On Tuesday of that week our group was taken on a sight-seeing tour of Ottawa. We were taken through the Parliament Buildings where we admired the golden ceilings of the chambers, the hand-carved marble of the halls and memorial chamber, and especially the hand-carved the library.

of the chambers, the hand-carved marble of the halls and memorial chamber, and especially the beauty of the library. From the Peace Tower we were able to see the great dams and log booms of the Ottawa River. The tour then took us past the war memorial and many embassies of which the Russian attracted the most attention in the form of cat-calls.

which the Russian attracted the most attention in the form of cat-calls. Then we passed Rideau Hall with its Seventy-five acres of grounds (a lot of lawn for some boy to cut). We then were taken to the 1200 acre experimental Farm. Museums formed a considerable part of the trip — the agricultural machinery museum at the experimental farm, the Public Archives, the War Museum, and the Victoria Museum where I saw the enormous head of an American Mastodon collected in 1047 by H. M. Ami at Marburg. Ontario. We left Ottawa wondering how a city could be so beautiful and clean and with a swelling pride of Canada.

Amongst distinguished visitors at the Jamboree were Viscount Alexander. Chief Scout of Canada who officially opened the Jamboree on Monday and Haydn Dimmock from England, editor of "The Scout" the international Scout magazine. Our American guests are holding a national Jamboree in Valley Forge next year expecting some 55.000 scouts, including 1000 guest scouts from Canada.

We Scouts from Jarvis along with Scouts from Simcoe, Delhi, and Till-sonburg formed the twenty-three Ontario troop with Scouter Cyril Mote, a teacher from Grimsby as Scouts Master and to him we are very grateful for his Scouting spirit and leadership. We slept and ate in tents cooking our own meals with never a dull moment.
