The Quality Tea ORANGE PEKOE

Valdez shook his head. "Sorry," he said. "But I've got something Creek, and I'm late now in getting and if I do, I'll be riding with you Haskell watched Valdez with-Valdez mused. "As for myself-I'll hear from Juanita. Then my chips will go in with the truth. Whatever allero Rojo's own tragedy.

(To be Continued)

and You Alex S. Arnott

The character and personal quali ties of the world's people may be compared with the likeness of the earth's surface with its high mountain tops, low depressions, and level plateaux. Just as there are high mountains, so there are great mer and women whose intelligence and strength of character rise above that of their fellow men, with the great mass of the earth's people being average like the level of a plateau. Just as we have great heights of human intelligence, so we have the opposite forms of lower mentality with its strife, insincerity, deceit and cunning. In my ple opportunity to see the mental heights to which the average person can rise. Even an average per-son can rise above the petty things of life and become great mentally and intellectually for each of us has talent in one way or another and, if we are consistent and ambia tious in the use of our talents, we can make remarkable changes for the good of all as well as for per sonal happiness. With so many at tractions of pleasure and relaxa tion, the average people are likely to let others supply the talent while they are content to remain on the average level of endeavor. The there. Maybe I'll be back this way, Chapter XXVII: A warning is soued to the cattlemen to stop the dundering in the valley. Michael Valdez, riding towards Gold Creek, sees a figure in the distance agains the skyline, dressed like himself, red hair and all.

Chapter XXVIII His grin faded, though, and his Hps tightened grimly.

"Now," he thought, "the terrible stories will start of what El Cabal-seen the very person that Valdez "Well"-the old cattleman looked lero Rojo has done in Deep Water over at Luke Wallace-"let's ride." Valdez nudged the blue roan for As Michael rode away from them the knoll where he had last seen the slowly, his mind was busy. That rider, determined, after all, to trail other Caballero Rojo-he must be the impostor. But in that instant, pretty reckless and impulsive. Or far to the north, atop a sharp, else that old cattleman was a liar. crowned hill, he saw another rider-Still no man could buck a crowd unmistakably Juanita. The girl's of ranchmen like that and be brandwig-wagged speech was plain. Briefed coward. ly it said that she had seen some-"My twin certainly seems to bething that needed tracking downlieve that the cattlemen are respon-sible for what happened last night,"

"Twin?" signaled Valdez, to satlefy himself.

himself had just seen.

'Si!" came the reply, and Juan ita promptly dropped out of sight. Then Michael Valdez heard the He pushed on, grim of face and thunder of hoofs on his right. The determined to get to the bottom of things, for he knew that he had to swift thought caught at his mind a posse was galloping in pursuit bring justice to the man or men. of the false Caballero A score of horsemen poured into responsible for that hideous crucifixion. He solemnly swore to un-Haskell was in the lead on a mount mask that man, no matter at what white as a fresh snowdrift. Hasrisks or dangers. For the urge for kell's eyes narrowed when he saw Valdez in the trail-a stranger to like a hot iron. him-so still and placidly smoking The rancher pulled up. The white reared and Haskell closed in on back of the trouble here, he would Over Haskell's shoulder went s command to some of the others to keep on in the direction the fleeing white horse in a complete circle around Valdez, scrutinizing every inch of man and horse "A gent in some circus clothes ride by this way, stranger?" he Valdez' face was friendly. He looked toward the south - away actually taken-and nodded. "Yeah," he said quietly. "I saw something kind of shiny streakin' south. Far off, Glad to know it was a rider. Kind of had me puzzled for a minute. I was thinking it was some animal that had got away from somebody maybe." . . . Haskell spun around to the remnants of his followers.

"Some of you men head south," he ordered. "That blasted El Caballero Rojo is not far off!" The black-haired vaquero whistled. "El Caballero Rojo, did you say?" he asked in astonishment, his eyes wide.

