

get that red-headed Mex outlaw than I am to farming."

Without a word Chet Maxon picked up the reins. The wagon creaked on. Even before it turned the bend and stopped near the ghastly cross, the silence of fear and disillusion dropped like a clammy blanket over the plodding

On Chet Maxon's side of the trail stood the ghastly cross. On his sister's side, far below, glowed the which now was dying down. It was as if some mocking son of Satan had prepared the welcoming

Only an hour before, young Burr

"One thing we ain't figured, son,"

"The fellers who are raising all the ructions in this here valley and the old man told Straw ominously ember of the fire they had seen, but

Chapter XXI: El Caballero Rojo rides to meet the settlers. He advised them to return home. Clark Weber-one of the three in the wagon-who has heard of the reward on Valdez' head, attempts to capture him.

Chapter XXII If Michael Valdez noticed the sneer of Clark Weber's face, he gave no sign. Nor did his maner change when he noticed Weber's hand sliding beneath the seat blanket, his body inching forward as if he sought to look around the girl beside him, and yet see behind her. Tense siles e reigned for half a minute. Then Weber spoke de-"Why do you try to frighten us? What does it mean to you whether we go or stay?"

"Frighten you?" Valdez's tone was mild. "If good advice scares you, then Madre de Dios help the hree of you-when you're settled down there." He nodded toward the valley below, lit up by leaping scarlet flames. . . .

"You'll never nail one of us to Don Attero's Cross!" Weber challenged sharply. "You'll never set any of our buildings afire! Because you've seen your own last Few men could have snatched out and leveled a six-gun as fast as Clark Weber did while he pronounced that sentence of death. But even faster, Valdez's gaudily gloved hand flashed out from where it had dangled near his holster. Gun metal caught the moon's silvered rays. Flame leaped forth. Lead crunched into Clark Weber's gun. He cried out

"If you ry that again, hombre, do it faster-and not when you are looking str ight at me." The girl recovered her power of speech, looking at El Caballero as she asked a question. "You're sure that--"

"I've told you what I know," the strange apparition said. Valdez backed El Cielo into the shadow of a rock and horse and rider disappeared. There was no sound, for he had gone as silently

For long awed moments the trie on the wagon scat did not move.

Then suddenly, with a harsh ejaculation, Clark Weber jumped to the ground and retrieved the gun that had been shot from his hand. The hand itself, he saw, had been shock of the bullet had done what El Caballero Rojo had intend it to "Curse him." Weber growled. "He might not be as generous Maxon finished for him. "He was only trying help us. Why did our land"

you draw that gun on him?" "Because he's worth money . plenty of it - dead or alive," Weber growled surlily, angered even at the girl he profess d to love. "I'd heard enough about him - and now that I know he is in these parts, I see how we're going to make it quick, paying the balance due Bartle on a prodigal hand. "With this man's body?" Chet Maxon demanded savagely. "You won't pay anything I owe — or Ellen owes — with blood money. You mean you'd really stoop that low, Clark — after he went out of his clark — after he went out of his Clark — after he went out of his as he spun on his heels, snatching way to warn us to expect trouble?" "Warned like fun!" flared Weber. "That you. Sam?" he called hope tully.

When there was no answer and he still heard approaching footsteps,

"That you. Sam?" he called hope tully.

When there was no answer and he still heard approaching footsteps,

(To be Continued) "It wouldn't surprise me to know

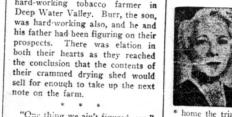

Record-Breaking Baby is 1,000th to be born this year in St. Joseph's Hospital, Chatham. The little girl shown here with her mother, Mrs. Frank Phelan of Stanley St., Blenheim, arrived Christmas Eve and was walked up and down the ward

ANNE HIRST Your Family Counselor

Sister's Children Invade Girl's Home

Aldman, nicknamed "Straw" because of his red gold hair and freckled face, had been sitting across the table from his father, a A YOUNG GIRL is about to declare * war on her married sisters. They, with their children, invade her hard-working tobacco farmer in private life in from her letter:

"Suppose you married sisters. each of whom * Suppose their children, parapherburned Mike Chapman's drying shed. They killed Steve Ransom, too. We ain't taking no chances too. We ain't taking no chances with them coming after us, so tomorrow morning we start baling and hauling that tobacco out of ther. She's always home, and you don't have to pay her!" But that had been an hour ago.

