

TREASURE OF THE SEA By George E. Walsh

The story of how the handful of precipitated.

told him.'

him inquiringly.

laughed again.

* * *

attempt at deception, had been drawn into the net. His invention had nearly cost the lives of a dozen men including that of his old enemy, and for a moment he grew grave and serious; then, recalling the various sequences of events that had ended so satisfactorily, he

"I guess, after all, that was the best story I ever invented," he added. "Anyway, it seems to have worked."

idea. Must have dreamt it."

CHAPTER XXI

that's all." Dick tripped on a stone. With an sailors had battled through the surf and reached the island on the night exultant animal cry, the half-breed advantage of the accident. of the shipwreck, and how for days Dick made a fruitless effort to and nights they had existed on wriggle away from him; but the uplifted knife followed until it was shell fish and a few birds they managed to kill, while they watched poised directly over his throat.

and waited hopefully for a sail, was told dramatically by the different The near report of a gun did not seem to be connected with his danger, and its echo in his ears made When the lugger appeared they no appreciable impression on his had hailed it joyfully, but later they mind. Even when the giant halfhad reasons to dread Captain Tucu and his crew more than their lonebreed shivered ,and began toppling over, he could not associate the act ly isolation on the island. The old with the pistol crash. But the knife did not descend. It dropped from pirate, when he found the shipthe nerveless hand of the Carib and wrecked seamen urarmed, attempted to rob them of what few possesfell with a thud to the beach. sions they had carried away from Tucu, like a giant forest tree whose base had been shattered by lightning, swayed a moment uncertainly and then without a moan or sigh fell with a crash, sprawling on top of his adversary and pinning him to the ground. . . .

"Dick! Dick, are you hurt?" Out of the strange apathy that had numbed his mind, Dick heard the voice, and came to his senses as Rose rushed to his side. She grasped his shoulders and pulled im from under the inert body of the dead half-breed. Are you hurt?" she repeated

He smiled and shook his head, his eyes on her as if unable to com-

"I was afraid I'd be too late," she murmured, tears close to the sur-face, "or miss him!" "You shot him?" he asked in a dazed voice.

"Yes"—shuddering and turning away i om Tucu—"I—I had to, or In the excitement of the conflict and the relief that followed their deliverance from Tucu, neither Dick nor Rose noticed Hen Petti-grew, who had watched the proceeding: at close range, and who now sat staring at them in evident surprise and bewilderment. Al-though weak and dazed by his own wounds, the man was fully conon, and when Dick finally glanced up and caught his eye he started with a grunt.

"Jordan!" he said thickly.

Dick's face flushed an instant and then paled. Rose glanced from is he? Is he a frienc?' We were both on the City of Bahia before she went to the bottom. So your boat wasn't swamped, Jordan? You were lucky. Ours toppled over, and all went to the bottom except those who swam Dick sat up and faced the situation bravely. In saving Hen's life, he had unwittingly made his own exposure a certainty. There was no need for further subterfuge; Rose would have to know all.

"I was lucky," he rplied, "but not the rest. They were all lost. I clung to a raft for days and night until Tucu here picked me up on the lugger, and then—" He glanced at Rose, and added: "Ask her. She'll tell you the rest."

But Rose's sympathy for Petti-grew was unexpectedly aroused to action. Hen's strength, that had been restored for a time by the excitement, showed signs of waning; he grew deadly pale, and began sinking rapidly. His eyes closed and his head sagged forward until it touched the ground.
"Oh!" she exclaimed, jumping to her feet. "He's dying! We must get The rest of the party arrived in time to give Hen all the human aid that was possible. He was seriously but not dangerously wounded, and after staunching the flow of blood and binding up the ugly holes the bullets had made in his side and shoulders, he recovered from his faint, and smiled grimly. (To Be Concluded) JAPS WORSHIP ON BOMBED CAMPUS

From oldsters like white-haired man at left to youngsters pictured in foreground with their mother, hundreds of Christian Japanese attended recent St. Andrew's Day services on the bombed-out campus of Tokyo's Central Theological College. The first postwar service of rededication was sponsored by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in Japan.

