ON THE OTHER FOOT—

IF THE RURAL PEOPLE, through the medium of the Press, raised as much need about every economic improvement in the status of the city people, as the City people raise, through the medium of the City Press, when the farmer gets a break in his economic return, there would eventually be civil war. The fuss about the milk price, emanating from a lot of misinformed housewives and political opportunists in the City, is typical of what happens when anything is done to improve the status of the poorly paid farmer.

When the war came in 1939, milk was selling for 12 cents a quart. Later it was reduced to 10 cents, by reason of the consumer subsidy. When the consumer subsidy was removed the price was advanced again to 12 cents. When the producer subsidy of 55 cents per hundredweight was removed the first of this month, the return to the farmer would have been reduced by approximately 1 1/2 cents per quart. The farmers' appeal for parity prices prompted the Ontario Milk Control Board to approve a dollar per hundredweight increase in the basic price of his product. Actually the farmer, on this basis will get about one cent per quart more for his milk than heretofore.

It should be understood that the ten-cent price of milk was purely artificial. The consumers were paying more than that—not directly—but indirectly through taxes. The fair comparison is from 12 cents to fifteen cents per quart—an increase of 3 cents in the seven years since the war began, or 25 per cent. Few articles of food, if any, show so small an increase over the war period.

The present squeal over the milk price is a lot of bunk, and it is less than becoming for the City Press to picture large families with the suggestion they will have to do with less milk because of the increase. The baby bonus, paid by the Dominion Government, more than offsets these children. The Roly Commission appointed by the Ontario Government will do no

"The Printed Word" comes up with a definition of Social Security which fans that flame of torism in us to new heights. "Social Security" it says, "is robbing the poor for the benefit of the lazy."

Our editor friend Sam Morris, of the Port Dover Maple Leaf, withheld his fire for a long time on the activities of the "Lord's Day Alliance People" in their effort to stem Sunday frivility in the lake side town. In the last two issues of the "Maple Leaf", however, he has made his views known in a most certain way. "No Lord's Day Alliance or other blue sky Legislation will ever fill the Churches," says Sam. He calls for a revision of the Blue Sky Law for the elimination of the features that provide one law for the rich and one for the poor. He definitely has a good case and he so ably makes us proud of the press session.

With Brother Sam Morris going after the ministers in his town we feel compelled to echo a thought often expressed in Jarvis. That is the high regard and esteem held for the three ministers of the Gospel residing here. Messrs. Cameron, Fuller and East justly merit such esteem. They are three persons of the community that always have time to turn a hand when called on in community effort. Besides that they often give the required leadership. Ministers have a difficult mission to fulfill and unless they have the respect and goodwill of their parishioners their task is most difficult. In Jarvis our ministers are fulfilling their mission.

For the past year, our esteemed friend, Jack Horn, has been writing a column in the Delhi News-Record. His writings have possessed such a quality that we refer with pride to the fact that he started his newspaper career on the Jarvis Record. Last week, however, he contributed his last column for a period of some weeks. On Monday last he went into Hospital to undergo an operation on his ears. Over the past three or four years Jack has found that his hearing has grown progressively worse and now, in his own words, he is going to have his ears tuned up for sure or never. It is a serious operation and required courage to submit to but Jack has got it and we feel sure that in a few months from now he will be completely cured of this affliction. Certainly it is that the best wishes of his innumerable friends will be with him during his sojourn in hospital.

Jack's writings have always revealed a humorous vein in his character. Competing his column last week he said: "When we return to this column we hope that our first appeal to our readers will be to 'Stop shouting. Dye think we're deaf, or something. Good luck, ehum."

more than provide a forum for a lot of misinformed people who have been protesting so volubly against the increase—but they will have to face the facts about production costs. PROUD HERITAGE—

By Miss 'Mike' O'Leary—
Managing-Editor, New Toronto Advertiser
IT IS SURPRISING that so many Canadians have seen so little of their own country... whatever the cause, there is no doubt but that those of us who fail to see other parts of our Dominion are depriving ourselves of an enriching experience. There is nothing quite so eye-opening as a trip to the coast, particularly by train. As the wide vista of lakes, forests and mountains unfolds in a spectacular panorama, pride in being a Canadian is born.

