RECORDED VOIC HORRIFIED HIM

The foundation of any healthy nation is the family. Any factor tending to break up the family, and make it less important, is therefore dangerous. A birthrate that is too low or an exceptionally high divorce rate seriously militates against the vigor and progress of a country.

We setting am minimating. I shall of my best to correct the more obvious faults.

"Would it not be an excellent thing for every clergyman to hear one of his own sermons? So many of us have acquired pulpit drones and other tricks of speech that the man in the pew finds distracting and offensive. My suggestion is that every diocese should possess a recording apparatus and every licensed clergyman should be compelled to listen to one of his own sermons.
