Take Lakeview Two Straight Lambs In Rural 'A' Finals
 Lambs Corners appear to be on their way to another Provincial Championship judging by the way they covered the mound duties for Jarvis in the O.R.S.A. "A" series. The first game, played at Dixie, saw the home team accept a nine to one defeat with Wray Dennis providing the power for Lambs Corners. Allowing only two hits throughout the nine innings only twenty-nine opposition batters faced him in the nine innings. His team provided the necessary batting strength with Glen Lamb leading with three hits, including a triple. Elmo Swartz also had three safeties to his credit. The second game, played at Selkirk on Saturday night, drew one of the largest crowds of the season. The score was fifteen to nine for the home team. Wray Dennis again covered the mound duties for Jarvis in the O.R.S.A. "A" series.
