" she asked in "Why-if you want to tell me," he stammered. "But why should you? It's not mine., I have nothing to do with it."

"Yes, it belongs partly to you," she replied quickly. "You helped save it, and if we reach land you must have your share."

He shook his head slowly. could never do that. It would be like accepting payment for-fordoing your duty. You saved my life when that ugly Carib fough me. You knew I couldn't overcome him. I was too far spent. He'd have killed me in the end, if you hadn't shot him'.'

"And then killed me-or worse," she murmured, shuddering. "Wasn't I protecting myself in shooting

"I suppose so, but-" When he stopped she looked a him with twinkling eyes, full of amusement. "Haven't you any curiosity?" she asked finally. "Don't you want to know what the treasure is, and how we got it? Or are cepting payment?" . . . He broke in with a laugh. "I'm dying with curiosity. What is this treasure, and where'd you get it?" She did not immediately answer, but kept him waiting, smiling provoking y into his face. "It's a you afraid that will look like ac-long story," she begg finally, "we found it on a wrecked "A submarine!" he echoed in bewilderment.

She nodded, and continued "Yes, she must have been wrecked ages and ages ago, probably during the World War, and was actually buried deep in the sand. You see, she'd been washed up from the of the cup. bottom of the sea, and got wedged between two saw-toothed rocks where the sand piled over her until she was almost invisible."

"Where was this?" interrupted "On one of the small islands in the Caribbean, so small that it hasn't any name-Father didn't know it anyway. We'd stopped there to make some repairs, and Father and I rowed ashore to get some gulls' eggs on the beach. When we crossed to the other side of the island we stumbled upon the buried submarine.

she frowned and glanced across the sea as if anxious to blot out of memory all impressions of the adventure. "She was an outlaw submarine," she went on finally, in a hard little voice, "and she'd been robbing her discovered her."

victims before sending them to the bottom. There was enough prize noney aboard to make all the crew satisfied-stolen money, you know. They were pirates, this crew were, for there was the evidence. There were rings and jewels, too. We searched for the submarine's pa-pers, thinking perhaps we might find a clue to the ships from which the loot was taken, so that it could be restored to the owners. But the log couldn't be found, and there was nothing to identify the ships that had been sunk. Father wanted to bring everything of value away. but I couldn't do it. I wouldn't let him touch the blood-stained ones. We left them there with the skeletons of the robbers. Maybe others will find them some day. I don't want them. I never want to see the island again!"

(To be continued)

NOW IT'S NO CHORE AT ALL

Picking chickens is a tiresome but necessary chore for any poultry farmer, but was doubly so for Ford Bush, of Darrowville, Ohio, who lost an arm in an accident. But with the mechanical picker he's shown operating, above, he does better than ever, finding the machine's 100 rubber fingers do a better job than he did with 10.

How Can 1? By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I make a good lus cheon dish out of leftover fish? A. Place the leftover fish in the casserole with a mound of strained cooked spinach. Cover with white sauce and cheese, and put in the oven to bake. O. How can I remove grit from the eye? A. By applying a drop of castor oil. Or, bathe it well with warm witch hazel or pure olive oil. Q. How can I remove scorched spots from cloth? A. Wet the spots with water and cover with borax or cornstarch, rubbing it in well. Let it dry before removing it. cork that has fallen inside a bottle A. Pour enough ammonia into the bottle to float the cork and put it away for a few days. The ammonia will eat enough of the cork to permit its easy removal. Q. How can I make all the molasses come out of the measuring cup?

A. Grease the cup lightly before measuring molasses, or dip it full of flour, then empty it; this enables every drop of molasses to come out white serge. Use a decoction of soapwort roots. . This keeps the upon the island and got wedged between the rocks. Then the sand nearly buried her from sight. Nothing but the top of the conning tower was visible when we She once more drew her jacket around her, as if cold. Dick noticed

> This slim, trim 2-piecer come and goes everywhere, effectively Pattern 4805 has done wonders with scallops and cut-away hipline and skirt panels for slenderizing

This pattern, easy to use simp to sew, is tested for fit. Includes complete illustrated instructions. Pattern 4805 comes in sizes 34 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48. Size 3 takes 25% yards 54-Inch fabric Send TWENTY CENTS (20c in coins (stamps cannot be ac cepted) for this pattern to room 421, 73 Adelaide St. West. Tor onto. Print plainly SIZE, NAME ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