Sunday School Lesson

Jesus' Authority in Home and Church

John 2: 1-16. Golden Text. - Whatsoever saith unto you, do it .- John 2: 5. The Marriage Feast The marriage feast had been in progress several days when something happened which threatened the steamer, and when they object-ed the inevitable conflict has been to disgrace the bridegroom and his family in the eyes of their neighbors: the supply of wine had been exhausted. In these grape-growing lands wine was a common article of diet and was also a symbol of "He had a crazy idea we knew omething about smuggled jewels joy and festivity. Somehow Mary that he said were aboard the steamhoped that Jesus would be able to er," Hen Pettigrew explained later. meet the emergency. But she was "Don't know where he got the tion of a separation from her Sou, "No," replied Dick, smiling. "I and it came in the form of a gentle Hen and the others looked at rebuke. The phrase "What have I to do with thee"? was equivalent to telling His mother that their rela-Dick chuckled ruefully at the tion had changed. Hitherto He had thought of how his ruse had com-plicated the situation so that been a subservient and obedient others, perfectly innocent of any

How Can 1? By Anne Ashley to be under the direction of His Heavenly Father only. Whatever rebuke was implied in Jesus' reply disturbed, "whatsoever He saith un-

Q. How can I keep the grains f rice separate when cooking? A. Add a teaspoonful of lemon uice to each quart of water when boiling rice and it will keep the Briefly as he could he outlined grains separate, and also make the this part of his adventure. The rice white others listened and nodded their Q. What is a remedy for danheads with grinning approval.

An interesting conference will be held in Loadon next February, when of the British Empire will gather for an exchange of views. While of breaking up the British Empire.

they will, of course, enjoy the protection of British law: they will be allowed to speak freely, to come and go as they please, and to distribute literature of a mendacious and inflammatory nature. Enemies of freedom themselves, and sworn to destroy freedom the moment they seize power, they will nevertheless take full advantage of it in their London meeting.

a smuggler, Jordan, if I didn't of sulphur in one quart of soft know you weren't."

Dick flushed. "Perhaps I am." water. Do not use it until it is thoroughly mixed and settled. Ap he retorted challengingly. "How do you know I'm not? You know my ply it at night. Q. How can I take away that "Yes," slowly, "I know your faded and worn appearance at the seams of a carpet?

A. Try using paint or soft cray-"Dick's record," she said slowly, ons of the same shade as in the thrusting an arm into one of his, "is clean. Whatever it might have rug and touching up the worn places with these. been in the past, it's been wiped out Q. How can I keep dust from coming up through the furnace re-

There was a silent pause, an awkward eriod in which the two A. Part of it can be prevented men exchanged glances that none of the others could interpret; but if, before sweeping and dusting a room, a damp cloth is spread over there was evident hostility between them based upon something in the the furnace register. The dust will cling to the cloth instead og gopast. Rose pulled Dick gently ing down the register, to circulate away. later through the room. Q. How can I remove acid "Come. There's so much to do. stains from fabrics?

We must help the wounded, even if A. Dampen spots and ther hey are Caribs and our enemies. over with saits of wormwood. Le Captain Bedford had already asthis remain for a few minutes, and sumed charge of the situation, and the seamen willingly took orders from him. The dead Caribs were Communist Leaders uried on the beach, and the wounded cared for. Then with the small boats they made a visit to the lugger, which had been rolling lazily at anchor in the cove. Captain Bedford overhauled the craft, and finally sniffed his scorn. "She ain't worth sailin' into port She's a stinking hulk that ought to have gone to the bottom long ago they are discussing ways and means We'll leave her." "But, Cap'n," protested one of the seamen, "she's good enough to carry us home. We ain't figgerin on staying here longr'n we have to We're a bit homesick."

"Sure!" was the grinning retort "But the Betty's worth a dozen sich luggers. I figger we can patch her up in less'n a week an' sail home. We'll have a full crew now. Wait'll ye see her."

