It is rather unusual for a (little) weekly newspaper editor to occupy a seat in the Press Gallery in Ontario's Legislative Assembly.

When we arrived there were very few people in the chambers or in the long straight gallery at the opposite end of the chamber or in the galleries at the sides that appear to be built almost straight up the walls so that sitting there must surely be a dizzy experience.

There was accommodation for about five hundred guests and before three o'clock all these seats were filled. The members of the legislature had also, by this time, taken their seats in the chamber.

Among the members of the House of Commons were two former Ontario Ministers of Agriculture, Mr. H. H. Price and Mr. W. F. Nickle.

It is a legend to the effect that the Bowman family originated in England, and there is a legend to the effect that the first of the name were women associated with the Sherwood Forest.

By way of Halifax, Nova Scotia, I have had a letter from my brother-in-law, Mr. J. H. Hartwick, who is now in the United States.

Bowman Family

A few Walpole families have retained continuous ownership of land since first settled on by their ancestors. For instance, the Bowman family occupies part of the original Bowman Homestead, being in Lot 8, Concession 13 of Walpole.

Among others we noticed in the list of names were those of Mr. J. H. Hartwick, who is now in the United States.

News of the Countryside

Mr. Fred Hottelmann of Waterloo occupied the pulpit here on Sunday evening owing to the illness of our pastor, Rev. Newman Trux. He gave a timely message on the theme of "Liberty" from the text found in James 1:25.

On Friday, February 22nd, a party was held in the Hagersville High School gym. The Hagersville students invited the Caledonia High School students to a basketball game and dance.

A wonderful crowd attended from both schools and the students danced to records under the supervision of Gary Lampan and Jim Parsons.

Three spot dances were won by Anne Close and Jack Biggar, Doris Smith and Jack Daniels and Kay Close and Carl Haller.

After a delicious lunch of soft drinks and cupcakes the party came to a close at 12:00 P.M.