"Yep," snapped the cattleman. "And as slick and fast as he's always been said to be."

"Plaguing you gents, is he?" "Not yet. But he's all set tounless he gets told a few things about what's what. Thing is, there had been some dirty work down in Deep Water Valley nearby. This redhead jumps at the conclusion that we cattlemen are responsible for it. We're holding a meeting to try to sort of figure out how we and he busts in on it and shouts world's people, as we find them through handwriting analysis, need more ambition, sincerity, hopeful-ness and charity, with less spite, We've got plenty of trouble without him messing in, so we aim to get that El Caballero Rojo before he does damage to the wrong parties." Valdez' smile was wan. "From

This . cek's example of writing ventured to put in, "he don't put is part of a letter received from a reader whose sincerity of purpose, ambition, hopefulness and charity is clearly filustrated in every line of her writing. The clean cut script his boot down until he's sure there is a snake underfoot."

ANNE HIRST

Sons and Husbands

Need a Loose Rein WHAT did you mean, Anne Hirst mite a while since I tackled this come for another try at it. spoiled, and his later life compli that he never developed any manly as Mamma's Boy. His mother * dominated all his thinking, even * after he wore long trousers. He · He came so to depend upon her trait of his own. He leaned on her for his first 20 years-and after that he lost all desire or reason to * become a man. time then," snapped the cattleman, A MOTHER'S JOB "And-" His lips tightened again. Every mother wants to be proud f her son from the day he is born. "Well, we got to push on, stranger.

f she is wise, she makes him stand the word. He is taught the differ ence between right and wrong. He is made to understand the rudiments o good sportsmanship. He learns good manners and social graces. He is guided tactfully in his choice of up with the right instincts and im-Often it is in his adolescent years temptation to keep her finger on his emotional pulse. She will not wel-come one girl friend he likes because the airl's family comes from the She objects to a school pal because she doesn't like his mother. She dictates her son's comings-and-goings as though he were still 10 years old. She gives him no freedom of thought or action, she refuses to let him make his own mistakes and learn from them. And all this she does "because she loves him so!"

Most of her persistence is based on her fear of losing him. She cannot bear to think he does not need her every moment of his waking hours. She approves, glowingly, of every-thing he does, and defends him fiercely against justified criticism. He is her favorite of all the children; his sisters are practically slaves to his whims-and as for his father, that man has long ago given up "interfering." What if some nice girl is foolish justice burned in Michael Valdez enough to marry this paragon? His mother is right there, criticising, making the girl over, belittling her What was more, his instinct told at her son's expense. And moving in with them if she dares. him that when he found the man These are the mistakes mothers make with their sons. In also be facing the man he himself had looked for so long-the man who had been "big boss" to Garvin and Conroy, the man who at heart they deprive them of the very good things they desire for the boys. And had been responsible for El Cabfinally break their maternal hearts Your Handwriting hands off. If you are having trouble, ask Anne Hirst about it. Address her at Box A, Room 421, 73 Adelaide Street West, Toronto.

Sooner Than Later What is a budget? Well, it is a method of worrying before you spend, instead of after with every loop and line easily visible tells me of the writer's desire to be frank with all her associates and ambitious in all that she does. Such fine lines in the writing are indicative of spiritual wealth with contentment and peace of mind that comes from a nature which enjoys and appreciates the simple things that bring personal happiness. The wide spaces between the connecting strokes of each letter are excellent examples of a gener? ous and unselfish nature. The height of all loop letters above the writing line are very high and, like the writer's mind, endeavor to reach above the lower levels to achieve great attainments. The script is neat and orderly, of good form and consistency, to indicate the habits of the writer.

This writing has all the traits of character that rises to the moun tainous heights, above the average levels of human endeavor.

more complete

Our readers may receive an in-Our readers may receive an interesting and instructive personal analysis of their handwriting by sending an example of writing with 25 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Box B, room 421, 73 Adelaide St. West, Toronto.