Miracle of the Wine

Obeying Jesus, the servants filled the waterpots with water and then poured out the contents. Rich red wine flowed out from the iars which they themselves had just filled with clear water. Notice that lesus had only directed the operation, touching nothing Himself In performing this miracle Jesus did the family a great favor in re-lieving their embarrassment. He also gratified His mother. But the object of the miracle was to manifest His glory to the end that His newlychosen disciples might believe on "His Father's House"

When Jesus entered the spacious Temple courts at Jerusalem, whither He had journeyed, He was roused to indignation by the sight of cattle pens along with clay dishes and ovens required in the cooking of Passover lamb, and money changers plying their fraudulent trade. This desecration of His Father's House was not to be tolerated. Tying together small cords (probably made by twisting the spread for bedding). He made a "courge." Descending upon the traders, "He drove them all out of the Temple" with their sheep and oxen, and overturned the tables of the money changers. "My Father's House" reminds us of the phrase Jesus used, when a

the age of twelve, He attended the Passover, and said to His parents,

"Wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business?"

Short (bread) Modern Etiquette

British bread rationing The Worshipful Company of Bakers, which dates back to the reign of Henry II, recently had a which automobiles leave, following banquet at London's Mansion laid when setting the dinner table? No bread was served.

DO THIS FOR

WHEN A COLD stuffs up the nose, causes mouth breathing, throat tickle and night coughing, use this time-tested Vicks treatment that goes to work instantly... 2 ways at once!

At bedtime rub good old Vicks VapoRub on throat, chest and back. Then watch its PENETRATING. STIMULATING action bring relief from distress.

It PENETRATES to upper breathing passages with soothing medicinal vapors. It STIMULATES chest and back surfaces like a warming, comforting poutice... and it keeps on working for hours, even while you sleep—to case coughing spasms, relieve muscular soreness and tightness—and bring grand comfort! Try it tonight... Vicks VapoRub, dance comes along and she doesn't know any boy well enough to in-vite, what does she do? BRACELET $25.00 value for $1.00. Men's ad-4. When a bride is to be marjustable stainless steel lightweight bracelets.

STAINLESS WATCH

Price $1.00 postpaid. Refund guaranteed. ried in an afternoon dress, and is attended by bridesmaids, how should the bridesmaids dress?

5. Is it customary at a private dance to utroduce the young man LIFE LONG BRACELET MFG. to the girls without asking permis-IMPOSSIBLE TO HIDE sion of the girls?
6. Is it correct to say, "I exfact that Maxwell House pect to see him inside of a few weeks"? Coffee is expertly blended, The superb Maxwell House

ANSWERS 1. Yes. The car of the bride and blend results from a tradibridegroom leaves first, then the tional knowledge and skill bridesmaids, followed by the bride's parents, then the bridegroom's parof the art of coffee blendents, next the nearest relatives, last the friends. 2 The napkins, folded ing. square, are laid on each place plate. She can let her sorority sisers arrange a blind date for her. 4. They must also be in afternoon dress, and of design and color to narmonize with the bride's costume. Yes. It is assumed that all the young men invited are desirable, or hey would not be present. 6. No. Say, "within a few weeks".

By Roberta Lee

1. Is there a certain order in a church wedding?

2. Where should the napkins be

3. When a girl's first sorority

All German POWs To Leave Canada

No German prisoners of war are to be retained in Canada, Arthur MacNamara, Deputy Minister of Labor, announced last week.

Decision of the Federal government to ship all captives back to Europe before the end of the year, it was understood, was a reversal of an earlier order that some of them were to be kept in Canada as labor-

Reports that some of the remain ing 2,200 in the country were to be retained, it was learned, had evoked complaints from some quarters against this step. In view of the opposition, it was reported the number of men involved in the government's earlier decision-200 was not considerable enough to make an issue of the matter.

The Deputy Minister's announcement said that "all prisoners of war now in Canada will have been returned to Europe by the end of the

What Brings

Quick Relief

Since her own childhood grand-mother has known Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to be a dependable and quick relief for coughs, colds, bronchitis and similar ailments.

Is it any wonder that she sees that there is always a bottle of it at hand in case of emergency. Quick action is most important when colds set in.