Residing mole-like in one province, and failing contact with the rest of the Dominion, we go on singing "O' Canada" with little fervor. We fail to be thankful for the rich resources, the scenic grandeur of the land we live in. Traveling over 2,000 miles to reach the west coast watching spellbound the vast, endless prairies, the towering Rocky Mountains, we know proudly and intimately the mightiness of our heritage.

It is certain that nothing would be more conducive to inspiring unity and faith in the future of Canada than greatly increased inter-province travel. Above all, young people who presumably have not yet had time to form prejudices or become set in a groove of racial prejudice should be given the opportunity to travel. Surely one of our most powerful educational factors is being neglected by failure to sponsor more group tours for school children. The results of the young heirs getting to know the problems and the people of the rest of Canada would have incalculable effects on the future course of this country.

In a land proud of its dual language and culture, we should neglect no means to foster a spirit of unity. We in Ontario can gain much from the fresh pioneer spirit of the west, the rich tradition of the east. Set strategically astride the Dominion, heavy with industry, we must at times appear to be complacently selfish to other provinces not as rich financially.

We need to remind ourselves constantly of the oneness of our land, each unit joined together for the general welfare of all. This is the spirit of Confederation we must never lose if we are to fulfill our noble destiny.

HOT WEATHER FOOD ECONOMIES—

KEEP YOUR MENUS IN TUNE with the times. Highlight your meals with crisp vegetables, fresh fruit and fish and help release for export to the famine countries more wheat, meat, cheese and eggs, those staple foodstuffs so urgently needed in the hunger areas.

WOULD YOU PREFER THE LANGUAGE OF THE BIRD

Modern ways of expressing ourselves, complain various educators are flat and colorless—a far cry from the rich language of Shakespeare. In an effort to add a little color to weekly we offer a few suggestions as to how we might treat various situations in the good old Elizabethan manner—

Now in telephoning for instance: "Wench, methinks time has dulled thy senses. Thou farriest while I wait, chafing and impatient like the tiger in ambush for the dallying antelope. Stir thyself and haste thee, like the furious and untrammelled lightning, to get me number one four six."

At the ball game: "Come on, thou mighty and unconquerable Cassey, thou like soaring eagle and Cassey, thou like the hulking tawny bear. Fasten thou upon the child-muscles like the lion's livered pitcher and smite the glistening sphere after the furthest barrier into the guests of the unchartered space!"

On the highways: "Varelet! Wretch! jangle-minded half-wit! Wherefore pointest not thy palsied hand to the left when thou wouldst turn that odd mishap, squeaking hulk thou callest a car in that direction? Be off before I strike that addled pate from off thy shoulders or call a leather-legged cop to put thee in a dank and dayless cell."

At the store: "Two pounds I want of the flowering succulent brocoli, one can of crimson-sweet tomato juice. One of the golden fruit of the citrus tree, give me. I pray, as many as are the months of the year, and haste thee to procure one brown-skinned loaf of the wheat. From the flanks of yonder lamb, that once did gambol over the fields to the piping of the shepherd cut me six chops!"

To a waiter: "Avast, lackey! A table for two, neither too near the tintinnabulation of yon African swing band nor yet too far removed from the oaken floor upon which basketh yon citizen. Further, fuddle-head, two martinis, combining the crystal gin of the Dutch kingdom with the rosy vermouth of Italy's Apollo-kissed plains! Be off!"

"To a bridge partner. 'Wherefore leadest thou me the king of diamonds when my discard did plainly call for clubs? Truly thou art the Prince of Ignorance. Hadst thou led aught our enemies should have been down to a greater death than in the restless mighty churning ocean! Thou scatter wilt! Thou three-blind fool!"

