Mrs. JESSIE MAUDSLEY OF LONDON, ONTARIO saves life of 7-year-old boy

The two young boys had been wading in the shallow water of the Thames River at Cherry Avenue in London, Ontario, when the current caught them by surprise and carried them into mid-stream.

WOMAN HEARS CRIES

Hearing the cries of onlookers, Mrs. Maudsley, mother of two children, ran from her house to the river, where the boy had been swept almost 100 yards by the current.

THE DOW AWARD is a citation for outstanding heroism and valor, as a tangible expression of appreciation, a St. John's Review Award.

After an exhaustive swim through the swift current of the Thames River, the brave woman managed to get the youngster safely to shore.

SHORT STORY

Meddling Stranger

By Annie Wilson

The broken-down bus was no longer in sight when Hollis Chandler looked back from the top of the hill. This was the second hill he had climbed since he left the other passengers down there.

Australia Imports Canadian Herefords

Malcolm McGregor of Brandon, Manitoba, has gained an enviable reputation as a breeder of fine Herefords. His herd Topper, Dynamo Rupert, is proving a sire of unusual merit.

Two small boys had taken the clock early, "What made it tick?" After examining each part very carefully, they put the clock together again.
