THE WEEK AT OTTAWA

toba, the province would have its representation reduced from seven seats to sixteen under the redistribution.

The Nova Scotia report called for establishment of a new riding of the municipality of Queen's and Shelburne. Queen's would be removed from Lunenburg riding and Shelburne from Yarmouth and Clare.

If the British Columbia recommendations are carried through, the province will have two additional seats, both then located in the Vancouver metropolitan area. The report also suggested that a large slice of the riding of Cariboo be attached to Kamloops.

The committee rejected by a vote of thirteen to five of this committee by Col. C. C. Merritt, Y.C. (P.C.-Vancouver Burrard) that the sub-committee be requested to reconsider the Vancouver urban boundaries.

A London newspaper last week quoted members of the Newfoundland delegation now in Britain as saying they were "bitterly disappointed" with their reception in the delegation of the Newfoundland National Convention came to Britain to learn financial implications of various proposed forms of government their island is considering.

Deputy Minister P. J. Cashin was quoted as saying Dominion Secretary Viscount Addison "is playing a clever game with our country, and we are not going to let him get away with it."

Any member of the province who is annoyed or insulted by the manner of his reception as an official delegation.

The newspaper said that London delegates on an unfavorable report the delegation on help from the British government might lead the National Convention to "approach the United States with a view of becoming the 49th state."

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Laird:
I wish to take this opportunity to thank the citizens of Walpole Township for the Elgin wrist watch which I received as a gift in memory of my service. It is a souvenir I shall always treasure. It was not every community in the land that gave gifts to its soldiers. I am proud to be a member of the military service.

I still follow the local news in the "Jarvis Record". It has been in a number of old places since I left the service. I have a 120 acre farm in DeBolt, thirty miles from Grand Prairie, in north west Alberta. It is in the north land rich clover belt. I am trying to grow alfalfa. This past winter I have been working at Fort St. John and Hudson's Hope in British Columbia. The lumber mills are busy these days.

Well, this is all for now, thanks again for the gift.
Yours sincerely,
R. MALCOLM MILLER

EDITOR INNOCENT

The editor happened to walk into a city hotel on his recent visit and found himself in the presence of a "trap" game. Just then two members of the police appeared, calling down everyone in sight, including our innocent by-stander, who was not even paying much attention to the "bones" artist. However, they immediately left our chief on learning who he was.
