

This is our Average Shareholder...

His name may be George Wilson, Patrick O'Reilly or Emile Legault. He may be a farmer, a lawyer, a carpenter, a real estate agent, a banker, a teacher or one of our own employees. His wife or mother might be a shareholder. He and about 5,000 other Canadians from all walks of life are the owners of Dominion Textile Company Limited. Last year, among them, they did $57,838,394 worth of business. That was the company's total income for the year.

Let's simplify it and say each Average Shareholder did $11,567.67 worth of business. That was the money he took in. Now let's look at what he spent to get that money. Here it is, roughly calculated, for the average shareholder.

Raw materials (principally raw cotton)..... $5,730.85
 Starches, chemicals, dyes, packing cases, other supplies and operating expenses such as repairs, fuel, power, light, pensions, insurance and other such items..... $2,384.46
 Amount paid to employees..... $2,628.16
 Taxes..... $ 457.01
 Money reinvested to keep the business in a stable condition..... $ 178.01
 Net profit received by Mr. Average Shareholder (on profit he pays personal taxes too)..... $ 388.96

A Buck was hit by a car in Windsor the other day and killed. A Windsor policeman commented that a Buck doesn't last long in Windsor these days. Thomas Richard Henry goes one further and adds "or anywhere else." But that has nothing to do with dogs and fawns. A mother deer and her off-spring was seen in the field behind the public school last week and after looking over the flock of young Canadian hoplites at the recess period decided they had been here long enough and took off in an easterly direction. It was immediately pointed out to us how silly it was to go north to hunt deer when they come right in our back yard. How does one go about explaining that the trek northward each year is not for the sole purpose of shooting a deer.

If it is necessary to close the Town Hall to conserve Hydro, it would seem logical to ban church activities on week nights as well. That is not to say, of course, we would like to see that done. But at the same time we hate to think that the only public hall we have is to be closed against community gatherings through the long winter months. We think the ban should be at least lifted against the Friday night closing order.

Els Held produced some of the best home-grown celery in his garden this year that has ever tickled a celery loving tongue. Tender, juicy, luscious but a few of the adjectives that might be applied to it. "My," we said, "it must have taken a lot of work. Els, to tend to that celery patch all summer?" Whereupon he proceeded to tell us about the hours of labour he put in tending and nurturing his celery bed—that is until his wife overheard him—it seems she had something to do with it too.

Dave Kett dropped into the Graham "Hoos" school the other day to arrange a tournament bout with his Hagersville team. While there he was involved into a short session of the Graham variety. He left a bit dazed and an hour later he was back again but only after he had a chance of getting in a few hours of extensive training in the finer arts of the game. It likely cost him a book of tickets on the Lions Washing Machine draw as well.

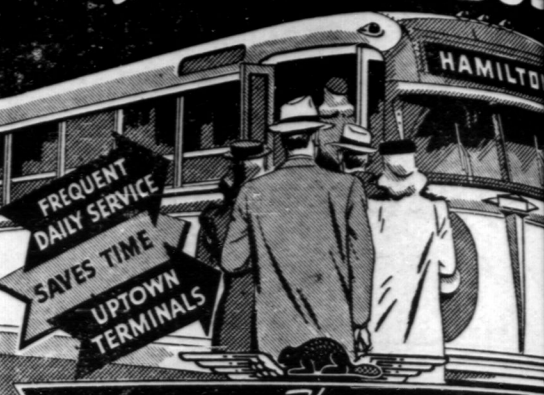

We heard many fine and sincere tributes directed to Mr. Harrison Arrell, K.C. of Caledonia, last Friday night. He was tendered a dinner marking his fiftieth year in the legal profession. Mr. Arrell must have felt good to hear the many fine things said about him, because there is surely no greater reward for a life well lived, than the respect and good will of friends. Probably some of us have no definite aspirations in life but we came away from that dinner with the feeling that if we can merit just some small portion of the respect and goodwill that Harrison Arrell has built up during his fifty years in the practice of law, we will have made a contribution to society worthy of notice.

We have just finished reading the annual profit and loss statement of Canada Packers Ltd. Since Canada Packers is sometimes referred to as a capitalistic monopoly we always find it interesting to read their statement. In addition a fellow told us not long ago—who entertained definite socialist ideas—that too much money was paid out in executive salaries and director's fees, and implied that if that money was paid to the farmers it would make a sizeable difference in his yearly income. Just for fun we almost exhausted our mathematical abilities in long division to discover that if all the money paid out for executive salaries and Executive fees at Canada Packers had been added to the price of livestock the farmer would have received, last year, an additional nine cents for every $81.37 worth of livestock he sold to the firm. "We think that a man like J. C. McLean, who has the courage to tell the Prices Enquiry Committee the truth in simple words, should be worth that much alone.

Lovingly remembered by Husband and son Edward, daughter Ethel and son-in-law, Will.

 The Kinsmen regular meeting on Monday night was an almost perfect attendance. Only one member absent. Meeting opened in usual form. William Matthee reported the Hagersville plans were completed and that the local band would lead the parade around the town and to the arena where the fun and judging would be held. The service committee with Glenn Green as spokesman, ask for a financial drive for the coming year with the intention of constructing a wading pool in the local park for the children and to assist in equipping the Recreation Centre in the armchairs in the new future.