Sunday School Lesson

By Rev. R. Barclay Warren

The Fellowship of Christian Believers

Acts 2:37-47; Ephesians 4:1-6 Golden Text - There is one body and one Spiri even as ye are called one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

The day of Pentecost is one of the memorable days in world History. After the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, Peter who had denied his Lord on the night of the betrayal, became the foremost preacher of the occasion. The city which had witnessed the crucifiction of Jesus a few weeks before heard the charge from Peter, "Him-ye have taken, and by vicked hands have crucified both Lord and Christ". Those who Feard were pricked to the heart and exclaimed, "Men and brethren what shall we do?" The answer came, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the prom ise is unto you and to your children and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." About three thousand heeded the call that day.

There was an intense fellowship among these believers. "All that believed were together, and had all things common." This was not fiscation of wealth. But there was accepted) for this pattern, to Room possessions and party to all men, as every man had need. This action

New angle to flatter your figure and ego! Such devastating use of stripes and buttons-such easy sewing and ironing. Pattern 4689 is equally effective in a plain fabric!

Pattern 4689 comes in Jr. Miss

Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

(25c) in coins (stamps cannot be

421. 73 Adelaide St. West Toronto

Print plainly SIZE, NAME AD-

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. When a hostess gives a dinner party in a restaurant, is it all right for guests to add to her tip upon leaving the table?

A. This would be extremely be-littling to the hostess and give the impression that her guests con-

Q. Is it all right for a business when he vrites his social letters at

A. No; he should keep a box of

Q. What is the correct way to eat

A. A small silv r knife should be provided, the peach cut into quart-

Q. The only piece of jewelry I have is my platinum, diamond-set me to discard this, inasmuch as I this. It is the one kind of ring that you can wear without question.

O. What apology should a person against another person on the street

A. "I am sorry" is sufficient.

offer if he accidentally brushes have just been divorced?

ers, and conveyed to the mouth with desk for this purpose.

peach at the table?

espondence stationery in his

DRESS, STYLE NUMBER

s 11, 13, 15, 17. Size 13 takes made for a close spirit of unity which persisted when persecution came and they were scattered abroad.

Despite the many denominati today, the church, the true body of Christian believers is one. This is beautifully set ' rth in the golden text. We make too much out of our differences and fail to emphasia our oneness. When the church was making its greatest impression upon were characterized by the unity of the Spirit. If the Holy Spirit could have the same place in the church today, spiritual oneness, and great ictories in the saving of soult would again be the order of the day. Our need is not more may chinery and organization but the Holy Spirit. The need is impera-

The St. Regis Hotel

mission in the world.

Every Room With Tub Bath. Shower and Telephone Single, $3.50 and up— Double, $4.50 up Good Food. Dining and Do

ROOMS BEAUTIFULLY FURNISHED $1.50 u

What's come over me-these days? physically and mentally-with Often a woman becomes panicky and gives way to fears and nerves wholesome food and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help to build up your vitality and tone up the whole system—so that nerves and hysteria are forgotten. Yes, are taking place in her system.

And the unfortunate part is that these dark dreads and fears may cause a nervous breakdown . . .

Godlessly!*

So remember, at the first sign of the fidgets, hysteria or nervous doubts—start building yourself up with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
Von'll rest better, look better, can keep serene and happy right Plenty of sleep, fresh air, You'll rest better, toon wholesome food and Dr. Chase's feel better. Keep yourself in good condition with this time-proven which has helped thouself.