Now young Burr Aldman was kneeling so close to the smoking ruins of the shed that he could feel the sheet and the sheet and the sheet and town the sheet and the sheet an

* track conversation?

* ful if it kills them?

* "Suppose your parents were * weary unto death of this, but

* believe it their duty to be help-

* "And worse, suppose your * heart is broken to see your

* home's furnishings abused just

* (My sisters have beautiful homes of their own.)

"Suppose they never consider

* knocking when they drop in any hour of the day or night, or whether it is convenient for you to receive them? (We, however, must observe all proprieties

* when visiting them.) Suppose

* they all, including the small fry,

* feel that they have a real share

* in this home, without owing it

* "And suppose your point blank request that they stay * away occasionally meets with visits of redoubled length and

"Talking is not going to change them. We can't pull up stakes and leave. I suppose we must wait till the children grow up before we can have peace.

And by then I'll be middle aged

* and these children will be bringing home the next generation to set fire to the drying shed. He had managed to get one glimpse of that

* a particle of respect?

* clamor?

* because they are unpreten and - and Ransom they wanted riddance of. Them beefmen ain't trons' society with their onestopping at - at anything till they've run out - every tobacco man in the valley." Straw Aldman was twenty-one.

note on the farm.

Or he had been up to minutes before. He was like a man of forty or more now, as bitter as gall, with but one purpose in life — to find the man who ha' tossed that torch into the drying shed; the man who had fired point-blank at his unarmed father who had tried to stop the arson

. . . "Yes, Dad," he wheezed out. "Peefmen. Curse 'em! I'll pay every one of them b ck, coin for coin, till either lead or rope stop

"No, son," the farmer's weak voice protested. "That's not the way. The thin; for you to do is to get out of this hole of the devil. See — Russ Bartle. He'll help you find somebody to buy the farm, He's a good man, son. He'll help you. But get out of this Deep Water Valley. Start as soon as your beather. ley. Start as soon as your brother Sam gets back home. You and Sam pull out of here tonight. Promise me that, Burr."
"All right, Dad," the young man said reluctantly. "I - I hate like all thunder to make a promise like that, He stopped short, staring at his father. For the next moment old Aldman died, stretched on the soil that nature had touched with such again his six-gun was flung upward.

His finger danced on the trigger.
"Keep coming!" he commanded.
A slight figure in ragged overalls came to the dying glow of the ruins.
Straw Aldman glowered, then slightly relaxed. This was not the killer of his father, the men who had set fire to the drying shed. He had set fire to the drying shed. out the six grin that was tucked be-neath his belt. But as swiftly he man, a distant glimpse, as he had rushed from the house at the sound * plow roughshod through our "I don't dislike children. If I own. All I ask is the chance to * be free to enjoy my own home. · Only God can help us through * this, I know; but a few ideas such a way that she cannot enshe cannot enshe cannot enshe cannot enshe cannot ensanity, but a rew ideas from an outsider might save my sanity—I might use this to write joy her own home. I quote Please answer soon." "TO GRIN AND BEAR IT."

Does your mother know how bitterly you feel about this monopoly of your home? This is for her to handle, she should not oblige your sisters on nights when the should not oblige your sisters on nights when the should have been supported.

brings back ters on nights when you have a date * home the trials, worries and cares at home. Also, they should not leave the children's toys, etc., overnight. * Suppose their children, parapher nalia, et al, visit your home 365 days a year as surely as the sun rises? Suppose their code of think-* rises? Suppose their code of thinking to be: 'Want to take a job?'

ing to be: 'Want to take a job?'

ing to be: 'Want to take a job?'

it should be protected. Stop worrying, though, about how your dates regard this disorder. They're not so squeamish as you are.