The flaw in some people is that they don't sprout tails as dogs do, so they just wag their tongues instead. — Kincaidine (Ont.) News.

BOTTLE SHORTAGE SERIOUS

MAY CURTAL BEVERAGE PRODUCTION SAY BOTTLERS

Immediate Return of Empties Urgently Needed

Right now there is a very serious shortage of bottles... particularly beverage bottles. Unless this bottle shortage is made up immediately, it may be necessary to cut down the production of the beverages you need and which come only in bottles. This is an urgent appeal to you to gather up your empty bottles and return them without delay.

Start a bottle round-up in your home today. Gather up the empty bottles in your kitchen—your pantry—your store room—your shed—your cellar. Sort them out and return them at once, or call the regular pick-up service. Your help is important... the need is urgent. Please gather up and return ALL empty bottles today or tomorrow at the latest.

Why a Bottle Shortage?

Canadian glass factories normally produce MILLIONS of bottles every month. The vital ingredient in bottle making is soda ash. Since July 12th the only big Canadian soda ash factory has been strike-bound. Since then the stock of soda ash has been used up... bottle factories are closed down... bottles are not being made today. Beverage bottlers and all producers of bottled liquids must have your bottles back to keep going. Bottling plants will close down too... if your empties are not returned.

GENERAL

Q What are Canada Savings Bonds?
A Canada Savings Bonds are the successor to Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. They are your country's promise to return your money to you at any time and to pay you interest at an attractive rate.

Q Why are Canada Savings Bonds being offered?
A Because during the war, millions of Canadians learned the savings habit by buying Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. A recent survey shows that 82% of them want to keep on saving by a similar plan.

Q Is the Government selling Canada Savings Bonds just to raise money?
A No. Borrowing needs of the Government can be met by other types of loans. The main purpose of the Canada Savings Bond is to provide Canadians with a convenient way to continue this kind of saving and investment in peacetime.

Q Is there any limit to the amount of Canada Savings Bonds that one person may hold? If so, why?
A Yes. There is a limit of $2,000 for each individual, but each member of a family may hold bonds up to the limit.

Q What is the price of Canada Savings Bonds?
A 100%. That is, a $100 bond costs $100. If payment is not completed on or before November 15th, 1946, interest will be added to the purchase price.

Q In what denominations are Canada Savings Bonds available?
A $50, $100, $500 and $1,000.

CASHING OF BONDS

Q Can I cash my bond at any time before November 1, 1956?
A Yes, any branch in Canada of any chartered bank will cash your bond immediately at full face value, plus interest at 3 1/2%, upon your identification as the registered holder.

Q Can Canada Savings Bonds be assigned or transferred?
A They can be cashed, but not assigned or transferred. This is necessary to prevent any individual from acquiring more than the authorized limit.

INTEREST COUPONS

Q What interest is paid on Canada Savings Bonds?
A 3 1/2%—payable yearly on November 1st from 1947 to 1956, by coupon cashable without charge at any branch in Canada of any bank.

Q Are interest coupons registered?
A No. They are payable to bearer.

REGISTRATION PROTECTION

Q Why is it necessary to register Canada Savings Bonds?
A Registration gives protection in case your bond is lost, stolen or destroyed. It is also the simplest way to ensure that the individuals do not hold more than the $2,000 limit.

Q In whose name can Canada Savings Bonds be registered?
A They can be registered only in the name of one individual, adult or minor, up to the amount of the authorized limit.

HOW, WHEN AND WHERE TO BUY

Q Where can I buy Canada Savings Bonds?
A At any branch of a bank or from an authorized investment dealer, stock broker, trust or loan company—or through the payroll savings plan if this is in operation at your place of employment.

Q How do I pay for Canada Savings Bonds?
A In any of the following 3 ways:

1. By payment in full at time of purchase.
2. By monthly instalments through a bank, trust or loan company.
3. By regular deductions from pay, where employers operate the Payroll Savings Plan.

8 out of 10 will buy again....
