BRIEF NOTES FOR THE BUSY FARMER

By Haldimand Harry — During the week ending March 2nd 104 more heads were tested over the second general T.B. Test in Hal-

Should laying hens be given free access to a variety of feeds or should they be given a standard ration?

"The path to profit is grass covered" stated M. Appleton at the Annual Meeting of the Ontario Crop Improvement Association held last night.

With all this mind, the Haldimand Crop Improvement Association is now planning to sponsor a Grassland Day to be held in the County during 1950.

There will be many demonstration plots laid down this year so that they will be available for use on this special day.

This is probably not the time to discuss Winter Wheat varieties but the six new varieties being grown at the Ontario Agricultural Experiment Station in Ontario have just been received and are now on hand at the Ontario Agricultural Experiment Station.

The South-West Area, covering four stations and including Haldimand County, put Fairfield in third position and Cornell in fourth. Here the Dawson was in twelfth position.

Little or no nitrogen is moving now during the half-dormant season but farmers should be planning to use limestone again in large quantities during the coming crop season.

The application of lime will react the Haldimand County soils for phosphorus and also to release phosphorus for plant use.

The Busy Meat Choppers opened their fifth meeting on March 18th at 4:00 P.M. with the supper prepared and served by Mrs. Harry Belbeck.

The Haldimand Insurance Agents Association met in Hagersville, on March 15th. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Bob Montrose of the Economical Mutual Insurance Company.

The chapters for the evening were the Lemon Dance, Spot Dance, Statue Dance and special Paul Jones.

A large crowd of Teen Agers attended the dance at the Jarvis Town Hall on March 19th. Over forty members of Port Dover Teen Town attended the dance.

The special dances for the evening were the Lemon Dance, Spot Dance, Statue Dance and special Paul Jones.