Hurry up and pick your own young man and have your own home! Then you can park your babies with your mother, too. Every girl needs some privacy in in pain as his weapon slid from limp fingers.

Valdez 'tolstered his smoking Colt. His eyes above the neckerthief and his voice were still mild when he said:

The heat from the ashes. And stretched before him on the ground was his father — his life's blood draining from a stomach wound.

"I told you, son," old Aldman gasped. "It wasn't only Chapman and — and Ransom they wanted when he said:

Toronto.

Dlankets, booties and toys? Suppose you hesitate to bring your young man home because it's too much like taking him into a day nursery or sea.

Dlankets, booties and toys? Suppose you heme and every mother should try to arrange that she gets if. Anne Hirst can help mother and daughter. Write her at Box A, Room 421, 73 Adelaide St., West.

Toronto. him into a day nursery, or pro-

Sunday School Lesson

Golden Text-But without faith h that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him .-

A youth leader said, "If you want to keep young, stay around young people; if you want to get old, try and keep up with them." How truly he spoke! But Isaiah summons us to a source of strength greater than the springs of youth. "Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall atterly fall; but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their trength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary, and they shall walk and not faint." Not only is the Eternal God, the Creator of the earth, a Being of unlimited strength but He is able to give of His strength to those who call upon lim. There are times when we need to soar as with eagles' wings above the confusion and din of a sin-torn weary world. But it is equally important to be able to walk and not faint. The mother of the little children often feels the need of moral strength and courage to carry on the humdrum duties of veryday life. She doesn't ask for eagles' wings to get above them but for strength to walk and not Isaiah also says of God "There is searching of His understanding." He who can trust the infinite wisdom of God in the hour of stark tragedy has a strong consolation.

Many who think well of Jesus Christ regard God the Father as a stern, austere Being who is not nearly as sympathetic with humanis His Son. This is a false notion Jesus said, "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father." His words and works are of the Father who dwelleth in Him. Would you know

How Can 1? By Anne Ashley Q. How can I clean windows and glass easily, and also give the glass a nice polish? A. By using a lintless cloth dipped in a solution of two table-spoonfuls of household ammonia to two quarts of water How can I give an added gloss to the linen? A. A gloss can be produced by making the hot starch with soapy water. This also prevents the iron from sticking to the goods. O. How can I improve the flavor and the texture of fudge A. Both the flavor and texture will be improved if a small spoonful of cornstarch is added. Q. How can I distinguish fresh A. By looking at the gills and the eyes. The gills of fresh fish are at its fast rising action-delighted at the delectable flavor, finer texture it gives to breads. Order a month's supply of New Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast today. At your grocer's

What We Know About God | what God the Father is like h read the life of Jesus Isaiah 40: 28-31; John 14: 8-14. acquainted with Him as your sonal Saviour and you will be it is impossible to please him. For the Father. The lesson closes with a de lenge. There is a great work he us to do. It is to tell the mid about Him. Jesus regards this in a sense greater than the min which He, up to that time, is wrought. There is also the de lenge to pray. Dare we access "If ye shall ask anything in Name, I will do it." God lie rewards those who in faith gently seek Him. New Old Joke

Question: "Who was th saw you with the other nie that sidewalk cafe?" Answer: "That was n cafe-that was our ful living there."

