

Text Of President's Address

Following is the text of the Presidential address given by Wray Hagerman...

Education is not only learning a way of making a living; education is living. We as teachers have inherited to us a great responsibility...

Two important yet non-material things that education should give our pupils are (1) an intellectual attitude to life (2) a philosophy of life. The intellectual attitude may be defined as finding the world and life interesting and wishing to see it as they are...

Men's achievements depend not on the qualities of character with which they tackle their task but on the method they employ...
