more unearned runs in the third after two were out when M. Brown and M. McCrae who had both walked, scored when Saunders muffed a popfly on the first base line that Dunnigan was already in position to catch. Dunnigan again walked in the fourth for Jarvis and Sharpe and Urbach singled for Glenmorris in that inning. In the fifth, M. Spencer and E. Griffin singled for Clemporris wills.

Columbus grounded out to end the inning. Trailing four to three the Jills committed two costly errors in the eighth when Brown singled, B. Kelman reached first on McMillen's error after two were out. McCrea grounded to A. Columbus who threw wide at first, enabling both runers.

grounded to A. Columbus who threw wide at first, enabling both runners to score. Jacques picked up the only Jarvis hit in the eighth while E. Griffin singled for the Clcn in the ninth. The Jills made an effort to get back in the game in the last of the ninth when M. Columbus singled and Lois Pond followed with a single after B. Dosser was out. With runners on second and third, McMillen and A. Columbus flied to left to end the game, and the series and their

We are prepared to supply you three hits. Betty Ann Dosser, the Jarvs left fielder, came up with a nice fielding chore as she gathered in four fly balls. Lois Pond and Vera Jacques led the Jarvis batters with two hits apiece, in addition Pond rapped out three long fly balls to Griffin, any one of which would have scored a run from third if a base scored a run from third if a base runner had been there.