A New Industry: Earthworm Farms

sweaters, tooled leathers, new washing machines, hammered silver and how may we conquer? "Put on the whole armour of God," says Exhibit in New York Shows How "Nature's Plowmen" Paul with emphasis. Aid Plant Life When the "whole armour of A little pink stranger nestled con-God" has been put on and the "sword of the spirit" has been idingly in his booth beside the gay treated furs at the Women's Inoccasions. We must pray "with all prayer and supplication." We must He was the earthworm, hitherto neglected and scorned denison of the topsoil. And, championed by pray "in the spirit". It is the pray-er which the Holy Spirit prompts Miss Bernice Warner of Worthington. Ohio, he now has taken and teaches that God the Father his place beside the loom as an up-and-coming industry for women. Miss Warner was off some-where explaining the benefits of The Nastiest Noise cussed the habits of the little guys · As Old As Creation "Earthworms," she said, "are as old as creation, as old as the stories of the Valley of the Nile. They are Nature's own little plowmen.

earthworm farms when a reporter

Scott Krouse, another fervent earthworm fan, took over and dispproached her booth, but Mrs.

oise, admittedly greatly magnified, which resembled something be-What we take from the earth, they tween the crunch of leaves and the put back." ripple of water. The clue was that Mrs. Krouse, a dignified, gray the noise was quite the nastiest known to nature, and the answer, given after both expert and listener about running a well-kept hand had time to think of the more hor pointed proudly to a thriving rific of beasts and their grisly work of killing and eating, was at once o a weak-looking growth. ingenious and unsatisfactory. It was "a moth gnawing a dinner-"They're the same age" she said treated and untreated. The big iacket." one has in it two teaspoons of soil that the worms have enriched. And we're in the business of raising them and selling them on our Earthworms, Mrs. Krouse added, are bi-sexual. A breeding worm throws off a miniscule capsule from which spring 8 to 11 young who "They're little fellows," Mrs Krouse said, "but have buried whole chicken and the worms digested all of it. Miss Warner has a 90-acre farm which is full of earthworms and it's never been prayed, it's so rich and loamy."

Good for the Hands, Too In addition, Mrs. Krouse said proudly, earthworms are good fo

"Miss Warner's mother is 75 years old," she said. "And her hands are as white and beautiful as a young girl's due to the oil thrown off from the worms." But a woman visitor had the last word. Pausing before the ex hibit, she watched Mrs. Krouse sift a loamy and wormy clod of dirt. "Woims," she said with a shudder. "Maybe they're good for strawberries, but I bet they crawl out of the spot and you step on m all over the house.'

Self-Discipline

An appeal to parents to permi heir children to take life's little knocks in order to develop self-discipline and adjust their behavior to ocial standards, is made by the Department of National Health and Welfare, Ottawa, Learning the hard way has advantages," the depart nent states, "A pampered child ha e opportunity to learn to solve e's problems in the school of hard ocks, through trial and error Only through personal experience can we learn to conform to th standards of conduct which living demands."

ISSUE 48-1946

Gift For Queen: Two Dozen Eggs In Plastic Jackets Sunday School

Two dozezn eggs-in plast jackets—have been delivered to Balmoral Castle for the King and Queen, says The London Daily Mail. Letter On Christian Living Acts 19: 23-30; Ephesians 6: 13-18. Golden Text.—Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of They were brought over from his might.—Ephesians 6: 10.

Riot in Ephesus

In consequence of Paul's minis-try the business of idol-making in Ephesus was on the decline. The waning market for silver shrines of Diana was first felt by the silver-smiths of the city, and they deter-mined to get Paul out of the way.

The crowd, in an outburst of fury, rushed into the streets and crowded into the great amphitheasian Christianity and its apostle.

Finally the crowd was quieted and dispersed without striking the blow

Call to Arms

Conflict is faced in the call t arms. (1) There is the call to strength. Be strengthened and be-come powerful in the Lord. We must have strength from Him in

(2) There is the call to steadastness. Stand firm against the to those who have put on the

(3) There is the call to conflict.

