Munroe's Restaurant

To our faithful old friends, to our devoted new friends and to those whose friendships we hope to earn - we wish a New Year filled with all the good things in life-Health, Happiness and enduring Peace.

We extend this greeting, not because it is the customary thing to do, but because it is a sentiment genuinely felt, for as the years go by our appreciation of cherished friendships becomes greater and greater.

As nearly as we can determine Village taxes are going to take a substantial boost in 1953. There are two things that might prevent this happening. The first is for the council to spend less money on important services such as streets and sidewalks and the second is to try and operate three rooms at the public school instead of four.

This concerns us somewhat but far more disturbing is the fact that apparently only twenty-five other people in the Village are concerned. You see there were only twenty-six present at the nomination meeting on Monday night and one would think that if a ratepayer was at all concerned about his taxes this is one meeting of the year he would make a special point to attend

We suppose, however, socal rate.

A good attendance marked the Christmas the Woednesday, December 10th at the home of Mrs. Allant Lindy. Special business included making arrangements to send a Christmas box to a Children's Aid ward in Haldimand, also making do nations to the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto and the Christmas Cheer for the inmates of the O'd People's Home in Dunnville. Mrs. Ethel Marshall was appointed Secretary of the Haldimand Medical Services, succeeding the late Mrs. Laura Braund. The members decided to stage a play during the forthcoming few months and to stage a series of mystery Teas". An interesting report on the recent Area Convention was given by Mrs. Leonard Church, Mrs. Alfred Marr and Mrs. R. A. Miller.

conceded defeat. They claimed service on December 28th. Miss The President thanked all the mem that Harry and George employed a gress made regarding the coming that that gave them an unfair advantage. While they were never able to pin them down to acts unfair advantage. While they were never able to pin them down to acts of dishonesty a real feud did develop. As time went on Lea left Marburg and came to Jarvis where he was Reeve for fourteen years. Harry Misner went to Port Dover where he was Reeve for fourteen years. George and Roy stayed at Marburg and made something of themselves. However, despite the passing of a couple of decades these feludalists got together the other night to settle the matter for all time. Harry and George skunked Roy and Lea accepted defeat and apologized to their opponents for ever having doubted their honesty. In fact they said they were the best fellows it had ever been their privilege to know. It was still a mystery to us so we put our best sleuth on the case and finally discovered the fact that it wasn't ginger ale Harry was glouring in his opponent's glasses.

But alls well that ends well and as ILea and Roy said to their old pals selection and Roy saying "DoNT DEINE" and Roy saying "DoNT DEINE" and Roy and II have years. But if you do drink old friends, old friends, hic, hic."