Dr. Chase's NERVE FOOD FOR NEW PEP and ENERGY

TEEN-TOWN TOPICS

This week we are touching a match | it us, he is talking about? All we for this week is, "Do We Need delve into per-

We shudder at the thoughts of what this country would be like if all our Sunday Schools were suddenly closed. No doubt in a short time the police forces would have to be problems, faiths doubled and then trebled. Why? Because that is the only place where a a matter of fact, taught anything about what is righ and what is wrong, and it would open your eyes very wide it you actu-ally knew how many children really The subject of religion and faiths can often arouse the deepest angers. don't know the difference letween right and wrong. Parents who don't

We think this may be due to the fact that a lot of people have a far deeper feeling for the church than them themselves are a menace to society. And we have that kind It must make a lot of people smile here too. A lot of people around here at times, the way many people who aren't going to like me very much for this, and I don't care one little ever darken a church door run for minister if some member of the passes on, if they are planning wedding or going to baptize a baby. have that kind in our town. mow of one case where a daughter ried here last summer, and haven't been near the church nt brother, you should have way you look and no sign of a thaw eem a little nearer if we talk about secleaning — or maybe I should re-decorating—is so definitely on nind that I find it hard to con-on anything else. After all, tain job done it can't be for-

The job that I refer to ng-room-(we stripped the air, because nothing would ak across the floor was the Lift a chair and a chunk of ame away with it. My hope Move a chair and an f last week-remember?)- tten as if it were a matter of no and more especially am I thinking of Oh that floor! It had been painted, varnished and enamelled time and again—in our day and before it. It has been at once my hope and my des was that some happy day we could et a sanding machine, take off all old paint and get down to the ural wood. But we knew it would e tackled it ourselves it might not be a success. While we were still indecided two young fellows started up in business doing just that very work, so we made the plunge. Last Monday the men arrived with all hey were here almost a day and a

But the floor is a great ofty white pine", and comes wanted. After sanding, the uite light in colour, which is then the floor was done I went to work at painting-and now that, too, is almost finished - my kind riend whom I mentioned last week ame down and helped me again.

Next week there will be the papering to do, and that I intend to do myself.

It would be nice to turn the whole

U. S. Legislator.

1 Pictured U. S. 1 Chinese idol representative 2 Exchange

3 Out of (prefix)

5 Noxious plant 23 Motion

4 Exclamation

(pl.)

7 Pull

10 Bone

e 8 Is seated

6 River in

HORIZONTAL

from New York, -

13 Giant king of Bashan

15 East Indies

16 Be seated

14 Fruits

their equipment, and the fun began.

half and I think they just about sufthen crack filler and finally clear le quite a job and we were afraid if think it will make Spring ning? I hope so because

With snow inches deep whichever | job over to the decorators but un

On the theme of "Do We Need Religion", we feel there is no other answer but yes. If not, why do we did thousands go almost beser! when a little runt of a man was assassinated? Because religion burns deep all over the world. It takes many twists, turns and differences but it's ther fortunately that is more than we ca to think about we have to draw th a first class job but at least the room will be fresh, clean and bright--and after a lapse of ten years without any attention at all we can hardly be accused of extravagance.

Painting being a nice quiet job we vere able, by means of the radio, to keep abreast of the news without at Barbara Ann's success in the Olympics, especially since so many obstacles had threatened to spoi say Barbara Ann Scott, or Miss Scot her. To me she is Barbara Ann-ovable, natural nineteen year old laughter-and of whom any mother might be pround, quite apart from her skill as a skater. Her vivacious charm and complete naturalness, un-spoiled by success has surely won all hearts right across the Dominion

Also via the radio, came news tumbling prices across the Border with no one apparently being quite sure whether it was good news or bad. But the average housewife will good news. Not that we are likely away, but at any rate the tendence ally reach that long looked for goal

-a buyer's market. Last Thursday

I was down town buying an alarn clock in a store that is part jeweller's, part beauty parlour. But all wa quiet in the beauty parlour-no hum ming of hair driers, no chattering of women's voices. I said to the proged her shoulders-"Business is awfully slow-they say it's the same

I was impressed. It was the fire

45 Small receptacle 46 Halt 47 Hood time I had noticed any visible evidence that anyone was running short of funds.

everywhere!"

ess-"How come?" She shrug girl who could be any mother's afford. With drapes and slip-covers of their children to send them to of life, or who won't bother to teach surch to be taught the better way just the same. Gandhi was probably the most saintly man we have had in our time. The faith that millions had in him was exemplified in the power he held over an erratic mass of ignorant people. It's very unlikely that we will ever see again a man with such power of emotion and goodness especially over so many people.

