

Erected In Honor of the Canadian troops who fought their way into the city and liberated the townfolk in 1944, "Canada" bridge at Bruges, Belgium, shown here, was recently dedicated to perpetuate the memory of the men who fell in action. Victor Dore, Canadian ambassador and Maj-Gen H. W. Foster, who commanded brigade, were on hand.

WHAT GOES ON IN THE WORLD

Palestine

There is an ironic significance in the fact that the quotation about "owing the wind and reaping the whirlwind" should come from The Book which is largely concerned with the history of the Jewish people.

When the Stern Gang and other Palestine terrorists were torturing and murdering British soldiers, who had been guilty of nothing but doing their sworn duty, there was little or no general condemnation of such acts by Zionists and their sympathizers in other parts of the world, and especially in the United States.

Air commentators, newspapers and magazines south of the border held them up as heroes and gloried in their deeds. But now the picture has changed.

For not only in official Israel circles, but also in the opinion of most expert observers, there is the belief that with the fall of Count Folke Bernadotte, the United Nations official mediator, the Jewish cause has received a terrible blow.

Hopes for gaining admission to United Nations membership for Israel at the present have been greatly shaken. That the killing of Bernadotte was not the impulsive act of some hot-head, but something long and carefully planned, is almost certain. For weeks rumors had been circulating in Palestine that the Count was marked for death; and although many of the cooler minded Jews condemned such rumors as fantastic, killed he was. Had Count Bernadotte been representing merely one nation in Palestine his murder would have been politically speaking, serious enough. But he was there, in theory at least, as the representative of all fifty-eight of the United Nations. Now assembled in Paris, and with plenty of other and even graver matters to occupy their minds, are the delegates from those fifty-eight going to accept into full membership a people claiming to be a nation, but where such a thing could happen.

Just what these who planned it set out to accomplish by the assassination of Bernadotte nobody, possibly, will ever know with any certainty. But one theory is that the Jewish leaders, convinced that

Boy Braves Storm-Tossed Lake, Rescues 7 Persons Wins DOW AWARD

rescues two men, five boys from over-turned craft in Brocks Lake

At first, no one in the little group of vacationers paid any attention to the shouts coming from the lake. Such sounds were to be expected in summer resorts. But in a few moments it became obvious that the voices were not raised in laughter—they were desperate cries for help!

LAUNCHES SMALL BOAT
14-year-old John Lowe was the first one to act. Although the water was extremely rough and a high wind was blowing, he launched a small motorboat and headed for the end of the island. In the position of being able to capitalize its powerful instincts toward the rest of the world; and it would be no great surprise to see the Soviet pressing strongly for full Allied evacuation of Germany.

Perhaps, by the time this is read, that action will already have been taken. Possibly, on the other hand, by that time the Russians will have picked up their marbles and left Paris in a huff. Anyway, the United States and Britain seem to be fully aware that it is one thing for Moscow to pull its troops out of Germany, where they have thoroughly communicated their zone and are reported to have a well organized and trained German army under cover, and quite another for the western Allies to pull out and leave all Germany in the "mercy" of the armed Communists from the east.

A showdown must come, sooner or later; and it is to be hoped that our side will show the same "intestinal fortitude" in the matter of Germany as Secretary Marshall already has done in calling the Soviet bluff over Korea.

For a Good Fit
The picture star stopped off at a Hollywood specialty shop and announced, "I'd like a pair of shorts to wear around my gymnasium." "Excellent," said the bemused clerk, reaching behind him. "Don't you think we'd better measure it for size?"

Keeping The Peace
Jones was boasting of a system he had invented to preserve domestic well-being and tranquility. "The well-being and tranquility," he said, "we were married, fifteen years ago," he said, "we decided to be really important decisions were made on the basis of the decisions that affected only the smooth running of the house. How has left entirely to my wife." "How has your system worked out?" asked a friend. "Perfectly," said Jones. "There hasn't been a single hitch in the entire fifteen years. Of course," he added thoughtfully, "no really important decision has come up yet."
