NANTICOKE W.I. MEET
The December meeting of the Nanticoke Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Evans with an attendance of thirteen. The meeting was opened by singing the "Ode" followed by the Creed. Tickets are being sold on a five-three and two pound box of Home Made Christmas Candy. All persons contributing candy is requested to have it at the home of Mrs. Arthur Vokes by the afternoon of Saturday, December 16th. Candy will be on display at Miller's store the first three days of the following week. The draw for the lucky tickets will take place on Wednesday night, and the lucky winners notified.

After the business had been conducted Mrs. Harry Evans, as program convenor took charge of the meeting. A paper on the motto was read by Mrs. Gordon Jackson. The Roll Call brought out a number of uses for old Christmas Cards and recipes were exchanged. Mrs. Marr told the Christmas story and Mrs. Bert Evans gave the progressive study, the life of Judge Helen Kinnear.

Mrs. Bert Evans offered her home for the January meeting. The meeting closed with "God Save The King" and a dainty lunch was served by the lunch committee.

VARENCY W.I.
The hostess for our December meeting was Mrs. Harry Mattice with fifteen members present and Mrs. McCoskey as guest. The President, Mrs. A. Doughty in charge of the business. It was decided to join the film projector and sent a Christmas box to a child of the Children's Aid Society.

The proceeds from the Mystery prize to go to T.B. Seals. Members please bring coloured wash cloth and a cake of ivory soap to the January meeting and Mrs. H. K. Saunders kindly donated a quilt for the "Save the Children Fund." Christmas cards were in great demand.

We all enjoyed the splendid report and reading by Mrs. Altherton and Mrs. Franklin read a Christmas story. Mrs. Churchill gave a poem.