Dr. Chase's Syrup

of Linseed and Turpentine 35¢ Family size 3 times as much 75¢

Grandmother Knows

IRONICLES OF INGER FARM

I with us but I have been told

Did you ever see a previous orld? I can't remember any winul as this has been for the last w days. The sun is shining just ow through a sky of azure blue; ees, shrubs and hedgerows shrubs and hedgerow sparkling with myriads n-cut diamonds; the air charp and cold and the tree branches are bowing as if in subju-gation to his Majesty, King Jack Frost.

Of course even beautiful winter ather has its drawbacks. For intance, the other night when every else had gone to bed I went lown to have a last look at the quick look around revealed the erflow had frozen over, freezing ice water will always find an outarouse Bob from his slumberd I might add he was much bete pool which was no bigger than teaplate. No doubt by morning like boats on a lake loose from And poor Mitchie might have been drowned too. But I have not told you about Mitchie, have I?-The day before Christmas Mitchie began to sneeze and cough and lost her appetite. We thought she still has a few lives left so I dosed her and quite expected she would recover. But she became steadily worse. We made her up a bed back of the furnace and fed her with whisky and water from a medicine dropper. Each morning I expected to find her dead, but no, Mitchie tenaciously clung to what was left to her of life. But finally, one wight to how led a linear continu night she bowled almost continuously, so reluctantly we knew there was only one course open to us. We just couldn't see poor Mitchie suffer. So now, after nearly fourteen years of glorious feline living, our Mitchie is dead—and even after death you notice I still refer to him as "her" and "she". I never could remember that Mitchie be-longed to the male of the species. tuating temperature. This is often the cause of heavy textured steam

Well, there is a great hurrying and scurrying going on at the other end of the house. Third Niece has just inquired if she may take the ironing board into the kitchen. First Niece is tramping around over my head with what I would like to describe as fairy footsteps. Their mother, no doubt, is super vising going-away preparations because that is what it has come to. The exodus which began the day after Christmas and has been continuing by degrees is now reaching its end. After today the only visitor remaining with us will be First Niece, and after her departure we shall have no excuse for not getting back to normal and on with the work.

But we don't intend to work any harder than we have to—that is, unless the weather provides us with unexpected surprises which could quite easily give us plenty of work that we would neither want nor welcome. . . .

Left to ourselves we like to rethe holidays. Catch up on our reading and enjoy doing the little odd jobs that have been put off "until after Christmas". Partner still has a few cigars that have to be smoked so he can make the air blue while I wrestle with the in-tricacies of diamond socks. Oh yes, I have at last joined the ranks of diamond-sock knitters. It was only lack of wool that kept me from it before. Now I have the wool but no directions, so the pattern I am working out is by way of being original-and poor Bob will be the

Well, so long for now. When I

By Gwendoline P. Clarke 1,7 Pictured 1 Moist 2 Metal 3 Sufferers from RIPE MARINE PLOTE SIGNING

4 Anger

6 Chief

9 Discover processes

48 Et cetera (ab.)
34 35 36

The age-range of the family may e from six to sixty but it makes little difference, since all are inter-ested in the dessert course. That atmosphere of suspense and "what's-coming-next" has given it a touch of glamour. Sometimes when the enthusiasm of the junior members of the family can be restrained no

It has been said that the des-longer, you'll hear them ask - "what's for dessert?"

5 Pertaining ten many ____ 38 He is a well-

29 Blackbird of 44 School dance cuckoo family 45 Rowing stick

39 Northeast

46 Insect

47 Germ cell

49 Walking stick

26 Permit

23 He has writ- 37 Golf device 54 Scatter

18 19 20 21

34 35 36 37 38 39 42 43 43

50 51 52 53 54 55 36 57

58 59 - 12

OR

3 tablespoons melted fat

1 egg ½ cup sifted pastry flour

¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon allspice
1 teaspoon baking powder

½ teaspoon baking soda 1 cup fine, dry, bread crumbs

1 cup sour milk or buttermilk melted fat. Add well-beaten egg. Sift together the flour, spices, bak-bread crumbs and mix. Add dry

Add chopped fruit. Fill large, well-greased mould or individual moulds 2/3 full. Cover with wax paper and steam—large mould 1½hours, in-dividual moulds 45 minutes. Six-

Buttermilk Pudding Sauce

3 tablespoons flour — blended with cold water.

sugar, salt and flour. Cook in a double boiler, stirring constantly until thickened. Do not beat but-wise it will curdle. Add flavouring. This sauce has a delicious un-

Sweet and cool in any Pipe

CANADA'S

STANDARD PIPE TOBACCO

usual flavour. Six servings.

eight servings.