BEGINNING 10 NEXT WEEK Bees Help Increase Clover Seed Yield

WATCH FOR OUR

BOOKLET FEATURE

ents have been under ken at the Dominion Experimenttion, Prince George, B.C., to ermine the value and the need bees in the seed production of like clover. It was found that where honey bees were present the rield of alsike seed was twenty The result shows the value of honey bees in the seed production of this crop, and indicates that beekeeping could well be adopted in conjuncagainst the time when native pollinating insects may be reduced to

Red Marshal

VERTICAL

1 Type style

4 His name is

6 Hops' kiln
7 New Mexico
(ab.)
8 Recede
9 Stringed musical instruments

5 Outfit

24 Writing fluid instruments geological time 26 Speed contest 12 Weep 30 Also 28 On the ocean 13 Exist 36 One or th
31 Hawaiian 16 Electrical other Islands (ab.) engineer (ab.) 38 Antenna 22 Exclamation 18 All right (ab.) 40 From 33 Either
34 Upon 12 3 4 5

often in the

20 Overtime

(ab.)

27 Assist 29 Division of 17 19 20 21

22 23 24 25 28 29 30 33 33 34 35 35 36 37 38 41 37 38 32 39 40

42 43 94 45 946 947 48 49 50 51 52 53 954

51 56 51 58

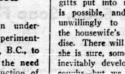

Division of geological time

23 Approaches sound
25 Ahead of time 43 Viper
26 Greek letter 45 Double 27 Assist

HORIZONTAL
1,5 Pictured marshal of the First Ukrainian

VERTICA
1 Type styl
2 Advance guard
3 Near

Ukrainian
Army
10 Condition
11 Poetry term
13 Vegetable
14 Senses
13 Drill
17 Long fish
18 Bone
19 Toward 21 Lixivium
22 Writing fluid
24 Beverage

sphere." . . . Rushing around comes natural to ing. She is tearing around the room like a wild thing—now here, now Answer to Previous Pussle there, in and out around the furniture ROBERTOBLOOD
CARESMOLMGARED
ABLEMMORASSESRO
OLMAR PULL FEAD
OLMAR ROBERT REARS
NET O. GOT
CHASE 8.000 ENEMY
RAMSER
USESSUDDEN MORAS
TEAD ROBERT FEAD
HERONISA MISTORAGE
NEWHAMPSHIRE

41 Beside 42 Laughter

53 Owns 54 Sesame 56 Rhode Island

(ab.) 58 Sun god

CHRONICLES OF GINGER FARM

test part of going away is the coming home? In just that same way don't you think the best part of Christmas and New Year's is the well-it's-allover feeling that you get in January? So many weeks we have ridden the crest of a wave-a wave of preparing, of giving and receiving, of go-ing and coming; of over-indulgence in Christmas fare—that to find our selves once more in calm waters, as it were, is sometiming we can really ap-reciate—in fact we remember with relief that it is new eleven months until Christmas!

And after the Christmas tree is Happy Christmas in a New Land—A family of nine who fled Poland and wandered 1,200 miles by horses and wagon to escape the Poland and wandered 1,200 ed), mother of the Oswald men. Mr. and Mrs. John Oswald, with whom their refugee kin are now living, are in the back row in front of the tree.

horses and wagon to escape the Russ ians are spending a happy holiday with Mr. John Oswald at R.R. 2, Petersburg, five miles southwest of Kitchener. They are Mr. Ferdinand Oswald (back row, left), their six children and Mrs. Marie Oswald (seat-

same situation is reaching alarming proportions in the present acute housing shortage. It exists in the country as well as in urban districts. Married couples live with their parents, grandchildren come along, and it is still "Mother" who bears the brunt of the load. In some cases the young married bread-winner has a job away from home. And then who divested of its triminings and come to its ingiories; erd of providing a little extra kindling wood, and the Christmas cards are looked over and read over again, and then stored young married bread-winner has a job away from home. And then who is it that gets his breakfast, asd endures his early morning grouchiness?
You know as well as I do, don't you? Mother has always looked after her children so she goes right away-because we don't know what else to do with them-the Christmas gifts put into regular use, if that is possible, and children returning unwillingly to school—then begins on with the job, irrespective of wives, husbands and grandchildren. And the children, in the great major-ity of cases, unthinkingly allow her the housewife's brief spell of Paradise. There will be other busy times, she is sure, some of the family will inevitably develop winter colds and to do it. coughs but we hope nothing worse coughs—but we hope nothing worse
—but right now is the after season hull, and we have time to enjoy the monotony of ordinary everyday work.

