Supper Par Excellence Served By Ladies Of Knox Church

The Ladies of Knox Presbyterian Church have established quite a reputation for the suppers they serve on special occasions. After the sumptuous repast served on Monday evening that reputation remains firm and unshaken.

It should hardly be a matter of news for anyone to get a good meal in this land of plenty but for the numerous comments heard about the Knox Ladies St. Patrick's supper there can be no question but that it was at least a little out of the ordinary. Ranging from the main course of Prime Roast Beef — and prime it was — to the salads and jellies and desserts everything was just about perfection. One could see that little extra effort that went into the preparation of everything that appeared on the table — effort that comes from pride in the satisfaction of doing something just a little bit better. If the effort is designed to assure the economic success of the undertaking it is a sound business practice but we imagine that is secondary to that other satisfaction a woman gets from watching the opposite sex devour food with an outward expression of deep satisfaction and an inward feeling that this is where woman reigns supreme.

JARVIS WOMENS INSTITUTE REGULAR MEETING

The Jarvis Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Allen Lundy last Wednesday afternoon with a fine attendance of members present. A report was given of box of food sent to British W.I. and how much it was appreciated. Mrs. Guy Leathong reported having spoken to the Council about plans for a new community hall and received a promise to start investigations as to ways and means. Meanwhile this Institute will endeavour to make as much money as possible to help the cause along by starting a Memorial Hall Fund. It was decided to sponsor the dances given by our local orchestra, and cater for the lunches. Mrs. A. Marr gave a splendid talk on the motto "Don't Let Us Talk All Our Lives to Make a Living, But Let Us Work to Live All Our Lives." Mrs. Gowan got many interesting points out of the topic "What Makes a Mother." Mrs. J. Brown spoke on the "Benefits of a Dental Health Clinic" showing that we need not "put up with" our ailments nowadays, but can be so easily cured if we just make the effort. Rev. Stewart East outlined the drive for community Seven Gift Fund, asking for personal and financial assistance from the Institute members. It was voted to donate $50.00 to this cause. Mrs. T. Braund read a most interesting paper on "How The Packing House Serves Humanity" which was most enlightening. Lunch committee for April are Mrs. A. Lundy, Mrs. A. Belbeck, Mrs. H. Belbeck and Mrs. A. Marr.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robinson, and as it is the election of new officers for the coming year, every member is asked to attend.

Three local organizations have beat the opening gun with their contributions to the Seven Gift Fund campaign which opens officially next Monday morning and continues through until Saturday night, April 7th. The Jarvis Women's Institute, The Fireside Club and King Solomon Lodge, A.F. & A.M., Jarvis have each voted $50.00 in the combined Charities Campaign.

Rev. W. H. Fuller is the Campaign Chairman in the organization set up under the general Chairmanship of Rev. S. B. East. Both of these men are working tirelessly to make a complete success of the undertaking.

The campaign slogan, introduced by the General Chairman, is: "An Annual Investment in Human Lives." It is particularly suitable when the purpose for which the money is to be used is considered. The Seven Gift Fund includes seven well known charities as follows: The Canadian Red Cross Society, The Salvation Army, The Canadian National Institute for the Blind, The Haldimand Children's Aid Society, Aid to China Fund, St. John's Ambulance Corps and the Bible Society.

The campaign starting next week will be the only appeal to local citizens during the year. While an exact objective has not yet been set it is understood that the absolute minimum will be $2,000.00. The plan is to allocate the contributions on the basis of previous collections made in the district in the past years to the various charities named above. It will be quite in order and acceptable to the committee however, if any contributor wishes to designate the particular charity he or she wish es to contribute to and the exact amount.

Emphasis is being placed on the fact that this is a combined charity appeal and to make it a complete success each contributor will need to add his contributions to the numerous appeals in past years together and give it all at one time in this campaign.