11/2 cups buttermilk

11/2 teaspoons vanilla

Mix together the

1 cup raisins, dates or figs, flour

½ teaspoon nutmeg

1 teaspoon cinnar

1/2 cup less 1 tbsp. all-purpose

12 Harvest 14 Perish

15 Upper part 16 Great Lake

Arts (ab.)

40 Bone 41 Exclamation 42 Europium

44 Proving tered side

53 Chapeau
55 2000 pounds

56 Stagger 57 Individual

(ab.)

with the writing—we will do be dishes!" So here I am and if can just collect my scattered rits I might be able to say "hullo" nd "how are you?"

20 Encroachment 8 Principles
22 Bachelor of 9 Discover 24 International 10 Charge language 13 By 31 Every 25 Place (ab.) 19 Infant 34 Therefore 26 Paid notice 21 Opposite (ab.) 35 Oppressive poem 32 Upon 33 Lord Lieutenant (ab.) 34 Sketches 37 Claw durnace—I was a little afraid of gas. While down in the cellar I saw a puddle of water which I knew had no business to be there. tain was descending from above (as if it could descend from anywhere else, says you!) the water was running into the cistern, and et, the outlet this time was the cellar. Naturally it was beyond me to deal with the situation so I had have been under similar circum-stances. In a short while he was dressed and outside slithering around in the freezing rain, opening up ditches and disconnecting pipes until at last it was all done and we were able to go to our beds in comfort. But I hate to think what would have been the result if I hadn't noticed that little result is I h all our precious coal would have been under water and chunks of wood and kindling floating around sert course determines the success of the meal. It should create a lingering sense of satisfaction. To do this, the meal must be well-balanced. Never choose the dessert course without casting an eye the courses which have preceded it If the main course has been light then round out the meal with a rich, steamed pudding. The home economists of th Consumer Section, Dominion De partment of Agriculture have a few pointers, which will help you to produce a light, feather-weight steamed pudding-they need never before placing batter in it. Fill the mould 2/3 full. Always cover the top with several thicknesses of cheesecleth or a piece of waxed paper, to prevent the pudding from becoming soggy. If it is necessary to replenish the water, during the steaming period, to sure it is at boiling point, to prevent a fluc-

Southern Molasses Pudding 1 egg
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons melted fat
½ cup light molasses 1 cup sifted pastry flour OR 1 cup less 2 tbsps. sifted allpurpose flour

1/4 teaspoon salt

1 teaspoon baking soda

1/2 cup boiling water Beat egg, add sugar gradually and continue beating until light Sift dry ingredients together and batter will be quite thin. Fill a large, well-greased mould or individual moulds 2/3 full. Cover with wax paper and steam large mould 1 hour, individual moulds for 30 minutes. Six servings.

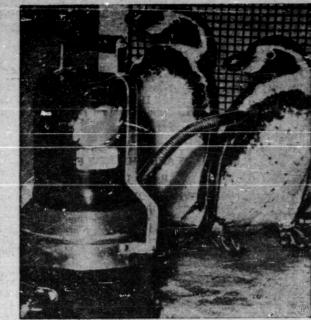

> Great Britain's Oldest Peer Dies Britain's oldest peer, Lord Hay-ter, who was christened in his mother's bedroom because the doc-tor gave him only a few hours to live, has died at Chislehurst, aged 98, The London Daily Mail reports He had been refused a life in-surance policy at the age of 21 be-cause of his delicate health. Even-tually he became a director of the company that refused him.

He was the ninth man in Londen to have a telephone number-

Lord Hayter was the oldest knight bachelor (1875) and the oldest baronet (1900), as well as being the oldest peer. He was, so far a see you again next week I expect in the Kingdom, having been cadet in one of Lord Truro's Lordon regiments at the age of 12.

