CONFUSING HOLIDAYS

It is about time something was done about public holidays which do not always fall upon the same day of the week. Nearly every year we have a situation such as that which caused confusion in the observance of Victoria Day, with most of the business places closing on Saturday and some taking the holiday on Monday, which the public is not so familiarly acquainted with.

Pembroke (Ont.) Bulletin

used for hop pasture. The use of a suitable pasture for hops, particularly during the past few years, has materially reduced the total grain production. It is suggested that a publication available at the Ontario Department of Agriculture and representative of your agricultural district be secured for the use of hop growers who need of the above crops may be obtained.
