Jarvis Community Chest Campaign Opens Monday

The annual campaign for funds in the Jarvis District for the various recognized charities starts next Monday and continues for the following two weeks. The objective this year is again $5,000, and this amount is made up of allocations made by the executive committee after consultation of the particular needs of the Charities in question.

The local Women's Institutes are again heading the groups of canvassers who will be making personal calls on all homes in the community. These include The Jarvis, Varenay and Sandusky Women's Institutes; a group from the Erie district, the Jarvis Board of Trade, and a group from Nanticoke organized under the leadership of Fred Pratten.

While the campaign starts on Monday next, the canvassers meeting will not be held until Tuesday night when they will gather at a dinner to be held at the Wesleyan United Church School Rooms. The Jarvis W.I. is catering for a dinner to be held at the Wesleyan United Church School Rooms. The Jarvis W.I. is catering for a dinner to be held at the Wesleyan United Church School Rooms.
