

"I enjoyed my shopping today!"

Yes, I really enjoyed my shopping trip—I bought all the things I saved for!

That's the way I plan my bigger purchases. They seem to come easier, and more quickly, when I put something into the bank regularly. I like the comforting feeling of watching my account grow.

I hate keeping too much cash around the house. It's so convenient to have the bank take care of it. And my bank book tells me where I stand.

I guess most women are much like me—housewives with modest savings who find their neighborhood bank handy, useful... always obliging.

Memo to HUNTERS...

Now is the time when all over Ontario sportsmen enjoy the thrills of hunting. In marshes, fields and forests, hunters make full use of our abundance of wild game.

Now, too, is the time to consider what this implies. If we think for a moment, we must realize that our supply of game is not inexhaustible. That's why we must observe the game regulations.

Game laws are designed to protect our sport—not to restrict it. If we all consider the importance of conservation at this season, and take only what we can use, we'll have better sport tomorrow.

Conserve today for tomorrow's holiday.

JARVIS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE SEPTEMBER MEETING

The September meeting of the Jarvis W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Stallwood with President Mrs. James Brown presiding. The meeting opened in the customary manner and Mrs. E. Stallwood, secretary, read the minutes and financial report. The roll call "Some Humorous Event in My School Life" was well responded to by the members. An announcement was made that Miss Hilda Metcalfe was appointed the new Home Economist. The West Haldimand District meeting to be held in Oneida Community on September 18th was brought to the attention of officers. Mrs. E. A. Miller gave an explanation of the new by-laws. A bake sale will be held with Mrs. G. Leathong and Mrs. A. Marr in charge. Plans were completed for the exhibit at the Caledonia Fair and it was decided to cancel a play this year and arrange to have card parties instead. Mrs. J. Wodman presented the program and Mr. L. B. Holmes addressed the meeting on "The newly proposed school reform in High and Public Schools." An interesting discussion followed this address. Mrs. W. Nixon of Renfrew gave an interesting report on "Never Cease to Learn Until You Cease to Live." Mrs. W. Bailey gave the standing report on Education. Mrs. G. Leathong invited the members to her home for the October meeting with Mrs. Knelle, Mrs. Cowan, Mrs. A. Miller and Mrs. A. Marr on the lunch committee.

WEDDING

MILLER-WHITE

St. James United Church, Simcoe, beautifully decorated with pink and white gladioli and dahlias and artistic fernery, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, September 16th, when Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wray N. White, Simcoe, was united in marriage to Robert Douglas Miller, son of Mrs. George O. Miller, and the late Mr. Miller of Jarvis. Rev. Silvanus Edworthy officiated.

The lovely bride was given away by her father to the traditional wedding in the vest and the full skirt of broad design corded taffeta was arranged with a short train. Her finger-tip veil was arranged with a seed pearl coronet and she carried a shower bouquet of everlasting, Poinsettia roses, and gladioli.

She entered the church on the arm of her father to the traditional wedding music played by Mrs. Bruce Miller of Jarvis, who officiated at the organ throughout the ceremony.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Isabelle White, and her charming frock was of pale green silk brocade with fitted bodice and skirt was stiffened with matching bands of taffeta to form a quaint bouffant style. She wore matching mittens and headress, and carried a charming nosegay of various early fall flowers.

The bridesmaids, Miss Helen Marr and Miss Dorothy Ball, were given the same style, one in pink and the other in yellow, the three colors blending to form a delightful picture.

The best man was Mr. Jack Dougherty of Jarvis, and the ushers were Mr. Bruce Miller, brother of the groom, and Mr. Donald Murphy.

Mrs. Jack Cleaver sang in beautiful voice "Love's Prayer" and during the signing of the register, solo was "Because."

The wedding was held in St. James United Church Hall, given by the bride's parents. Mrs. White received guests in a smart gray wedding dress with black velvet accessories, and her carriage was of red rosettes. Mrs. Miller, the groom's mother, displayed with her, and she chose a green corded silk gown with black accessories, wearing a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

There were approximately 80 guests, including friends from St. Owen Sound, Jarvis, Guelph and Port Rowan. The bride's table was lavishly appointed, and centrepiece with a handsome three-tier wedding cake. The hall was decorated with a profusion of lovely roses and other autumn blooms, and pretty bouquets adorned the small tables.

Rev. Mr. Edworthy acted as toastmaster, and later the young couple cruised picked up eight hits off Raymond Cox and the juniors picked up nine off Fred Moody.

The bride had three hits. J. Cox had two. Bob Dugan had a homer and triple and Lindsay Fisher had a home run being hit by Paddock's third and deciding game will be in Fisherville on Friday evening. The show and the Regional Interdistrict Show will all meet at Simcoe, should not miss playing the beautiful new Livestock Jud Pavilion.

The Women's Department display for the handicraft of Norfolk's women, is an educational exhibit which all should see for the best preserving and cooking classes perfection plus. Fine needlework is evidence in all its various forms and the class for New Canaan is growing in interest each year. The Vocational Department of the High School will have its usual interesting and educational display for the handicraft of Norfolk's women. The Institute will be in attendance with their Club-work activities.

Midway Bros. Show will sponsor Midway with their rides, games and foodstuffs, and the family of "Hot Dogs," "Hamburgers" and "Pop Corn" will be much in evidence as follows: 1936 Fisherville 1937 Mount Elgin; 1940 Fisherville 1941 Mount Elgin; 1942 to 45 no competition due to war; 1946 Eden Mills 1947 Jordan; 1948 Lambton Corners; 1949 Jordan.

Well fans, guess that about covers the news of the week, see you next week.

her 2 and continuing October 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 — Norfolk County Fair, Fair Week Champions Meet."