Christian warfare is personal and erpetual against unseen forces of

(4) There is the call to victory.

In a conflict naturally so unequal,

Victory Assured

firmly grasped, there is one thing still needed if we are to win this conflict with the Devil and his

We must pray "always," on all

Known to Nature

Some little time ago the BBC in broadcasting animal noises from the Zoo - and, incidentally, it was astonishing how like the lion the alligator sounded - asked the expert who was helping in the broadcast whether he could identify osts; that is prayer.

subtle, deceiving schemes of Satan. Such steadfastness is possible only order to be strong in Him.

whole armour of God.

ntended for Paul.

e, intent on crushing out Ephe-

America in an air liner by 22-year-old Miss Constance Liddicoat, who won a free trip to Britain given by an American plastic firm.

Miss Liddicoat said: "I was instructed to send the eggs on to the King gand Queen at Balmoral as soon as I arrived. The eggs will keep for nine months. They're unbreakable, and all you have to do is to peel off the plastic cover-

SUCCESS FOR A PARTY is assured by serving Maxwell House. This supremely fine coffee de-lights guests because its blend contains all the stimulating goodness of choice Latin-American

Instantine quickly relieves DISCOMFORT

12 TABLETS 25F DRUGSTON

ing on trains or trucks cause a farring which is hard on the kidneys as is also the exposure to all kinds of wind and weather.

This medicine goes to stimulate the action of the kidneys and relieve the backaches which so often result. For over half a century they have been popular with railway men, truckers and farmers.

Add Smartness and Distinction to YOUR home with

Made to measure of ROYAL-FLEXALUM (Flexible Aluminum) BEAUTIFUL — Met-Wo Vene-tion Blinds add charm and grace to every room. ECONOMICAL -Extra curtains are not required for tasteful decoration EASILY KEPT CLEAN — Dust does not cling to the satin-like smooth finish. PERMANENT — Royal-Flexa-lum (Flexible Aluminum) will not crack, rust or warp. Can-not catch on fire! The astin-like finish is absolutely permanent.

Delivery — We will ship your Venetian Blinds within 7 days or whenever desired by you.

CHRISTMAS PRESENT . for mother or daughterbrighten up their home this Christmas. Write for chart which shows how to measure the windows for exact fitting. We will ship to arrive when

Royal-Flexalum

VENETIAN BLINDS

A Much Desired

MET-WO INDUSTRIES LTD. 15 SAUNDERS AVE., TORONTO - Phone: KE: 8553

CHRONICLES O GINGER FARA By Gwendoline P. Clarke

Last Saturday we all went to the Royal Winter Fair but since we had a few cows of our own at home and since we all wanted to go together it meant we could not be away too long at a time. So the cows were milked extra early for one night so that we might get down in time for the evening performance. We rere in time all right but that didn't make any difference. There wasn't even standing room for the big show. The next best thing was to trail around from one exhibit to another. We saw all the cows. the bulls and the fat stock. We saw cows with sleek coats and cows with permanent waves. We saw the Baby of the Fair and it appeared quite unconcerned about the interest it had created. And by way of contrast we saw the faithful old standbys which had been brought in to provide milk for the pure bred stock. They were, in fact, wet nurses to the bovine aristocracy of the fair and were segregated in an out of the way part of the building where they were not likely to attract too much attention. However, Partner knew they would be somewhere and around hunting for them. and the utilitarian types seem to amuse him more than anything wasted in waving their hair polishing their horns. nally we moved along and isited the Swine, and on my, we tought at first we were coming to a slaughter house. The most blood-curdling shricks met our ears. But it was it as bad as it bounded. Apparently a young pig had shown signs of incipient pneumonia and was being given hypodermic. I am sure it must ave been a male pig because dy would ever have created such oar over such a simple mathe saw. There were cows of every age and breed. What did it mat-

