The towns of Canada are human places. In our town you go to your banker as naturally as you go to your grocer. No banking service is too large or too small to expect of your Commerce manager...

The child with a dollar, learning to save... a young man starting in business... the old folks ready to retire... all are welcome at The Commerce.

Yes, our Canadian towns are human places... and the men and women at your Commerce branch are good people to know.

One of the most interesting features of the average paper is the efforts of a columnist. There are many who aspire to greatness in this regard, but few, if any, will ever compare with The G. & M. Columnist. That is why we think so many people will welcome the return of the famous Circle Bar. The fourth column, which until a year ago was a part of that newspaper, was discontinued for some reason. It was discontinued, but it was not forgotten. It was just a little short-sighted in lining up their freedoms. They should have had a fifth — Freedom for dogs to roam.

We had a little talk with "Photo" over the week end concerning this proposal of the Village Council to make it unlawful for dogs to run at large from April 30 to October 30 of each year. Needless to say "Photo" takes a dim view of the whole thing. "It's that period between April 30 and October 30 that I really get some joy out of life," says Photo. During the other six months of the year things are pretty miserable most of the time. My apartment in the garage is unheated, as you are well aware, and that's not helping my rheumatism any. Besides with everything frozen up outside, it is just about impossible to do any scrounging during the winter months. Now in the summer months if a dog is lucky enough to pick up the matter to find a freshly dug garden to store it away. Yes, sir, says Photo, I figure Roosevelt and Churchill were just a little short-sighted in lining up their freedoms. They should have had a fifth — Freedom for dogs to roam.

By Haldimand Harry

During the month of December, Haldimand Hog Producers marketed 1,795 hogs through inspected plants. Of this number, 696 or 38.7% were in the top grade. This is still very much below what it should be and as reported on previous occasions, the bulk of the out-grade hogs were B's, most of which could be in the top grade if a little more care had been exercised in marketing them at the proper weights. One of the New Year's resolutions that should be put into effect is to get the hogs to market at the proper time.

Most indications point to a shortage of meat during the coming months and farmers across the line are being told that livestock prices are sure to go up. It is true that in the U.S. meat supply is about "one to two percent ahead of last year, but consumer demand is likely to be up by about ten per cent. More than that only seventy-four per cent as many stockers and feeders moved into the eight Corn Belt States during July, August and September as did a year ago.

What has happened in the beef industry is also being noticed in the hog industry. Here again, the consumer-buying power has been increasing at a much greater rate than has the production of pork, and with less beef competing, higher prices are indicated.

Bringing you
BIGGER VALUE
in a friendly way

1950 WAS ANOTHER BUSY YEAR!

More people used their telephones more than ever before. Calls made by you, your friends and neighbors helped well the total to a new record — over 1 million calls a day.

And all the time new telephones were being added. Now you can reach more people; more people can reach you. In that way alone, telephone service became even more valuable to you in 1950.

Its value and convenience were increased, too, by many improvements we were able to make in the quality of service, and because telephone people everywhere tried to be helpful and friendly.

There's a lot to be done in '51. You can be sure we'll keep on doing the best job we know how to supply the kind of service that is so important to you — and so essential to our country.

KNOX CHURCH NOTES

The Annual Meeting of the Hamilton Presbyterian W.M.S. will be held in St. Paul's Church, Hamilton, on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. The morning sessions begin at 10:00 A.M. It is hoped that some of the members of the Knox Church ladies will be in attendance.

The date of the Annual Congregational meeting was set by the Session for Friday, January 26th, at 8:00 P.M.

The Community Service last Sunday night was well attended, considering the state of the weather and the icy sidewalks. Next Sunday it will be in Wesley United Church.

Is He a Valuable Conservationist?

Yes! The setter has been specially trained to co-operate with the hunter in conservation.

The natural instinct of the setter is to hunt. By developing this instinct and learning to retrieve, he becomes a valuable conservationist. In the field he seeks out lost and wounded birds for his master. The setter helps prevent needless loss and unintentional over-shooting.

Conservation of our wildlife is a must if we are to enjoy it. Nature unspoiled is yours to enjoy — yours to protect.

Your DRY Cow is working hard

She needs a Special Body-Building Ration

In the last two months before freshening your dry cow, though she may look to be loafing, is really working hard. She has to build nearly two-thirds of the body of her calf — with the bigger breeds that's a pound of calf per day; and she has to rebuild her own body to stand the strain of heavy, steady production through her next lactation — that may call for a gain of one to two pounds per day. It's a big job. To do it she needs a special feed — one that's body-building, bone-building, cooling and mildly laxative.

Feed her Purina "D & F" Chow

If you're feeding steers, you want fast, profitable gains and prime finish. Purina Steer Fatens helps you gain grain, speeds up gains, puts on premium finish. Try it, this Winter!