ALL STEAMED UP

A specially built inhalator which emits medicated steam is saving the lives of the two surviving penguins in the Forest Park Zoo, St. Louis, Mo. They are afflicted with a respiratory disease. Birds sense the relief it gives them, and continually huddle near It, as

Argentine Sends Meat Gift to Britain

Each of Britain's 40,000,000 citizens next month will receive a gift of meat from Argentina valued at five pence (about ten cents).

The ood Ministry announced that in the week beginning Jan. 12 each purchaser will be given a rebate of five pence when he buys his weekly ration of one shilling four pence. President Peron of Argentina an nounced at the signing of the record Anglo-Argentine agreement that his country would send a meat gift to the British people as a gesture of friendship. Prime Minister Attlee responded with a formal expression of thanks.

The Food Ministry announced would not allow the use of the meat as an addition to the ration, and devised the rebate scheme.

PACKED 2 WAYS. Choose Maxwell House in either Super-Vacuum Tin (Drip or Regular Grind) or Glassine-Lined Bag (All Purpose Grind). It's the same superb coffee blend.

THE ROYAL BANK ... TABLE TALKS ... OF CANADA Steamed Puddings

General Statement, 30th November, 1946

ASSETS

otes of and deposits with Bank of Canada	$ 164,618,647.5
ther Cash and Bank Balances	154,072,826.6
otes of and Cheques on other Banks	66,905,144.8
overnment and other Public Securities	1,098,880,239.0
ther Stocks and Bonds	65,269,639.6
all and Short Loans fully secured	59,995,668.7 $1,609,742,166.4
ommercial Loans in Canada	309,803,314.5
oans to Provincial Governments
oans to Cities, Towns, Municipalities and School Districts.	5,199,042.3
ommercial Loans—Foreign	105.064.911.2

10,455,268.21 Bank Premises. Liabilities of Customers under Aoceptances and Letters of Credit.... 84.246.045.11 6,454,714.77 Total Assets.....$2,131,974,316.57

LIABILITIES

Notes in Circulation.
Deposits	1,963,103,951.92
Acceptances and Letters of Credit Outstanding	84,246,045.11
Other Liabilities
Capital	35,000,000.00
Reserve Fund.	40,000,000.00
Dividends due Sharehoiders	754,515.14
Balance of Profit as per Profit and Loss Account	1,467,414.08
Total Liabilities	$2,131,974,316.57

PROFIT AND LOSS ACCOUNT

Profits for the year ended November 30, 1946, before Dominion Government taxes, but after contributions to Staff Pension Fund, and after appropriations to Contingency Reserves, out of which Reserves provision for all bad and doubtful debts has been made.

Less provision for Dominion Government taxes.....$2,055,000.00 $6.906.386.52 $4,020,895.51

Dividends: No. 234 at 8% per annum..... 700,000,00 700,000.00 No. 237 at 8% per annum..... $1,220,895.51

Balance of Profit and Loss Account, November 30, 1945. $6,467,414.08 $1,467,414.08 Balance of Profit and Loss Account, November 30, 1946

SYDNEY G. DOBSON.

JAMES MUIR

2,800,000.00

5.246.518.57

Pop-No Advice Needed

By J. MILLAR WATT

To Meet in Britain 10 minutes after being dissolved in water, New Fast Rising Royal is ready for action. Communist leaders from all parts

New Faster Acting Dry Yeast does away with Overnight Baking and Risks!

NOW I DO ENTIRE

BAKING IN A FEW

HOURS!

SPEEDY, New Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast puts an end to old-fashioned, "slow-poke" baking . . . turns out feather-light, even-textured bread in a few hours!

No more "setting bread" the night before when you're tired ... no more disappointing failurebecausedoughspoiled when the kitchen got too warm or too cold. With New Fast Rising

Royal, you finish whole baking in "hurry up" time ... during the day, when you can watch the dough.

Speed up baking-get New Fast Rising Royal from your grocer today, Stays fullstrength on your pantry shelf