Honestly, I just about see red when I notice the weariness of so many not-so-young women these days, and I know it is because they monotony of ordinary everyday work.

* * *

The present in large numbers the seed yield of alsike was four times as high as here only the honey bees were evailable for pollination.

The result shows the value of honey bees were evailable for pollination.

The result shows the value of honey bees were evailable for pollination.

The result shows the value of honey bees were evailable for pollination.

The result shows the value of honey bees were evailed to get along with as I make her and the rain. Those things happened and we have pictures here to prove it. As a matter of fact, the taxi diver who brought us home always greets us with—"well, it looks like a nice day for a hike, I think it's going to a him. Surely it should be possible for voung and old to realise some of the voung some these and the rain. Those things happened and the rain. Those thi I know you are busy-so am I young and old to realise some of the difficulties peculiar to each and thus come to a fairer family agreement for that matter-but you know it is quite possible to rest as we work.
"Rest is not quitting the busy career, rest is the fitting of self to one's regarding work and responsibility. Our little Whisky is, at present, quite a distraction to serious think-

BOBBY SOX By Marty Links

POP-Stung!

POSSESSION IS

and then back to her newest "teaser"

TEEN-TOWN TOPICS

By BARRY MURKAR figment of the those Susie erialize? The an-

is YES. The only when we were up north on holidays

There are many incidents that happen in the life of your reporter and Susie that never appear in print. The reason being: that few people would believe them. For example we went over to Susie's house the night after she had the Christmas tree up and decorated. Trying to help, we got down under the tree to plug in the lights. In so doing, we pulled the tree over with a thundering crash! Susie came running to find your truly buried under green branches with his you know what protruding with icicles and snow decorating it and making a beautiful picture. Do you believe that? We didn't think so, but its the truth!

Then, a few weeks ago, we took susie for a ride in the country. Now we happen to be one of those unfor-tunates who were blessed with bad eeth as a child: even though mother 1/4 cup shortening ed us on milk and fruit juices, etc. 2 eggs 1/3 cup light cream Well, we now support an upper plate of store food-mashers. Getting back to the story, Susie and I were riding along, both of us munching away at apples. A piece of apple skin got lodged in my throat. I started to hack and choke. "I—I", I gasped, youth; it is part of its restless energy, but too often this same sort of almost perpetual motion continues through life with nerves being the main motive power driving us on when common sense is telling us to stop, or at least slow up. We women, I think, are the worst offenders. And why? Because we let our families become too dependent upon Mother doing this and Mother fixing that. And believe me, I have noticed that this same situation is reaching alarming the set of molars in my pocket. I coughed! Susie slapped my back! Finally the piece of apple skin gave ground and up it came. "Whew" shortening. Separate one egg; beat the egg white slightly, then measure The King's Coaches

Neither of the two principal car-

1881 by John W. Peters, to the order of the Lord Mayor-elect of London, Sir Whitaker Ellis. It was bought by the Crown in 1911 for use at the Coronation of King George V, and since then it has been used by Royal brides. It is so called because there is rather less wood in its bodywork than in the other coaches of the Royal Mews. It is rather less ornate than the Irish State Coach. This coach, once the property of a Lord Mayor of Dublin, was admired and bought by Queen Victoria during a visit to Ireland in 1852. It is normally used by the King for the opening of Parliment.

of Parliament.
The State Coach proper, which was built in 1761, weighs four tons and is, of course, unsuitable for a trotting procession.

to get along with as I make her appear to be. Why, in fact, last Christmas she gave me a watch, and this year she gave me a cigar. Hmmmm, there's something wrong there some A little hand went up, place. Oh, well, she probably was broke. "My daddy!" came the unexpect-Looking back over last year's files ed reply.

we notice a number of Susie stories.

