Garden Club Girls Receive Awards

Hadlindam County Girls' Garden Club Achievement Days were held on Saturday afternoon, September 24, at the Rural Youth Centre, Kohler.

Miss Hilda Metcalf, Home Economics teacher at Hadlindam County, in charge of the afternoon's programme which began with presentation of trophies to the following club members:

Mrs. Edward Harris, Jarvis; Mrs. Alfred Keay, R.R. 4, Casselman; Mrs. Ivan McKenna, R.R. 1, Nanticoke; Miss Jennie Lill, R.R. 3, Cayuga.

Then Ron Crockett, local Agricultural Representative for Hadlindam supervised the classic readings judged by club members, and later gave his reasons and placements on the vegetable display.

Each third year member commented on her special project, undertaken as part of the third year work. These comments were followed by the club demonstrations. Diane Miller, and Jessie Strang of the Jarvis demonstrated Flower Arrangement, Darlene McKenzie and Ellen Dougherty

NORFOLK COUNTY'S 11TH ANNUAL FAIR

October 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 will bring the Norfolk County Fair at Simcoe, Ontario. It's full days of music, fun, and excitement that can only be found at such a fine County Fair.

Show window displays for the Fair program this year has been made up of considerable thought and promise to be an exciting one.

Remember the Show, with its Prime Motels offering a fine prize for a line-up of Champions to demonstrate Flower Arrangements, while Marie Saunders acted as commentator for the Variety Club. Joan Keay and the Home Economics Club will grow club members, demonstrated their talents.

Records of Achievement were awarded to each club member who successfully completed the Fair program. A silver teaspoon will be presented to the Achievement Fair participants in the Junior Farmer Banquet in the Fall.

Certificates of achievement, for completion of two Homemaking Club projects, were presented to Marie Saunders, R.R. 1, Nanticoke and Joanne Keay, R.R. 1, Casselman.

light the afternoon grandstand patron. There will also be thrills aplenty with a fine array of races and a variety of cockle bachelors, popular as the Charlott Races.

Remember the Show, has the advantage of being a fine County Fair, and the Norfolk County Fair, gives the Champion cattle from far and wide.

Remember! Norfolk County Fair is on October 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 at Simcoe, Ontario. The Fair where Champions meet!
