ABE'S OPINION OF A MAN—"I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives, and so live that that place will be proud of him." That is what Abraham Lincoln said and it is still a pretty good criterion of citizenship.

UP TO SIX NOW—The darndest thing happened on Saturday night. We met up with our sixth reader. The best part of it was the information came unolicited. When we ask someone if they read this column and they coyly say un-huh we're just smart enough to know they are wondering what we are talking about. But when someone comes right out and says "we read your column every week" that's just as good as an oath so far as we are concerned. So — we now have six readers.

A TRICK IN MATHEMATICS—A good way to prove that figures don't lie is to try this: Multiply your age by 2 and add 5 to the result. Multiply by 50. Add the change in your pocket if less than a dollar. Subtract the number of days in this year, 365. Add 115 for good measure. The two left hand figures will show your age. The two right hand figures the change in your pocket.

OVERHEARD—Of course it might mean anything, but last Sunday being our wedding anniversary, we couldn't help but wonder if there was any significance to the observation overheard in the living room when two local visitors were conversing. Said one: "We all think the world of our husbands, of course we do, even though they are innumerable and irritating and about six personalities removed from the young man we are talking about." The other man who was the one being in all the world we needed to make us perfectly happy for the rest of our lives. Even being tolerable is something to be thankful for we suppose.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED—The locality of the Earl of Victorian malady was in marked anatomical contrast with those of the previous ham, giving a talk on "Disease in English Fiction." For those Victorian characters appear to have had no abdomens. Indeed, we read of a school girl asking the meaning of that objectionable word and being told: "It is quite unnecessary for a lady to know, as it is only found in the lower orders." Today it is found on main street in what is known as the midriff section between the shorts and the other thing two or six inches above.

INTERPRETATION—The wife of a man who had enlisted in the Navy handed the Pastor a note on which she had made a request as follows: "Peter Bowyers, having gone sea, his wife desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety." The Minister glanced over it, and then announced "Peter Bowyers having gone to see his wife, desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety."

MONEY—Money may be the hunk of many things, but it is not the kernel. It brings you food, but not apples; medicine, but not health; acquaintances, but not friends; servants, but not faithfulness; pleasure, but not peace or happiness." Henrik Ibsen, 1828-1906.

It's Easy once you start...

Like so many things in life—you never know how easy it is until you give it a try.
Everyone wants to save but some never seem to get around to it. Buying Canada Savings Bonds through your Company's Payroll Savings Plan makes saving easy but you can also buy them through your banks or investment dealers for cash or in instalments.
Hundreds of thousands of Canadians in every walk of life are saving part of their income by the regular purchase of Canada Savings Bonds. These savings are always available in emergencies because you can cash Canada Savings Bonds at full face value, plus interest, at any time at any bank.
save as you go with Canada Savings Bonds 4th Series NOW ON SALE
Everyone has something to save for

...well practically unanimous

You CAN still find people who "don't believe in banks"... who keep their cash in old coffee pots, or hide it in the woodpile, or carry it around.
But most folk nowadays keep their money in bank accounts. They can get it whenever they want it; and they can pay their bills by cheque. Canadians have more than seven million such deposit accounts. In terms of Canada's adult population, that makes it practically unanimous.
The banks, in turn, know they must earn this confidence by giving you the best service they know how.
Today you can take your account to any bank you choose. And what is in your bank book is strictly between you and your bank. It is your own private business.
