ant as I about this Rally, I would like to give you a few of the highlights of the event.

After having got our fourteen Cubs safely seated in the Palace Theatre, the Cub Leader excused himself to attend to some details which I supposed was concerned with the Pack. During his absence I was approuched by a what I believe was a Kings Scout. Of course I could be wrong about that. However, his purpose was to ascertain the number of boys we had and what troop they belonged to and after giving this information, I was surprised to learn that the Ist Jarvis Pack was the only pack present that did not belong to the Hamilton District, that the Palace Theatre which was simply packed with Scouts and Cubs was actually only half the crowd and that the Capitol Theatre next door was equally full of Girl Guides and Brownies that in all was an estimated five thousand boy and girl members of the movement were present.

In the meanwhile we were being very well entertained by a magician after the magician came several acts by Scouts and Cubs. Outstanding among these was a display of tumb-