- it was only their milk that quired. Apparently no time

On the Road here varieties of sheep than I ever here existed including the ones There is a large army of outdoor men who have learned to depend on Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Riding on trains on trains reat attraction and Daughter was a her glory among the cocker paniels. I was more interested in he collies and great Danes. As e really took an interest was the atomobiles but since there were ly half a dozen it didn't take very useful to have around as spent most of his time keeping ll in touch with one another minute we would be all to and the next thing we knew would later find him absolute bsorbed in watching some of livestock in which he was irse the horses were grand. are such magnificent creadoubt if there are many who do not take an interest ust head a book - "The s of Harrow" in which a palasaddle horse plays quite nt part. Then we saw sevams of dray horses in a e tandem aitch. They were didn't visit the poultr and I had seen all the we wanted to for one week uld again for a good many to come. Neither did we and to the fish exhibit be that time we were getting tired. Incidentally I was seeing the fish might create an unholy state of envy beas you know ,fish haven't

Housewives who have been oicing over the prospect of m creased supplies of shortening during the festive season are in for a certain amount of disappointment, says the Ottawa Citizen For the announcement that the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has arranged to place in all retail stores during November, December and January a supply of shortening equal to the amount consumed dur ing the same period in 1941 is not as impressive as it at first sounds What it amounts to in effect. s that enough shortening will be placed on the market to give each amily in Canada about three quarters of a pound extra during the three-month period As shortening is not rationed it means also that some housewives will get more, others less, than they are . . .

imported from the Argentine at the cost of heavy government subsithe world-wide shortage of fats and oils, from which Canada in common with other countries i suffering. Canada, for example, imports about 55 per cent of her requirements of fats and oils. Because of this dependence on the trade today is less than half of what it was in pre-war years. located through the International Emergency Food Council, and Canada's domestic sources of fats and oils are three. Tallow and lard are obtained from animals. Vegetable oils come principally from lard-hog production, Movie Actress HORIZONTAL 60 Propel self 1,4 Pictured 1,4 Pictured through water screen actress 61 Exhibits 11 Bard 62 Soak up 3 Piece of track VERTICAL 14 So be it! 17 Kind of cheese 2 Joint of ster 18 Aleutian 19 Measure of (ab.) 6 Feline distance 20 And (Latin) 8 Mineral salt

0 Grins 33 Observe 37 Endured 24 Light face 12 Thulium (ab.) 25 Abstract being 15 Sprite cloth 54 Conste 39 Health resort 55 Edge 27 Dutch city 16 Northeast (ab.) instruments 21 Donkey 40 Certified public ac-31 Duties (ab.) 23 Still 34 Editor (ab.) 35 Electrical engineer (ab. 36 She has played 40 Lifting device 43 High mountain 44 Chum 45 Postscript (ab.) 46 Like 48 Father (ab.)

haven't mentioned the s. Of course we saw them, our way in and our way ut to tell you the truth I disappointed in them e, of course, gorgeous all description but I displays I liked better. there didn't seem enough -set the mass and colsection. They were again, the place was was almost imposanything for people. "Royal" comes round management will l us when and where may be obtained. ertainly help a lot. I one advertisement that nation at all on matter. We

Why Shortage of Shortening?

Canada, Like Other Countries, Suffers from World-Wide Shortage of Fats errun Western Europe, the .a-

That the amount is so small is not the fault of Mr. F. H. Lehberg, the fats and oils administra tor, nor of Prices Board policies To make even this amount available, the necessary sunflower, pea-nut and cottonseed oils are being

What the situation does reflect is world position she faces a serious problem, for the surplus of fats and oils available for international

Since July supplies have been al-Canada has received talr treatment. The fact is that there is not sufficient to go round. Even were the pre-war level of imports available, it would still be insufficient for present requirements; this because of Canada's increased population. spending power and industrial ac flaxseed: smaller amounts from the new development of sunflower seed

United States is now doing, to investigate the possibility of increased 26 Notary public 41 Sun god 42 Permits 45 Compensate 47 Prophet

21 Any 22 Mine 48 Request 32 Kenneth (ab.) 50 Three singers 51 War depart-37 Endured ment (ab.)
38 Measure of 52 Three (prefix) 54 Constellation 56 Nova Scotia countant (ab.)57 Ampere (ab.)