People, young and old, who do not attend church often look down upon those who down those who are the second to the totin so and sos' etc. They criticize those who go and often try to make them appear like hypocrites. This is definitely the wrong attitude to take.

Young people today must think of the church, and try to help it along.
It's true that the church needs all the support is care. the support it can get. The church needs us, but not nearly as much as we need the church. Remember that care enough about the future welfare

Many people who do not go to thurch will argue that they are good, if not better than a lot of those who who go. This is a very silly and childish argument. Whether you are better than those who do go, has nothing at all to do wih it. to church is for your own good and yours only. Yes, gang, we do need religion. We need it more today than we ever needed it. Go to church every Sun-day. Not because your neighbor does, but because you want to, because you feel the need of the uplift it gives you. And remember if He needed it, we all need it. Religion is a part of our every day life and if we practice good christianship and keep the church close to us we will be a lot better for it. CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARMS

A Dessert For Ten

-By Frances Lee Barton OULD you like to know about a dessert that serves 8 to 1e people, looks very luxurious, and can be made up the day before and stored in the refrigerator? Butterscotch Party Loaf is your answer. It's a luscious blend 2 packages prepared butterscotch pudding; 2% cups milk; 1 cup cream, whipped; % cup broken pecan meats; 8 to 10 slices cake. Fold in cream and nuts.

Fold in cream and nuts.

Line sides of 8x4x3-inch loaf pan with waxed paper. Trim slices of cake and cut in half diagonally. Arrange cake triangles against sides and ends of pan, reserving 2 pieces. Turn pudding mixture into mold and top with remaining cake. Chill overnight in refrigerator. Unmold. Garnish with maraschino cherries and pecan halves. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

pecans, combin-ed with slices of plain cake and chilled to perfection. For a large party it's ideal — or for a home dinner it's simple control a Butterscotch Party Loaf Place pudding powder in sauce-pan. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil and is thickened. Cool.

netized metal airplane propeller, re-

Short Jacket Suit Redingote, Bolero, Choice for Summer coat or a complete printed dress peeping from the folds of its fullskirted coat appears headed for a summer of new popularity. One variation on the theme for the sum mer costume consists of a blue an white silk print dress, a separat open front skirt and bolero in shee there's a fitted black redingote with extended hipline and a white eyelet cotton petticoa' t match a neckline popular. There are snug-fitting boleros a 1 a Victorian bolero with There are snug-fitting a full flared back and ball fringe trimmings. Slim skirted suits fr quently are topped with straight hanging waist-length jackets. A jacket dubbed "Prince Consort' open in a V-shape to its belted

Evening dresses, most of then ankle length, feature a new "pull down" neckline, which can be worn nodestly around the collarbone o dark green and navy blue in this tailored suit c ess from Lawrence Sperber. The pocket hipline is ever so slig..tly padded above straight, slim skirt.

The bolero and the blouse share portance in a goodly number of new spring suits.

FREE YOUR GROCER IS

MR. STOREKEEPER—This generous FREE offer will bring many customers to your store asking for LIPTON'S Tea. If—by some mischance you have not received details of this amazing FREE offer, wire collect to Thomas J. Lipton, Limited, TORONTO.

LITTLE REGGIE By Margarita NOW DON'T FORGET OH YES MAAM - WE OFTEN YOUR MANNERS ARE YOU QUITE SURE PARTY

11 Golf mo ds 31 Toddler 12 Lofty 37 Sage 17 Mountain 39 Pilaster 19 Prohibits 43 Verbal 21 Reparation

28 Stir 30 Make a

29 Attack 32 Paid notice 33 Sun god 34 Anent 35 Artificial