SUCCESSFUL JUNIOR FARMER CAMP

HELD IN BRANT COUNTY

More than forty Junior Farmers and Farm Girls from eight Ontario Counties had the time of their lives at a Junior Farmer Camp held from June 18th to the 23rd. The setting for the Camp was Camp Thayendanega in Brant County near Paris.

This was the first District Junior Farmer Camp ever to be held in this part of the Province and for many of the campers, their first camp. Campers ranged in age from eighteen to twenty-four years.

The purpose of the camp was to encourage skills and dev lop responsibility for leadership among rural boys and girls and it is hoped that they will take back to their own Junior Organization something of benefit towards their meetings.

For purposes of organization and competition the whole camp was run