51 52 53 54 55 56 57 56 Feminine 58 59 60 58 One who dy 61 62 59 Great Lake PLAIN ENGLISH

electricity

The Bookshelf.. Canada's War At Sea

By Stephen Leacock and Leslie Roberts

The story of Canada's War at ca is a record of building ships; of nanning the naval vessels of the 21 Canadian Navy and the carships of the Canadian Merchant Navy; and of the valor and endurnce of Canadian sailors and merchant seamen on all the oceans. In 1940, after the Germans had ons of the British Commonwealth tood alone in arms with the exiled rces of the occupied lands against the might of Nazi Germany. Brittin's resistance depended on the North Atlantic life-line. Canada's avy. Canada's merchant fleet and he builders of Canadian ships had vital part in holding that life-line freedom. One of the authors of this vol-ame, Leslie Roberts, went to sea nd lived with the navy over an ex tended period. The background of the story, the part which deals with the mari time history of Canada, is by Stephen Leacock, who held a unique place in Canadian letters CANADA'S WAR AT SEA . Ey Stephen Leacuck and Leslie Roberts . . Publications (1943) Limited . . . Price $3.00.

> in Manitoba, rape seed in Saskatchewan, and soya beans in Ontario Pilchard and herring supply a certain amount of marine and fish oil, but this source is not a dependable one as the catch varies greatly from year to year.

Most serious aspect of the donestic picture is the heavy drop in lard production. Since 1944 Canada's output of lare has fallen from a peak of 132 million pounds to an estimated 40 million pounds.

the production of crops which yield vegetables oils and also, as the

A William Tell act with a boomerang, an Australian aboriginal . . . Household uses apart, the importance of fats and oils can scarcely be exaggerated; there is hardly an industry which does not depend in real degree on these commodities. As indicated above, the current shortage is not just a Canadian problem. Nor can it be solved entirely in Canada, nor on a world basis for perhaps some years to ing perfectly still as the weapon come. As steps toward its solution circles and returns, neatly knocking the apple from his head! however, it would appear that Can ada would be well advised to place the greatest possible emphasis on their companions, they are not looking for fleas, but small particles of salt, the result of evaporation. weapon which returns to the thrower's hand, was demonstrated by Mr. Frank Donellan at Paira-matta, New South Wales, recently, says the Ottawa Citizen. Mr. Don-PACKED 2 WAYS. Choose Maxwell House nellan, who has been a champion boomerang thrower for 40 years, in either Super-Vacuum gave a display of his skill in aid Tin (Drip or Regular of a charitable organization. First, balancing an apple on his head, Grind) or Glassinehe throws the boomerang, remain-Lined Bag (All Purpose Grind). It's the same for new suggestions concerning luncheon menus.

1 cup all bran

(400 deg. F.) about 25 minutes.

Boomerang Thrower

In William Tell Act

1 cup prepared mincemeat 2 table poons shortening 1/2 teaspoon salt

Yield: 12 muffins (21/4 inches in diameter).

3/4 cup milk

have it-a hearty, wholesome meal with a minimum of effort!

MINCEMEAT MUFFINS

Combine all bran, milk and mincemeat; let soak about 5 minutes.

Blend shortening and sugar: add egg and beat well. Stir in the bran and mincemeat mixture. Add dry ingredients which have been sifted greased muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake in moderately hot oven together; mix only until liquid and dry ingredients are combined. Fill

1/4 cup sugar

1 egg
1 cup sifted flour
3 tablespoons baking powder

Not Fleas-Salt

When monkeys are observed searching through the coats of superb coffee blend.

Lunch Is Ready In A Flash

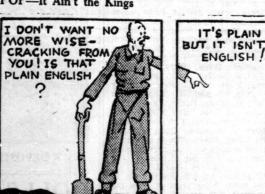

Is yours a home where the family troops in for the noonday meal with hungry looks in their eyes? If so, you're probably a ready listener Your mornings are probably filled to the limit with household tasks and there's just not time to fuss over the noon meal. That's why we've picked for this month, a casserole of hearty baked bcans, served with spicy Mincemeat mustins, and popped into the oven after the breakfast dishes are done. The muffins can be made in a jiffy-and there you

SENUINE ASPIRIN IS MARKED THIS WAY

Fine Cut Rolls an A1/

POP-It Ain't the Kings

Need for hand cleanures is the subject of a bulletin issued by the Department of National Health and Welfare. It isn't only a matter of decency, but of with health of decency, but of vital health concern, say the doctors, for bacteria inevitably collects on the hands and is readily transmitted.

Hand Cleanliness

By J. MILLAR WATT