Early Returns In Community Chest Campaign Gratifying The Jarvis District Community Chest Appeal got away to a good start this week when several of the Board of Trade Canvassers made their returns last night. The list shows a total of more than $500 contributed toward the campaign objective of $3,000. Last year the returns at the same period in the campaign were slightly higher, but the campaign chairman attaches no significance to that fact and is confident the contributions will gradually advance to the objective in due course. Many of the usual canvassers have not yet started on their rounds but will be doing so shortly. The contributions to date are as follows: Anonymous $ 25.00 Armstrong, Mrs. Ida 2.00 Athletic Assoc. Jarvis 25.00 Bailey, W. J. 25.00 Bight, W. J. 1.00 Booth, Mrs. Ethel 1.00 Bradford, Mrs. and Mr. Earl 15.00 Butts, Chas. D. 5.00 Butts, W. Public School Concert Was Outstanding Entertainment The large crowd attending the public school concert at the Town Hall on Thursday night were exceedingly well pleased with the entertainment provided by the pupils. While every number on the program merited the applause received the concert was exceptionally good. The program was prepared for presentation by the teachers of the public school, including Wray Hagerman, Mrs. F. McRae, Mrs. A. J. Smithman, and Mrs. Hilda Winger. The "Wedding of the Painted Doll" so well received at the Christmas concert was repeated and again drew applause. Janet Butts as singing director carried her part well and of course, the beautiful gowns of the school party added to the presentation. Barbara Mills exhibited considerable talent in the recitation "Little Baptists" and Sandra Newman also did well in a similar number. Piano solos and duets were much enjoyed with Freda Row, Rosemary Dell, Diane Miller, Joan Marshall, Shirley Keefe, Donna Mitchell, and Mrs. Winger contributing to this part of the program. The continuation school chorus was well sung by the boys of Room two, both under the direction of Mrs. Winger. The Crusaders Choir sang the school hymn "Three Playlets entitled "Why Didn't You Tell" "Reveaux" and "Jane and the Boy Scout, Nightmares" were all much enjoyed. The Crusaders Choir sang the Crusaders Hymn "Fairied Lord Jesus". Bobby Henderson thrilled the audience with his vocal rendition of "Now Is The Hour". He was called back for an encore and kindly contributed another chorus of this popular song. During the program the presentation of Field Day Awards were made by Reeve George W. Walker. The Reeve commended the winners on their achievement and made the following presentations: He was assisted by Mr. Small, Principal of the Continuation School: FIELD DAY SPORTS Senior Boys - 1st, Glen Johnson; 2nd, Coyne Leatherdale; 3rd, John Cameron, Gordon Fallis, tie; 2nd, Gerald Johnson. Junior Boys - 1st, Jim Davidson; 2nd, Fred Cameron. Senior Girls - 1st, Dorothy Fleming; 2nd, Marion Ryder. Intermediate Girls - 1st, Joan Hougton; 2nd, Marie Saunders. Junior Girls - 1st, Eleanor Martin; 2nd, Florence Ball. Others assisting with the program were Mrs. Allan Cameron and Miss Shirley Elliott. A. L. Miller acted as Chairman.

Canvassers Meeting Sparks Opening Of Charity Drive The members of the executive committee of the canvassers numbered nearly forty persons gathered at the Sunday School Rooms of Wesley United Church on Monday night to mark the opening of the second annual combined Charities campaign. In charge of the drive was Rev. J. M. Cameron, President of the Community Chest Appeal. Rev. J. W. Newbury introduced Reeve Earl Catherwood and Reeve George Walker, who in turn complimented the group on the undertaking to hand. Reeve Catherwood, "we really find our public spirit citizens at gatherings such as this. Reeve Walker said he was confident the citizens of Jarvis would respond generously to the appeal and also commended the canvassers for their part in the undertaking. The various Charities that will benefit from the drive were explained in detail to the canvassers by Reeve Catherwood, A. L. Miller, Rev. Banes, Capt. Brightwell, Rev. W. H. Fuller and Rev. J. M. Cameron. Rev. W. H. Fuller, campaign chairman, outlined the procedure to the canvassers and set forth the allocations to each charity. He pointed out that each contributor could designate his contribution to whatever charities they wished. He also expressed the hope that the canvassers would be cordially received by the citizens when they make their calls. Undertaking the canvass will be members of the Jarvis Varsity and Sandusky Women's Institute. Citizens of Erie and members of the Jarvis Board of Trade.

Grass Fires Give Firemen Runs When a grass fire threatened to get out of control near the home of Charles Columbus last Friday morning, a call was put in for the Jarvis Fire Department. When the truck arrived on the scene, however, the flames had been brought under control and the firemen returned to their quarters. A fire in a garage along a grove of small pine trees leading toward the house from the west, was extinguished. On Tuesday, just before noon, another call was answered from the home of Mrs. W. H. Fuller when the fire department extinguished another grass fire which threatened to get out of control near the home of Mrs. W. H. Fuller. The Fire Department made quick responses and demonstrated once again the value of the volunteer brigade when danger threatens.

FROZEN FOOD FILMS FEATURED AT COMMUNITY EVENT Three films showing the preparation of food for freezing and the operation of a community locker plant will be featured at a community meeting sponsored by the Sandusky and Jarvis Women's Institutes to be held in the Jarvis Town Hall, on Wednesday evening, April 7th, at 7:30 to 9 P.M.