The first was in March; about the Egg and I. Then in April we reported on the sucker fishing. The next was in June and this was written by the little lady herself. She tried to expose me, but it was all a line of guff. In August we did a story of our sailing experience. What a day that was! Then in September it was the bike hike. And in October we helped put up venetian blinds. That was the last of Susie for last year. Well, as we told you a few lines don't say it—that one is true, too.

ways make Susie appear to be cross and out of sorts. She always seems to be mad at you or something, and almost always talks to you in a sar-

One reader asked, why do you al-back, she's a great kid. You'll hear more of her this year too. Why, just now, she brought us a cup of tea and a toasted bacon. And another thing, dear reader, those stories were really on the level. So the next time you read a Susie story, stop wonder-ing about her. She really exists and how! She just belted me over the ear for writing this. I didn't notice her standing there reading over my shoulder. I hereby retract what I sald. Ain't she ignorant?

NINE POINTS OF THE LAW!

... TABLE TALKS ...

Good Eating The Scotch Way

In the lowlands of Scotland the lassies once wore broad bonnets called scones. Whether these bonnets gave their name to the buns, or whether the buns inspired the bonnets was never recorded by the Scotch. Either way, scones make superlative eating, especially when ready-to-eat bran is used to give them a nut-like taste.

For a festive touch, use cranberries as a filling for these tasty triangles. Jelly Scones 3 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 tablespoon sugar ½ cup ready-to-eat bran

1/4 cup cranberry sauce or your favorite jam or jelly. Sift flour with baking powder, salt and sugar; add bran. Cut in Beat remaining eggs and add to first mixture with cream. Stir until dough follows fork around bowl. Roll out on lightly floured board to 1/2 inch thickness; cut into 21/2 inch squares. Place 1 teaspoon cran-berry sauce in centre of each square; fold diagonally and press points together. Moisten edges, crimp with fork. Brush with reserved egg white; sprinkle with sugar. Bake in hot oven (450 dg. F.) about 12 minutes.

ROOMS BEAUTIFULLY

FURNISHED $1.50 up

HOTEL METROPOLE

You Will Enloy Staying a

The St. Regis Hotel

TORONTO

Every Room With Tub Bath, Shower and Telephone

Gaod Food. Dining and Da Nightly Sherbourne at Carlton Tel. RA. 4135

• Single, $3.50 and up— Double, $4.50 up out I tablespoon and keep for glaze procession was originally intended for Royal use. The Glass Coach was made in castic manner. Well, dear reader, to tell you the truth, I only write about the messes that Susie and I get into. Actually we have a lot of fun and have many memories of good times.

started at the top of a hill, it would roll to the bottom. Now, who can tell what it is?" teacher said, "All right, Marjorie; what do you think I was describ-

Grand Relief Head Colds! NOSE DEOPS WORKS PAST RIGHT WHERE TROUBLE IS!

Instantly relief from head cold distress starts to come when you put a little Va-tro-nol in each nostril. Also—it helps prevent colds from developing if used in time! Try it! Works fine! You'll like it! VICKS VA-TRO-HOL

ARE YOU DISCOURAGED because you suffer distress from 'periodic' FEMALE COMPLAINTS which makes you NERVOUS HIGH-STRUNG on such days?

Are you troubled by distress of female functional monthly disturbances which makes you suffer, feel so nervous.cranky, restless, weak—at such times? Then do try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms!

In a recent test it proved helpful to women troubled this way. Why don't you get smart and try it yourself!
Pinkham's Compound is what is sent with the same than a southing effect on one of woman's most important organs.

For over 70 years thousands of girls and women have reported benefit. Just see if you, too don't report excellent. Worth trying!
NOTE: Or you may prefer LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S TABLETS with added iron.

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

By J. MILLAR WATT