FREAK CORN

There has been a lot of talk this year about tall corn and prolific yields, but John Walker thinks he has found the best evidence of corn growth yet. He brought in the tassels of a corn stalk with an ear growing right up through the center. "That's a freak in nature," he says. "It is evidence of an unusual place to develop."

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Duxbury on Thursday evening, August 18th, in honor of the recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Duxbury (nee Margaret Lamont).

Respected Citizen Passes Suddenly

JAMES STANLEY ANDERSON

News of the sudden passing of Stanley Anderson, on Sunday night, came as a shock to his many friends in this community. Taken ill in the early evening at his home in Townsend, in his Sixtieth year.

The traditional Hawaiian "aloha" greets passengers at Honolulu on Canadian Pacific Air Lines' new Empire route to Australia. In lower picture above, the Empire of Sydney rests in front of the Aloha control tower at Honolulu Airport during 20-hour stop which gives passengers an opportunity for rest and sightseeing in beautiful Honolulu. The view from the Empire of Sydney as it travels by day and sleep by night on the 8,000-mile route, and other pictures above show how this is done. Upper left: Stewardess Pamela Hookham of Sydney, Australia, and Helen McCracken of Vancouver pause in their night-sleeping during overnight stop at Fiji to chat with a native. Near Airport Centre left: some 20,000 feet above the broad Pacific, passengers enjoy full course meal, with W. J. Turnbull, Canada's Deputy Postmaster General, choosing a fleet mignon, while Grant McConachie, president of C.P.A., looks on. Seated across the table from them are Senators Gray Durgoo, Vancouver, and Air Vice-Marshal A. T. N. Cowley, Director of Air Services, Department of Transport. Upper right: passengers on the first flight are entertained by R. R. E. Dale, Acting Canadian Trade Commissioner at Sydney, and Mrs. Dale. In this picture Mrs. Dale is with Mr. and Mrs. Dale. In the picture below, Senator James A. Mackinnon (seated), former Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce.

J. N. Allen, Dunnville, Heads County Centennial Committee

With the election of James N. Allen of Dunnville, as Chairman of the Centennial Committee, tentative plans for the Centennial celebration are beginning to take shape for Haldimand's 100th Birthday Party in County was incorporated in 1850 and 1950. The executive committee is made up of representative citizens throughout the county and includes: J. N. Allen, Dunnville; Harrison Arrill, Cayuga; Gordon Hall, Cayuga; Earl Catherwood, Walpole; Roy Howitt, Hagersville; Dr. R. M. Billings, Cayuga; Les Marshall, Jarvis and William I. Walker, Moulton. James N. Allen, who was chairman of the Centennial Committee during the war was the natural choice to head up the executive committee.
